LIFE INSURANCE.

WE are told that those who neglect to put their house hold in order do so at their peril. There is no doubt of it. When in health the provident man will provide for the change and when sick in health is used his readiness should prepare for the coming day, for the hour when the sympathy of friends is all surrounding forms. This can be done by Life Insurance. Every man owes this duty to his family. The uncertainty of life is a constant lesson which teaches the need that he who to-day walks in the pride of manhood, may fall to-morrow, and the ties by which riches and honors were to have been brought to the loved ones, vanish as the morning mists. Let every man in health insure to his family the comfort of knowing that should he be called from them the wolf may be kept from the door.

The United States Life Insurance & Trust Co. effect this end. For pamphlets, terms and general information on the subject, refer to

"Unquestionably the best sustained Work of the kind in the World."

HARPER'S MAGAZINE.

THE most popular Monthly in the world.—New York Observer.

No Magazine in Europe or America is so well known nor has half so many readers, and we may safely say none has received so large a tribute of admiration from the cultivated classes, that delight in a healthy, diversified, elevating periodical literature. It is the foremost Magazine of the day. The friends never had a more delightful companion, nor the million a more entertaining fireside friend than Harper's Magazine.—Methodist Protestant. (Baltimore.)

Twenty-five cents buys it—the cheapest richest and most lasting luxury for the money that we know. Three dollars secures it for one year, and what three dollars ever went so far? Put the same amount in clothes, eating, drinking, furniture, and how much of a substantial thing is obtained? If ideas, facts, and sentiments have a monetary value—above all, to the honor that it confers, the pleasantness that they create, and brightens the passage of a year as it goes by us, and the happy, comfortable seat and the imaginative, without which no one can live a life above the animal, are to be put into the scale opposite to dollars and cents, then you may be certain, that if Harper were three or four times as dear, it would amply repay its purchase. It is a Magazine proper, with the idea and purpose of a Magazine—not a book, not a scientific periodical, nor yet a supplier of light gossip and chatty anecdotes—but a Magazine that likes every form of interesting, dignified and attractive literature in its grasp.—Southern Times.

The volumes bound constitute of themselves a library of miscellaneous reading, such as cannot be found in the same compass in any other publication that has come under our notice.—Saint Louis Courier.

Unquestionably the best illustrated work of the kind in the language, that is to say, in the world. The splendid monthly essays from the Editor's Table are above price. The present number is equal to any yet issued, and there is no reason to doubt a long career of prosperity to the work.—N. Y. Christian Advocate and Journal.

We must refer in terms of eulogy to the high tone and varied excellences of Harper's Magazine, a journal with a monthly circulation of about 170,000 copies, to whose pages are to be found some of the choicest works and general reading of the day. We speak of this work as an evidence of the American people, and the popularity it has acquired is merited. Each number contains fully 144 pages of instructive matter, appropriately illustrated with good wood cuts, and is continued in due time every month, and the most philosophical quarterly, blended with the best productions of the daily journal. It has great power in the creation and dissemination of a love of pure literature.—Trubner's Guide to American Literature. London. 1859

TERMS.

The Magazine may be obtained of Booksellers, Periodical Agents, or from the Publishers, at Three Dollars a year, or Twenty Five Cents a Number. The semi annual volumes, as completed, neatly bound in cloth, are for sale at $1.00 per volume, or sent by mail, postage paid, on receipt of the price.

The Publishers will supply Specimen Numbers gratuitously to Agents and Postmasters, and will make liberal arrangements with them for circulating the Magazine. They will also supply clubs of two persons at Five Dollars a year, or five persons at Ten Dollars. Clergymen and Teachers supplied at Two Dollars a year. Numbers from the commencement can now be supplied. Also, the bound Volumes.

The Best, Cheapest, and Most Successful Family Paper in the Union.

HARPER'S WEEKLY.

Price Five Cents a Number, $2.50 per year,

[From the N. Y Evening Post. 1859.]

HARPER'S WEEKLY—The fifty-two numbers of this attractive and entertaining publication, issued during the last year, have been gathered into a single volume, and now that we see them together, we are surprised at the variety, the magnificence, and the value of the contents. There is a complete history of nearly all the public events of the year—there are ample discussions on the leading topics—there are the graceful trifles (not always trivial, however, but profoundly instructive) of the Lounger—there are the tales and stories of Bulwer, Dickens, Thackeray, &c.—there are the rare records of jokes, new and old—and, above all, there are those striking wood cut representations of contemporary men and things, of follies and fashions, and of customs and countries—all contained within a single volume, and to be had for a song. It is a grand pic ure-book of the human life of the nineteenth century, and it is genuine, and in nearly all names. Every one of all classes, moreover, may be interested by it—the old and thoughtful, the young and gay; the man of business, the child and the woman.

We would not so often call attention to Harper's Weekly if we were not well satisfied that it is the best family paper published in the United States, and for the reason, and that alone, we desire to see it read and encouraged, and root out a certain kind of literature too prevalent, which blunts the morals of its readers, vitiates their taste for sensible reading, and is altogether bad in its effects.—New London Advertiser.

As Harper's Magazine has done much to drive out the yellow-covered literature, so we should be glad to see this new Weekly take the place of those papers which depend for excitement on poor, trashy novels.—New York Evangelist.

Harper's Weekly abounds in original matter, spicy signed, instructive and entertaining. It has, and deservedly, a very large and increasing circulation. It is a up-top family paper.—Boston Journal.

If Harper's Weekly is the proper size for binding, and an excellent opportunity is afforded for any one to obtain a complete history of the history of the country as it is made, to do so by filing Harper's Weekly.—Pontiac (Mich.) Jacksonian.

