LIFE INSURANCE. WE are told that he who neglects to provide for his household is eworse than the heathen. There is no doubt of it. When in heath the provident man will provide for his charge and whilst into health six fact his prudence should prepare for solace in the dark day, for the hour when the sympathy of friends is a sounding brass. This can be done by Life Insurance. Every man owes this duty to his family. The uncertainty of life is a constant lesson, which teaches the fact that he who to day walks in the pride of manhood, may fall to-morrow and the plans by which itches and honors were to have been brought to the loved ones, vanish as the morning must. HARPER'S WEERLY.

Price Five Cents a Number; $2.50 per year, [From the N. Y. Evening Post, 1859.]

Hander's Weekly.—The fifty-two numbers of this attractive and entertaming publication, issued during the last year, have been gathered into a single volume, and now that we see them together, we are surprised at the variety, the prigitalines, and the value of the contents. There is a complete history of nearly all the public events of the year—there are the graceful tiffings (not always i trivial, however, but profoundly instructive) of the Lounger—there are the teles and stories of Bulwer. Dickens, Thuckeray, &c.—there are those triking wood cut representations of contemporary men and things, of follies and fishions, and of customs and countries—all contained within a single volume, and to be had for a song. It is a grand picture-book of the human life of the inherental century, in all its phases, and in nearly all nations. Every class of readers, moreover, may be merceted by in—the old and thoughtut, the young and gay; the man of business, the child and the woman.

We would not so often call attention to Harper's Weekly if we were not well sunfield that it is the HARPER'S WEEKLY. As there's Magazine has done much to accept the yellow-covered literature, so we should be glad to see this new Weekly take the place of those papers which depend for excitement on poor, trashy novels.—New York Ecangelist.

Harper's Weekly abounds in original matter, spicy riquant, instructive, and entertaining. It has, and deservedly, a very large and increasing circulation. It is a up-top family paper.—Boston Journal.

"ALL THE YEAR ROUND."
DICKENS' NEW WEEKLY.
WE have the preasure of announcing that we have entered into arrangements with

W we have entered into arrangements with Charles Dickens, for the issue of his new pub-lication, entitled, "All the Year Round," each week, in New York, simultaneously with its issue in London, plates being taken from the English edition, and forwarded to us sufficient-ly in advance of publication for that purpose. I'he first number will appear in London an New York on Wednesday, May 4th, and will contain the commencement of a new story by Charles Dickens, to be continued from week to week during about eight months.

Thus, it will be seen that American readers of "All the Year Round," will obtain the stories and other contributions of Mr. Dickens, and the staff of writers associated with him embracing an array of distinguished talent with which no other publication can compare, sev-eral weeks in advance of their reaching this country through ordinary sources, and at the same time they are given to the public in Lon-been consummated by the payment of a large sum of money to Mr. Dickens, yet the extra-ordinary interest which the announcement of the publication has excited in literary circles the assurance which Mr. Dickens has given that he shall devote to it all of his best energies, and the appearance of a new story from his pen, cannot fail to command for it at once a large circulation.

The following announcement from Mr.

Dickens, will convey an idea of the character and aims of the work:

ADDRESS. fine years of Household Words are the best assurance that can be offered to the public of the spirit and objects of "All the Year Round." In transferring myself, and my strongest energies, from the publication that is about to be discontinued, to the publication that is about to be begun, I have the happiness of taking with me that stuff of writers with whom I have labored, and all the literary and business co-operation that can make my work a pleasure. In some important respects, I am now free greatly to advance on past arrangements. Those I leave to testify for themselves in due course. That lusion of the graces of the imagination with the realities of life, which is vital to the
