are the curse, the blight of mankind. They are vile and filthy as well as fatel. They arise from impurity and contamination of the blood, and are to be seen all around us, everywhere. Thousands daily are con signed to the grave from the direful effects of this disease. But why trifle any longer, when the remedy is at hand? Dr. Lindsey's Blood Searcher-the only effectual preparation now before the people, that does its work mildly and safely. It does not close the issue

A Matual Insurance Company has two sources of theome, one from advance premiums paid at the time Policies are 4-sued and the other from Assessments. Its liabilities other than for expenses are confined and depend apon the amount it has at ri-k. A Company with ten mil ions must lose i.m times as much as a Company with one million at rack. The latter might receive advance premiums enough to pay its losees, and the former be compelled to race nine-tenthe of its losees by a see-smeats.

The Coumbia Insurance Company has been in operation about ten months, and with the extra expense of futing up? it has not only sustained itself without any assessment but has a hand-some surplus of $550 20 of its advance premiums above its losses and expenses.

Buth, Maine, April 19th, 1859.

Prof. O. J. Wood, & Co: Gent*:—The letter I wrote you in 1856 concertoing your valuable Hair Restorative, and which you have published in this vicinity and elsewhere, has given rise to numerous enquiries touching the facts in the case. The enquiries are, first, is it a fact of my habitation and name, as sinted in the communication; second, is it true of all therein communic third, does my hair still continue to be in good order and of natural color? To all I can and do answer murrably yes. My hair is even better than in any stage of my life for 40 years past, more soft whickers, and the only cause why it is not generally true is that the substance is washed off by frequent ablumon of the face, when if care were used by wiping the ince in close connection with the whiskers the same result will follow as the hair. I have been in the rreceipt of a great number of letters from all parts of New England, asking me if my hair still continue to be good; as there is soomed froud in the manufacture and sale of various compounds as well as the still has not doubt, here have examined and been the order of the good as there is soomed froud in the moufacture and sale of various compounds as well as the still has not order to my fire and not only without any good effect, but on hisoluting the still have ever and bundeds have examined with striping a hard more from the great summer, for which I am very grateful. I gave it to my friends and hereby induced them to try it, many were skepticel until after trial, and then purchased and seed it with universal success. I will ask as a fuvor, that you send or next hy which I can discover froud in the Restorative, sold by many. I fear, without authority from you. "Unquestionably the best sustained Work of the kind in the World." HARPER'S MAGAZINE.

HE most popular Monthly in the world.—New York Observer. No Magazine in Europe or America is so wel THE most popular Monthly in the world.—New York 1 Observer.

No Magazine in Europe or America is so well known; none has half so many readers; and, we may actly say, none has received so large a tribute of admiration from the colivivated classes, that delight in healthy, diversified, elevating periodical interaure.—It is the foremost Magazine of the day. The fireside never had a more delightful companion, nor the milition a more emerining friend, than Harper's Magazine.—Method ist Protestent (Bultimore).

Twenty-five cents largy it —the cheapest richest, and most lasting luxury for the money that we know. Three dollars ever years and year, and what three dollars ever went so far? Put the same amount in clother, eating drinking, furniture, and how much of a substantial thing is obtained? If ideas, facts, and sentiments have a monetary value—above all, if the humor that refreshes, the pleasantries that bring a genite smile, and brighten the passage of a truth to your brain, and the happy combination of the real and imagnative, without which no one can live a life above the animal, are to be put into these le opposite to dollars and cents, then you may be certain, that if Happer were three or four times as dear, it would samply repay its price. It is a Magazine-not a hook, not a scientific periodical, nor yet a supplier of light gossip and chaity anecdores—but a Magazine that takes every form of interesting, dignified, and attractive titerature in 18 grays.—Southern Times

The vocumes bound constitute of themselves a library of miscellaneous reading, such as can not be found in the same compass in any other publication that that come under our notice—Beston Courier.

Unquestionably it is the heat sustained work of the kind in the language; that is only in the world. Its fresh leaves, its clear type, its entertaining variety, its severe but just criticisms upon the follies of the times, its elegantly written and instructive articles, and its able correspondence, all combine to make it the model newspaper of our country, and one that every family must prize. Its condensed weekly sum mary of Foreign and Domestic Intelligence is altogether appeared to that constituted in any other journal. Being published too, in a form for preservation and binding, if taken care of as it deserves to be, it will be found in future years as we come a companion for the fa nily and fireade as the day on which it was first perused.—McConnelsville (O) Inquirer.
