Lis effects commence by deposition from the slood of corrupt or ulcerous matter, which, in the lungs, liver, and internal organs, is termed tubercles; in the glands, swellings; and on the surface, eruptions or sores. This foul corruption, which genders in the blood, depresses the energies of life, so that scrofulous constitutions not only suffer from scrofulous complaints, but they have far less power to withtand the attacks of other diseases; consequently, vast numbers perish by disorders which, although not scrofulous in their nature, are still rendered fatal by this taint in the system. Most of the consumption which decimates the human family has its origin directly in this scrofulous contamination; and many destructive diseases of the liver, kidneys, brain, and, indeed, of all the organs, arise from or are aggravated by the same cause. arc aggravated by the same cause.

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous; their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and in-vigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in

Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla, the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this every where prevailing and fatal malady. It is combined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the ystem from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as Euupriviand Skin Diseases, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose, or Envairellas, Pintles, Pestulas, Bluttens, Blutins and Boils, Temons, Tetten and Salt Rheem, Schill Head, Ringworm, Regenalism, Strimilitie and Mencental Diseases, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Deblity, and indeed, All Complaints arising from Vittaren on Impute Blood. The popular ledicing in "impurity of the blood" is founded in truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to parify and regenerate this vital fixed, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions. the most effectual remedy which the medical

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC, are so composed that disease within the range of their actism can rarely withstand or evade them Their penetrating properties search, and cleanse, and insigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its diseased action, and restoring its healthy vitalities. As a consequence of these properties, the invalid who is bowed down with pain or physical debility is astonished to find his health or energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and infitting.

Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanae, containing certificates of their cures and directions for their use in the following complaints: Costiveness, Hearthurn, Headache wising from disordered Stomach, Namea, Indigestion, Pain in and Morhal Inaction of the Bortels, Flatulency, Loss of Appathe, Janualice, and other kindred complaints, arising from a low state of the body or obstruction—"its functions. Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerons are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what santidute to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the almonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been diseareded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefit on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

The Best, Cheapest, and Most Successful Family Paper in the Union. HARPÉR'S WEERLY. Price Five Cents a Number: $2.50 per year.

Price Five Cents a Number; 22,50 per year,

[From the N. Y. Evening Post, 1859.]

Harfier Wexkly.—The fifty-two numbers of this attractive and entertaining publication, issued during the last year, have been gathered into a single volume, and now that we see them together, we are surprised at the variety, the sprightliness, and the value of the contents. There, is, a complete history of nearly all the public events of the year—there are mapple dissertations on the leading topics—there are the graceful trifflings (not always trivial, however, but profoundly instructive) of the Lounger—there are the graceful trifflings (not always trivial, however, but profoundly instructive) of the Lounger—there are the records of jokes, new and old—and, above all, there are those striking wood cut representations of contemporary men and things, of follies and fashions, and of customs and countries—all contained within a single volume, and to the had for a song. It is a grand picture-book of the human life of the nineteenth century, in all its phases, and in nearly all maions. Every class of renders, moreover, may be interested by im—the old and thoughtul, the young and gay; the maio fuscious such as the child and the woman.

We would not so often call antention to Harper's Weekly if we were not well satisfied that it is the best family paper published in the United States, and for that reason, and that alone, we desire to see it underenue and tood out a certain kind of literature too prevalent, which blains the morals of its renders, viviates their inste for sensible reading, not is alto get this new Weekly take the place of those papers which depend for excitement on poor, trashy novels.—New York Evangelist.

Harper's Weekly abounds in original matter, spicy, signant, instructive, and entertaining. It has, and deservedly, a very large and increasing circulation.
