DICKENS NEW WEEKLY. W P fave the pleasure of announcing that we have effected into arrangements with barled Dickens, for the issue of his new publication, entitled, "All the Year Round," each fication, entitled, "All the Year Round," each week, in. New York, simultaneously with its labes in London, pistes being taken from the English edition, and forwarded to its sufficiently in advance of publication for that purpose. The first number will appear in London and New York on Wednesday, May 4th, and will contain the commencement of a new story by Charled Dickens, to be continued from week to week during about eight months.

Thus, it will be seen that American readers of "All the Year Round," will obtain the stories and other contributions of Mr. Dickens.

Stories and Retail Tobuges, Small Mailthotory, Embracing an array of distinguished talent with which no other publication can compare, several weeks in advance of their reaching this country threigh Ordinary sources, and at the same time they are given to the public in London.

Stoves, Tin Ware, GasFixtures, &c. HIRAM WILSON, we will state fligt this arrangement has been consummated by the payment of a large sum of money to Mr. Dickens, yet the extra-ordinary interest which the announcement of the publication has excited in literary circles, the essurance, which Mr. Dickens has given that he shall devote to it all of his best energies, and the appearance of a new story from his pen, cannot fail to command for it at once a large circulation.

The following announcement from Mr.

D ckens, will convey an idea of the character and sime of the work:

ADDRESS.

Nine years of Household Words are the best

Nine years of Household Words are the best assurance that can be off-red to the public of the spirit and objects of "All the Year Round."

In transferring myself, and my strongest energies, from the publication that is about to be discontified, to the publication that is about to be begins. I have the happiness of taking with me that staff of white's with whom I have labored, and all the literary and business co-operation that can make my work a pleasure. In some important respects, I am now free greatly to advance on past arrangements. Those I leave GENTLEMEN:—The Salamander Fire-Proof Safe of jour non-milatelure, purchased by us from your Agent. Ferris & Garrett, of our eity, some nine months ago, was severely tried by burglars last Saturday night, and although they had a sledge hammer, cold chiefle, field, and gumpowder, they did not succeed in opening the dyig. The lock being one of "Hatt's Patent Puwder proof," they could not get the powder into it, but drilled a finel, if, the lower panel and forced in a large charge, which was ignifed, and although the drow, inside and out, showed the explosion not to "ave been, a still one, it was not forced open. We suppose they were the greater part of the night at work on it. We are duch grainfied at the feath of the attempt to enter it, and if the above facts are of any service, you are at therety to nee them.
