THE SONG OF THE SIAMESE TWINS.
"We were boys together!"

THE SONG OF THE SIAMESE TWINS.
"A shadow of meaning"—Why did General Morris take umbrage at the woodman?

THE SONG OF THE SIAMESE TWINS.
Because Woodman was about to take umbrage from the tree you know.

THE SONG OF THE SIAMESE TWINS.
In view of the general practices of coal dealers, we would respectfully ask if some means cannot be devised to have them stop the error of their weight?

THE SONG OF THE SIAMESE TWINS.
The Neapolitans afford us practical illustrations of a celebrated old adage, for they have certainly found exceptions to the rule (of their king).

THE SONG OF THE SIAMESE TWINS.
Low as the grave is, you cannot climb high enough to see beyond it.

THE SONG OF THE SIAMESE TWINS.
A strong general—It must be a strong general who can storm and carry a fortress.
