The Testimony of the Whole World.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

Bad Legs, Bad Breasts, Sores and Ulcers.

All description of sores are remediable by the proper and diligent use of this inestimable preparation. To attempt to cure bad legs by plastering the edges of the wound together is folly; for should the skin unite, a boggy diseased condition remains underneath to break out with ten fold fury in a few days. The only rational and successful treatment, as indicated by nature, is to reduce the inflammation in and about the wound and to soothe the neighboring parts by rubbing in plenty of the Ointment as salt is forced into meat,

Diptheria, Ulcerated Sore Throat, and Scarlet and Other Fevers.

Any of the above diseases may be cured by well rubbing the Ointment three times a day into the chest, throat and neck of the patient; it will soon penetrate and give immediate relief. Medicine taken by the mouth must operate upon the whole system ere its influence can be felt in any local part, whereas the Ointment will do its work at once. Whoever tries the unguent in the above manner for the diseases named, or any similar disorders affecting the chest or throat, will find them selves relieved as by a charm.

Piles, Fistulas, Strictures.

The above class of complaints will be removed by mildly fomenting the parts with warm water, and then by most effectually rubbing in the Ointment—Persons suffering from these direful complaints should lose not a moment in arresting their progress. It should be understood that it is not sufficient merely to smear the Ointment on the effected parts, but it must be well rubbed in for some considerable time (six or three times a day that it may be taken into the system sufficient to remove the malady. Where or wound is effectually as though opaque to the eye There again bread and water poultices, after the rubbing in of the Ointment, will do great service—Parts is the only sure treatment in combination cases of cancer to the contrary, or where there may be a general bearing down.

Indiscretions of Youth; Sores and Ulcers.

Blotches, as also swellings, can with certainty, be radically cured if the Ointment be used freely, and the Pills be taken night and morning as recommended in the printed instructions When treated in any other way they only dry up in one place to break out in another, whereas this Ointment will remove the humor from the system, and leave the patient a vigorous and healthy being. It will require none with the use of the Pills to ensure a lasting cure.

Dropsical Swellings, Paralysis and Stiff Joints

Although the above complaints differ widely in their origin and nature, yet they all require the Ointment Many of the worst cases, of such diseases, will yield in a comparatively short space of time when the Ointment is generally rubbed into the parts affected, even after every other means have failed. In the various maladies the Pills should be taken according to the printed directions accompanying each box.

Both the Ointment and Pills should be used in the following cases:

Bad Legs,	Corns (Soft)	Rheumatism,
Bad Breasts,	Cancers,	Scalds,
Burns,	Contracted and	Sore Nipples,
Bunions,	Stiff Joints,	Sore Throats,
Bite of Mosquito,	Elephantiasis,	Skin Diseases,
Chigoe and Sand Flies,	Fistulas,	Scurvy,
Coco Bay	Gout,	Sore Heads,
Consulting,	Glandular Swellings,	Tumors,
Chiego foot,	Ulcers,	Ulcers,
Childblains,	Lumbago,	Wounds,
Chapped Hands,	Piles,	Yaws,

CAUTION—Spurious and genuine imitations of the words "Holloway, New York and London," are discernible as a watch mark in every leaf of the book of directions around each pot or box, the same may be plainly seen by holding it to the leaf to the light. A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as will lead to the detection of any party counterfeiting the medicines or vending the same, knowing them to be spurious.

"Unquestionably the best sustained Work of the kind in the World."

HARPER'S MAGAZINE.

THE most popular Monthly in the world.—New York Observer.

No Magazine in Europe or America is so well known; none has half so many readers; and, we may safely say, none has received so large a tribute of admiration from the cultivated classes, that delight in a healthy, diversified, elevating periodical literature. It is the foremost Magazine of the day. The fireside never had a more delightful companion, nor the million a more entertaining friend, than Harper's Magazine.—Methodist Protestant (Baltimore).

Twenty-five cents buys it—the cheapest, richest, and most lasting luxury for the money that we know. Three dollars secures it for one year, and what three dollars ever went so far! Put the same amount in clothes, eating, drinking, furniture, and how much of a substantial thing is obtained! If ideas, facts, and amusement have a monetary value—above all, if the human that refreshes, the pleasantries that bring a gentle smile, and brighten the passage of a truth to your mind, and the happy combination of the real and amusing ever, without which no one can have a life above the animal, are to be put into the scale opposite to dollars and cents, then you may be certain, that if Harper were three or four times as dear, it would amply repay its price. It is a Magazine proper, with the literary and purpose of a Magazine—not a book; not a scientific periodical, nor yet a supplier of light gossip and chatty anecdotes—but a Magazine that takes every form of interesting, dignified, and attractive literature in its grasp.—Southern Times.

