Clefystmen, Prolessors in Colleges. Suitesmen and other eminent writes residing in different parts of the Union. Our corps of contributors for the coming year will be so large, and will embrace such a variety of eminent milent, that every department of literature will receive the particular attention of some one competent to do it snple and special justice. Whether it is popular romance, scientific essay, historical ektech, scholastic di-quisition, spicy paragraph, pathetic ballad, humor-ous poem, old-fashioned love story, timely eduorial, or justy othering reflered to popular and elevated journal-sam, that is to be fursished, the LEDGIST corps will be sufficient for the task. In fact, our contuinours, will see and superabundant supply, from which to select the VEAN BEAT. These facts taken in connection with our largely increased means, facilities and experience, warrant us, we think, in promising our renders a fam-y paper for the year 1c01 which will be more inter-sting and instructive, and in every respect more val-utif, even than the LEDGIST of the LEDGIST we need only state the simple fact that its circulation is larger that that of any other zx literary papers in the cornty. In great saccess is owing to the fact that we secure the best wdicers in the contry, and spare no expense in getting up the next ranking that the start that we are and heat we have a fitted that we require the start science which by the underlay best wdicers in the country papers in the corntibutors, the practical and invariably pure and heat by character of all is array traiter, the rare which is taken that not even one offensore word similappear in its could the superised of the syster takes and sketches.
