The Best, he apest, and Most Successful Family Paper in the Union. HARPER'S WEEKLY.

Price Five Cents a Number: $2.50 per 3 car, From the N. Y. Evening Post, 1450.]

Hangkis Vekkix — The fifty-two numbers of this attractive and entertaining publication, I-seared during the fast year, have been guthered into a single volume, and now that we see in publication, it is a single volume, and now that we see in them together, we are surprised at the variety, the sprightliness, and the value of the contents. There is a complete history of nearly all the public events of the year—there are time general triffines (not always trivial, however, but profoundly instructive) of the Lounger—there are the general triffines (not always trivial, however, but profoundly instructive) of the Lounger—there are the teles and stories of Bulwer. Dickens, Thuckersy, &c.—there are the records of jokes, new and old—and, above all, there are those striking wood cut representations of contemporary men and things, of follies and fachions, and of customs and countries—all contained within a single volume, and to be laid for a song. It is a grand picture-book of the human life of the nineteenth centry, in all its places, and in merly all nations. Every class of renders, moreover, may be interested by it—the old and thoughtful, the young and gay; the man of business, the child and the woman.

We would not so often call attention to Harpers-Weekly if we were not well satisfied that it is the best family paper published in the United States, and for the renders, withers their laste for sen-bile reading, and is altogether bad in its effects—Not Landon Advertiser.

As Harper's Magazine has done much to drive out the yellow-covered literatures, so we should be glind to see this new Weekly take the place of those papers which depend for excitement on poor, trashy novels—New York Evangelist. Cols. Aug 20. 159, if "ALL THE YEAR RGU ND."
DICKENS' NEW WEEKLY.
WE have the pressure of announcing that we have entered into arrangements with Charles Dickens, for the issue of his new publication, entitled, "All the Year Round," early week, in New York, simultaneously with its issue in London, plates being taken from the English edition, and forwarded to us sufficiently in advance of publication for that purpose. The first number will appear in London and New York on Weitnesday, Alay 4th, and will contain the commencement of a new story by Charles Dickens, to be continued from week Thus, it will be seen that American readers of "All the Year Round," will obtain the stories and other contributions of Mr. Dickens, and the staff of writers associated with him, embracing an array of distinguished talent with which no other publication can compare, several weeks in advance of their reaching this country through ordinary sources, and at the same time they are given to the public in London been consummated by the payment of a large sum of money to Mr. Dickens, yet the extra-ordinary interest which the announcement of the publication has excited in literary circles, the assurance which Mr. Dickens has given that he shall devote to it all of his best energies, and the appearance of a new story from his pen, cannot fail to command for it at once a large circulation.

The following announcement from Mr Dickens, will convey an idea of the character and sims of the work:

ADDRESS. Line years of Household Words are the best assurance that can be affered to the public of the spirit and objects of "All the Year Round." In transferring myself, and my strongest en-ergies, from the publication that is about to be discontinued, to the publication that is about to be begun, I have the happiness of taking with me that staff of writers with whom I have labored and all the literary and business co-operation that can make my work a pleasure. In some important respects, I am now free greatly to advance on past arrangements. Those I leave to testily for themselves in due course. That fusion of the graces of the imagination with the realities of life, which is vital to the That lusion of the graces of the imagination with the realities of life, which is vital to the welfare of any community, and for which I have striven from week to week as honestly as I could during the last nine years, will continue to be striven for, "all the year round." The old weekly cares and duties become things of the Past, merely so be assumed, with an increase. The standscape Gardening and Rural Architecture.

I look, and plan, for a very much wider cir-cle of readers, and yet again for a steadily ex-panding circle of readers in the projects I hope to carry through "all the year round." And I to carry through "all the year round." And I feel confident that this expectation will be realized, if it deserves realization.

The task of my new journal is set, and it will steadily try to work the task out. Its pages shall show to good purpose their motto is remembered in them, and with how much of fidelity and earnestness they tell. The Story of the our Lives from Year to Year. CHARLES DICKENS,