Its fresh leaves, its clear type, its entertaining variety, its severe but just criticisms upon the bodies of the times, its elegantly written and instructive articles, and its able correspondence, all combine to make it the model new-paper of our country and one that every family must prize. Its condensed weekly summary of Foreign and Domestic Intelligence is altogether superior to that contained in any other journal and. Being published too, in a form of preservation and binding, if taken care of as it deserves to be, it will be found in future years as welcome a companion for the family and fire-side as the day on which it was first perused.—McConnelsville (O.) Inquirer.

VEGETABLE LIFE PILLS

AND PHŒNIX BITTERS.

THE high and envied celebrity which these pre-eminent Medicines have acquired for their invariable efficacy in all the diseases which they profess to cure, has rendered the usual practice of puffing not only unnecessary, but unworthy of them.—They are their own best witnesses; their good works testify for them, and they thrive not by the faith of the credulous.

In all cases of Asthma, Acute and Chronic Rheumatism, Affections of the Bladder and Kidneys, Bilious Fevers and Liver Complaints—In the south and west, where these diseases prevail they will be found invaluable. Planters, Farmers and others, who once use these Medicines, will never afterwards be without them.

DYSPEPSIA.—No person with this distressing disease should delay using these medicines immediately.—Eruptions of the Skin, Dyspepsia, Flumlency, Fever and Ague. For this scourge of the western country these medicines will be found a safe, speedy, and certain remedy. Other medicines leave the system subject to a return of the disease—a cure by these medicines is permanent. Try them be satisfied, and be cured

MERCURIAL DISEASES.—Never fails to eradicate completely the effects of Mercury infinitely sooner than the most powerful preparation of Sarsaparilla.

Night Sweats, Nervous Debility, Nervous Complaints of all kinds, Organic Affections, Palpitation of the Heart, Painter's Chiles,

Prince, the Original Proprietor of these medicines was cured of Piles of 35 year's standing by the use of these Life Medicines alone. Worms of all kinds are effectually expelled by these Medicines; Parents will do well to administer them whenever their existence is suspected. Relief will be found.

"ALL THE YEAR ROUND."

DICKENS' NEW WEEKLY.

WE have the pleasure of announcing that we have entered into arrangements with Charles Dickens, for the issue of his new publication, entitled, "All the Year Round," each week, in New York, simultaneously with its issue in London, plates being taken from the English edition, and forwarded to us sufficiently in advance of publication for that purpose. The first number will appear in London and New York on Wednesday, May 4th, and will contain the commencement of a new story by Charles Dickens, to be continued from week to week during about eight months.

Thus, it will be seen that American readers of "All the Year Round," will obtain the stories and other contributions of Mr. Dickens, and the staff of writers associated with him, embracing an array of distinguished talent with which no other publication can compare, several weeks in advance of their reaching this country through ordinary sources, and at the same time they are given to the public in London.

We will state that this arrangement has been consummated by the payment of a large sum of money to Mr. Dickens, yet the extraordinary interest which the announcement of the publication has excited in literary circles, the assurance which Mr. Dickens has given that he shall devote to it all of his best energies, and the appearance of a new story from his pen, cannot fail to command for it at once a large circulation.

The following announcement from Mr. Dickens, will convey an idea of the character and aims of the work:

ADDRESS.

Nine years of Household Words are the best assurance that can be offered to the public of the spirit and objects of "All the Year Round."

In transferring myself, and my strongest energies, from the publication that is about to be discontinued, to the publication that is about to be begun, I have the happiness of taking with me that staff of writers with whom I have labored, and all the literary and business co-operation that can make my work a pleasure. In some important respects, I am now free greatly to advance on past arrangements. These I leave to testify for themselves in due course.

That fusion of the graces of the imagination with the realities of life, which is vital to the welfare of any community, and for which I have striven from week to week as honestly as I could during the last nine years, will continue to be striven for, "all the year round." The old weekly cares and duties become things of the Past, merely so be assumed, with an increased love for them and brighter hopes springing out of them, in the Present and the Future.

I look, and plan, for a very much wider circle of readers, and yet again for a steadily expanding circle of readers in the projects I hope to carry through "all the year round." And I feel confident that this expectation will be realized, if it deserves realization.

The task of my new journal is set, and it will steadily try to work the task out. Its pages shall show to good purpose their motto is remembered in them, and with how much of fidelity and earnestness they tell The Story of our Lives from Year to Year.

25 PER CENT. SAVED.

WE have just received 50 more Boxes of Black Fat Tobacco, from one of the best manufactories in Virginia—much superior to the first lot manufactured for us. We wish to state in regard to this Tobacco, that we can recommend it as better in quality and flavor than any sweet Tobacco before manufactured in this state or elsewhere. We can guarantee to all wishing to try it that they will save 25 per cent. by buying our BLACK FAT TOBACCO.

The Tobacco is free from stem and dirt, made of nothing but pure leaf, and sweetened with the best of white sugar. All dealers who sell sweet tobacco should give this article a trial, and if it is not as we represent it, we will at any time refund the price.—We also keep on hand the following brands of chewing tobacco:

Sweet Peach Leaf, Sweet Congress, Sweet Honey Dew, Sweet Cavendish, Sweet Honey Nine and Sweet Twist. We keep the best brand of Rough and Ready, and a new brand of unvarnished the Virginia Double Pressed. We have the largest stock of Segars and Chewing Tobacco west of Philadelphia.—We will sell the above goods cheaper than they can be bought in that city. All who deal in the above articles are requested to call, and if we do not offer them goods cheaper than they can be bought elsewhere, we will not ask them to buy.
