There is a deal of sound sense at imes in the remarks of insane persons. At understood that the Secretary will substitute U. the South Boston usylum, a few days since, a patient was asked if he was fond of riding orseback.

"No, sir, I ride a hobby."

"There's not much difference between the two, carelessly remarked a gentleman.
"Oh! yes there is," said the patient, and it is this: if you ride a horse you can stop him and get off, but when you mount hobby, you can't stop and you can't get
