"ALL THE YEAR RAND."
DICKENS NEW WEEKLY.
E have the pleasure of amounting that we have entered into amounting.

we have entered into arrangements with Charles Dickens, for the issue of his new publication, entitled, "All the Yest Round," each week, in New York, simultaneously with its issue in London, plates being taken from the English edition, and forwarded to us sufficiently in advance of publication for that purpose. ly in advance of publication for that purposes. The first number will appear in London and New York on Wednesday, May 4th, and will contain the commencement of a new story by Charles Tickens, to be continued from week Charles Dickens, to be continued from week to week during about eight months.

Thus, it will be seen that American readers of "All the Year Round," will obtain the stories and other contributions of Mr. Dickens. and the stuff of writers associated with him; embracing an array of distinguished talent with which no other publication can compare, several weeks in advance of their reaching this country through ordinary sources, and at the same time they are given to the public in Lon-

We will state that this arrangement has been consummated by the payment of a large sum of money to Mr. Dickens, yet the extraordinary interest which the announcement of the miditation has exerted in literary circles.

WATCHES sum of money to Mr. Dickens, yet the extra-ordinary interest which the announcement of the publication has excited in literary circles, the assurance which Mr. Dickens has given that he shall devote to it all of his best ener-gies, and the appearance of a new story from his pen, cannot tail to command for it at once a large circulation.

The tollowing announcement from Mr. Dickens, will convey an idea of the character and aims of the work:

ADDRESS.

Nine years of Household Words are the best assurance that can be offered to the public of the spirit and objects of "All the Year Round." In transferring myself, and my strongest energies, from the publication that is shout to be scontinued, to the publication that is about to the begun, I have the happiness of taking with me that staff of writers with whom I have labored, and all the literary and business co-operation the Past, merely so be assumed, with an in-creased love for them and brighter hopes epringing out of them, in the Present and the

I look, and plan, for a very much wider cirtions, and plan, for a very much wider cir-cle of readers, and yet again for a steadily ex-panding circle of readers in the projects I hope to carry through "all the year round." And I feel confident that this expects on will be realized, if it deserves realization.

The task of my new journal is set, and it will steadily try to work the task out. Its pages shall show to good purpose their grotto is re-membered in them, and with how much of fidelity and earnestness they tell The Story of our Lives from Year to Year.
