HARPER'S (MAGAZINE,

Franklin Square, New York.

W E have the pleasure of announcing that we have entered into arrangements with Charles Dickens, for the issue of his new publication, entitled, "All the Year Round," each week, in New York, simultaneously with its issue in London, plates being taken from the English edition, and forwarded to us sufficient English edition, and forwarded to us sumciently in advance of publication for that purpose. The first number will appear in London and New York on Wednesday, May 4th, and will contain the commencement of a new story by Charles Dickens, to be continued from week to week during about eight months.

Thus, it will be seen that American readers of "All the Year Round," will obtain the stories and other contributions of Mr. Dickens, and the staff of writers associated with him.

a large circulation.

The following announcement from Mr. kens, will convey an idea of the character and aims of the work:

ADDRESS.

Nine years of Household Words are the best assurance that can be offered to the public of the spirit and objects of "All the Year Round." the spirit and objects of "All the Year Round."

In transferring myself, and my strongest energies, from the publication that is about to be discontinued, to the publication that is about to be begun, I have the happiness of taking with me that staff of writers with whom I have labored, and all the literary and business co-operation that can make my work a pleasure. In some important respects, I am now free greatly to advance on past arrangements. Those I leave to testify for themselves in due course.

That usion of the graces of the imagination with the realities of life, which is vital to the welfare of any community, and for which I have striven from week to weak as bonesity as I could during the last nine years, will continue.

Family Paper in the Union.

HARPER'S WEEKLY.

Frice Five Cents a Number; $2.50 per year.

[From the N. Y. Evening Post, 1859.]

HARPER'S WERLIA.—The fifty-two numbers of this attractive and entertaining pathication, issued during the last year, have been gathered into a single volume, and now that we rece them together, we are enterprised at the variety, the aprightliness, and the value of the currents. There is a complete history of nearly all the public events of the year—there are ample dissertaining on the leading topus—there are the graceful infings (not always trivial, however, but profoundly intractive) of the Lounger—there are the teles and stories of Hulwer, Dickens, Thackerny, &c.—there are those striking wood cut representations of contemporary men and things, of folites and fashions, and of customs and countries—all contained within a single volume, and to be had for a song. It is a grand play in all its phases, and in mearly all mations. Every class of readers, moreover, may be interested by man of business, the child and the woman.

We would not so often call attention to Marper's Weekly if we were not well satisfied that it is the best family paper published in the United Sintes, and in real will an an information and that alone, we desire to see it undermine and root out a certain kind of Hierature too prevalent, which blains the morals of use diverted by a very large and in a flow of the yellow-covered literature, so, we should be gain to see this new Weekly take the place of showe papers which depend for excitences to noor, trashy notely. It is a grand to see the new seeds of seeds of the papers which depend for excitences to noor, trashy notely, as very large and increasing circulation. It is also perfects—New London Advertiser.

As Harper's Meekly abounds in original matter, spicy, viguous, lustroper and Domestis reading, and is a received opportunity is afforded for any one in a made, to do so by fiting Harper's Weekly abounds in original matter, spicy, viguous, lustroper be weekly in the p
