The entire disease is often arrested at once, and in all cases the violence of the attack is moderated, the disease shortened, and rendered less dangerous.

Coughs and Colds, which are of such frequent occurrence, and which so often lay the foundation of diseased Lungs, Bronchitis and consumption, may all be at once cured by the Fever and Cough Pills.

ALL IN BOTTLES.

I beg leave to call the attention of ... to the above Wines and Liquors, imported by Rudolph Wolfe, of New York, whose name is familiar in every part of this country for the purity of his celebrated Schiedam Schnapps. For Wolfe, in his letter to me as taking of the purity of his Wines and Liquors, says "I will stake my reputation as a man, my standing as a merchant of thirty years' residence in the City of New York, that all the Brandy and Wines which I bottle are pure as imported, and of the best quality, and can be relied upon by every purchaser." Every bottle has the proprietor's name on the wax, and a ... of his signature on the certificate. The public are invited to call and examine for themselves. For sale at Retail by all Apothecaries and Grocers in Philadelphia.

GEORGE B. ASHTON, No. 832 Market st., Philadelphia. Sole Agent for Philadelphia.

Read the following from the New York Courier.

EXPERIENCE BUT SELF-TAUGHT NEW YORK MERCHANT.—We are happy to inform our fellow citizens that there is one place in our city where the physician, apothecary and country merchant, can go and purchase Wines, Liquors, &c., of the purest, unadulterated, and of the best quality. We do not intend to give an elaborate description of the merchant's extensive business, although it will repay any stranger or citizen to visit Udolpho Wolfe's extensive warehouse, Nos. 44 and 46, Beaver street, and Nos. 17, 19 and 21, Marketfield street. His stock of Schnapps on hand ready for shipment could not have been less than thirty thousand cases; the Brandy, some ten thousand cases—Vintages of 1836 and 1856; and ten thousand cases of Madeira Sherry and Port Wine. Scotch and Irish Whisky, Jamaica and St. Croix Rum, some very old and equal to any in this country. He also had three large cellars filled with Brandy Wine, &c., in casks, under Custom House key, ready for bottling. Mr Wolfe's sales of Schnapps last year amounted to nearly a hundred and eighty thousand dozen, and we hope in less than two years he may be equally successful with his Brandies and Wines.

His business consists in the patronage of every lover of this species. Private families who wish pure Wines and Liquors for medical purposes, should send their orders to Mr Wolfe, and every Apothecary in the land make up their minds to discard the poisonous stuff from their shelves, and replace it with Wolfe's pure Wines and Liquors.

We understand Mr Wolfe, to the accommodation of small dealers in the country, puts up assorted cases of Wines and Liquors. Such a man and such a merchant should be encouraged against his tens of thousands of opponents in the United States, who sell nothing but imitations, ruinous alike to human health and happiness. MARK THESE FACTS.

The Testimony of the Whole Word.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

Bad Legs, Bad Breasts, Sores and Ulcers.

All description of sores are remediable by the proper and diligent use of this inestimable preparation. To attempt to cure bad legs by plastering the edges of the wound together is folly, for should the skin unite, a boggy diseased condition remains underneath to break out with increased violence in a few days. The only rational and successful treatment, as indicated by nature, is to reduce the inflammation in and about the wound and to soothe the neighboring parts by rubbing in plenty of the Ointment as salt is forced on meat.

Diptheria, Ulcerated Sore Throat, and Scarlet and Other Fevers.

Any of the above diseases may be cured by well rubbing the Ointment, three times a day into the chest, throat and neck of the patient; it will soon penetrate and give immediate relief. Medicine taken by the mouth must operate upon the whole system to its influence can be felt in any local part, whereas the Ointment will do its work at once. Whoever rubs the ointment in the above manner for the diseases named, or any similar disorders affecting the chest or throat, will find themselves relieved as by a charm.

Piles, Fistulas, Strictures.

The above class of complaints will be removed by rightly fomenting the parts with warm water, and then by most effectually rubbing in the Ointment—Persons suffering from these direful complaints should lose not a moment in arresting their progress. It should be understood that it is not sufficient merely to smear the Ointment on the affected parts, but it must be well rubbed in for some considerable time ... or three times a day, that it may be taken into the system, and give ... to any one rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties concerned in ... the medicines or vending the same, knowing them to be spurious.
