I played Yankee Doodle and the Star Spangled Banner on au old fife, made a speech on the glorious privilege of universal suffrage, and the election com- menced. Captain Bessy was Judge, and ourself general inspector. As we had all the tickets written with Pitsauk's name on he ran a very large majority. The election closed about dinner, as Jim Lee, an old resi- dent of Butt Valley, trived with two very large square bottles marked Scheidam Schnapps. Pitsauk indulged slightually; the Mohala squaws took some, the old injines wetted their lips, and wanted more, but we were afrald of injuring their constitutions, and retained one bottle for medicinal pur- puses. Pitsauk was inaugurated. First we duck- ed him in the river; then greased him well with deer tallow; then put a store pipe hat on him, and a pair of flannel drawers; put an old musket in his hands; then married him to a Mohala, put the flag on his bark marquee, and left him alone in his glory Ite has made a good chief, and done more for the whites than any Indian on the mount-	"Costats" "Costats" RAT, ROACH, &C.
