There are two ways of overcoming and one is by strangling against the partie if ir sin to which we are exposed; and the other is by God's grace, to rise so high in the Pavine life, that we shall be above that sin as well as others. Some one has remarked it would require infinite toil to remove a mist that had settled down upon the earth; but with little trouble we may ascend the mountain heights and be above the mist in the sunlight. The extract well exemplifies this.

ATLANTIC MONTHLY .- The January number of the Atlantic was welcome as the New magazine makes its way in public favor in Our late High Constable, Mr. Derrick, re- spite of the sneeds and jeers of a partizan service, during which he faithfully and im- ducted American literary periodical can be sustained without bidding for vulgar and clap-trap popularity. CAN TRAVEL LIKE PIZEN .- The electric telegraph is bound to remain a mystery to the million, and ludicrous conceptions of its modus operandi, which some of the most ignorant people have formed, are as mirth provoking as anything out of Rabelais or Smollet. The last illustration of this that has fallen under our eyes, is the following story from the Pittsburg Journal:

Not long since, an old lady entered O'Reilly's office in this city, and said she had a message to send to Wheeling. In a few minutes her note was deposited in a dumb-waiter, and ascended in a mysterious manner through the eeiling. "Is that going straight to Wheeling?" inquired the old lady, with her eyes bent ipon the ceiling. "Yes, ma'am," answered the clerk.