The volumes bound constitute of themselves a library of miscellaneous reading, such as can not be found in the same compass in any other publication that has come under our notice.—Boston Courier.

The periodical is the best-sustained work of the kind in the language; that is to say in the world. The splendid monthly essays from the Editor's Table are above price.—N. Y. Christian Advocate and Journal.

We must refer in terms of eulogy to the high tone and varied excellences of Harper's Magazine, a journal with a monthly circulation of about 170 000 copies in whose pages are to be found some of the choicest light and general reading of the day. We speak of this work as an evidence of the American people and the popularity it has acquired is merited. Each number contains fully 144 pages of matter, appropriately illustrated with good wood-cuts; and it combines in itself the tacy monthly and the more philosophical quarterly, blended with the best features of the daily journal. It has great power in the creation and dissemination of a love of pure literature.—Tribune's Guide to American Literature, London.

The Best, Cheapest, and most Successful Family Paper in the Union.

HARPER'S WEEKLY.

Price Five cents a number. $2,50 per year.

THE variety, the originality, and the value of the contents. There is a complete history of nearly all the public events of the year—there are magnificent articles on the leading topic—there are the generally of the day—there are the poems of the day, but profoundly instructive) of the League—there are tales and stories of Bulwer, Dickens Thackeray, &c.—there are the new and old—and, above all, there are those striking wood cut representations of contemporary men and things, of follies and fashions, and of customs and countries—all combined within a single volume, and to be had for a song. It is a grand picture book of the human life of the nineteenth century, in all its phases, and in nearly all nations. Every class of readers, moreover, may be interested by it—the old and the natural, the young and gay; the man of business, the child and the woman.—N. Y. Evening Post.

We would not so often call attention to Harper's Weekly if we were not well satisfied that is the largest paper of the kind in the United States, and we have reasons and that alone, we deserve to undermine and root out a certain kind of literature too prevalent, which haunts the purlieus of its readers, vitiates their taste for sensible reading, and is altogether bad in itself.—Boston Christian Register.

As Harper's Magazine has done much to drive out the yellow-covered literature, so we should be glad to see this new Weekly take the place of those papers which depend for support entirely on poor, trashy novels.—New York Evangelist.

In (Harper's Weekly) is the proper size for binding, and an excellent opportunity is afforded for any one who wishes to preserve the history of the country as it is made, to do so by using Harper's Weekly.—Portland (Maine) Jackonian.

In both leaves, as a clear type as entertaining as can be severe but just comments upon the follies of the time and the calamity with and the abstract articles and incidents correspondence, all combine to make it the most interesting paper of our country, and one that every family must prize. Its condensed weekly summary of European and Domestic Intelligence is altogether superior to that contained in any other journal Being published too, in a form for preservation and binding, is taken care of as it deserves to be, it will be found in future years as welcome a companion for the family circle as it is now, days on which it was first received.—McConnelsville (O.) Inquirer.

Harper's Weekly is electrotyped, and back numbers can be furnished at any time.

Johnson's Patent Hog Trough.

THE subscribers having purchased the right to manufacture and sell this invention in Lancaster county desire to introduce it to general use. It is cast iron throughout, a shifting top, of sufficient capability to hold the feed of one hog. It is so constructed that the animal cannot get its feet into it and must take its feed without the usual scrambling and splashing. By the arrangement of the top the hog is prevented from feeding until the trough is filled; when the top can be shifted at will. The trough will be found a great convenience in feeding, and must, when known, become popular The troughs are for sale at the shops in Second street below Union, Columbia, Pa. SUPPLEE & BRO.

As Harper's Magazine has done much to drive out the yellow-covered literature, so we should be glad to see this new Weekly take the place of those papers which depend for support entirely on poor, trashy novels.—New York Evangelist.

In both leaves, as a clear type as entertaining as can be severe but just comments upon the follies of the time and the calamity with and the abstract articles and incidents correspondence, all combine to make it the most interesting paper of our country, and one that every family must prize. Its condensed weekly summary of European and Domestic Intelligence is altogether superior to that contained in any other journal Being published too, in a form for preservation and binding, is taken care of as it deserves to be, it will be found in future years as welcome a companion for the family circle as it is now, days on which it was first received.—*McConnelsville (O.)
