THE LADY OF SHALOTT.

King Arthur proclaimed a solemn tourground for hope. nament to be held at Winchester. The king, not less impatient than his knights for this festival, set off some days before to superintend the preparations, leaving the queen, with her court at Camelot. Sir Launcelot, under pretence of indisposition, and she felt that she could not live apart remained behind also. His intention was from the object of her affections. She left to attend the tournament in disguise; and, the castle, and, descending to the river's having communicated his project to Gue brink, placed herself in a boat, which she any attendant, and, counterfeiting the feebleness of age, took the most unfrequent-
