THE WAR NEWS.

To give our readers news in our paper, printing as we generally do on Friday and issuing on Saturday is almost an impossibility. We have therefore concluded to devote our entire outside room to the dispatches of each day, as given in the dailies. It will doubtless be stale to many but it is the only way in which we can preserve in our columns a record of the important crisis through which we are passing.

HOLIDAYSBURG, April 20.

We have sent from here two companies, composed of eighty and ninety men respectively. Two more will be ready to march in five days. The Light Cavalry company has also tendered its services. Blair county will furnish at least ten companies.

EASTON, April 20.

This morning Captain Bell, with ninety-seven men, and Capt. Dahm, with eighty men, left for Harrisburg. The ladies presented each company with flags, and the whole town accompanied them to the cars. The Providence (R. I.) Artillery escorted them, and gave them a salute of thirty-four guns.

BOSTON, April 21.

A mass meeting of our citizens was held in State street, this morning, and addressed by Fletcher Webster, Chas. J. Woodbury, and many other distinguished citizens. The meeting was for the purpose of raising a regiment for the purpose of raising a regiment for the purpose of raising a regiment.

BOSTON, April 20.

The most intense excitement prevails here relative to the Baltimore mob, and vengeance is threatened for the death of the Massachusetts soldiers. Gov. Andrew has requested the Mayor of Baltimore to have the bodies of the deceased preserved in ice and sent to him.

BOSTON, April 20.

The war feeling is becoming more intense every hour all over New England. Dispatches pour in from all parts, announcing the holding of mass meetings. Three full companies enlisted at Newburyport to-day at an hour's notice.

Salem has voted $15,000 and sent two companies, numbering 160 men, who arrived here to-day.

The Irish, French and Germans are enlisting on a mass.

The Fifth Regiment and Flying Artillery are anxiously awaiting orders to march.

The Fifth Massachusetts Regiment and the Boston Flying Artillery start for Washington to-day.

There will be a public meeting in State street on Sunday morning, to raise a volunteer regiment. The call for the meeting is headed by Fletcher Webster.

BALTIMORE, April 21.

There is unparalleled excitement here. Hundreds of private citizens are openly carrying arms. Along the line of railways the houses have got muskets and missiles, and even some small cannons in them. Volunteers are enlisting very rapidly, and the streets are crowded. In all portions of the city business is suspended. Troops are constantly arriving, and are actively engaged. Arms in abundance have been furnished.

BALTIMORE, April 20.

The bridge at Melvale, between Woodbury and Mount Washington, on the Northern Central Railway, has been destroyed by fire.

It is reported that some northern volunteers, from Harrisburg, are at the Royal House, on the Northern Central road, but the rumor is not confirmed.

SECOND DISPATCH.

The bridges on the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Railroad, this side of Havre de Grace, were burned down last night by secessionists, anxious to prevent the passage of troops to Baltimore.

RAID AND TRAINS STRUCK, April 20.

One of the bridges at Baltimore, and another bridge at some distance from that city, have been destroyed. No trains for Baltimore have left this depot to-day.

WILMINGTON, DEL., April 20.

An intense excitement prevails here.

There has been no train on the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore railroad below the Susquehanna river to-day.

J. R. Trimble is reported as killed. It is said that he led the rioters to the destruction of the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore railroad property.

At a meeting of the City Councils of Wilmington, to-night, $8,000 were appropriated for the defence of the city and support of the military.

Resolutions were passed approving of the President's call for troops, and asking Gov. Burton to issue a proclamation for the same purpose.

The Delaware Guards, Captain Bayard and Lieut. Almond, two companies; the Columbia Rifles, Captain Barr, and the Home Guards, Captain Lamont, have tendered their services to the city and State.

The City Councils have called a meeting of citizens for Monday to provide for the families of the volunteers.

WASHINGTON, April 20.

General Cadwalader's residence at Magnolia Station, on the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore railroad, was burned this morning by the rioters. The Brandwine bridge, and all the bridges on the road between the Susquehanna and Philadelphia are guarded by from fifty to one hundred men each.

The death of Trimble is discredited.

New York, April 21.—Erening.—The Rhode Island Regiment under command of Gov. Sprague, 1000 strong, arrived here this morning and left in the steamer Coatzacocheas at sundown.

was perfectly unparalleled, and the march was a perfect ovation. The crowd was estimated at nearly a million of people, who showered their blessings on the troops, and exhibited the wildest demonstrations of patriotism.

The Twelfth Regiment embarked on the steamer Baltic, and the Seventy-first on the steamer R. R. Caylor, which left at 6 o'clock, accompanied by the revenue cutter, Harriet Lane. The latter sails under so-called orders, probably as an escort. The steamer Columbia also joined the fleet, taking the Sixth Regiment.

The steamer Ariel will take the Third Battalion of rifles, of Massachusetts, and some regulars. The steamer Chesapeake took aboard 300 seaman, but returned them, the orders being countermanded.

The steamers Monticello, Marion, James Adger and Ioanoke, have their steam up, ready to sail at a moment's notice. The steamer Parkesburg, and the steamers Florida, Alabama and Augusta, of the Savannah line, have been chartered by the government.

It is understood that the fleet will rendezvous in the lower bay, and all start together in the morning.

in our newspapers. The proclamation has been drawn up but not issued by the authorities.

A military alliance is about to be formed between this city and New Albany and Jeffersonville, Indiana, to preserve a peaceable status between the three cities, and to preserve amicable relations in any event.

The Home Guards for this city was organized this evening.

INDEPENDENCE, April 20.

At an early hour this morning the arms and munitions of war held at the Arsenal in Liberty, Clay county, were at the demand of some citizens given up. It is stated that there were 1300 stand of arms and ten or twelve pieces of cannon, and a considerable amount of powder in the Arsenal. This will be distributed in Clay and the adjoining counties.

Ninety stand of arms and a cannon have been brought here.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 20.

The Arsenal at Liberty has been garrisoned by 100 men. A large secession meeting was held here to-day, and thousands from the adjoining counties of Missouri and Kansas were present. A secession party was raised and the Star and other prominent places decorated with secession flags.

St. Joseph, Mo., April 21.

The secession flag was unfurled and carried through the streets to-day by a mobbed company, after which it was raised on Market square without disturbance or much enthusiasm. Considerable excitement is in vogue, and secession is the prevailing sentiment.

NEW ORLEANS, April 20.

Troops are continually arriving here from the upper Parishes.

NEW ORLEANS, April 20.

The steamer Star of the West was ordered off Indiana on Wednesday last by the Galveston volunteers, who captured her without resistance. She has arrived at the bar. She has 800 or 900 barrels provisions on board.

The steamer Habana has been purchased by the Confederacy, and will be converted into a war steamer, to carry eight guns, in addition to a pivot gun.

April 21.

The Star of the West was captured by the Matagorda, at the order of Col. Van Dren, of the confederate army. Our foundries are casting guns, shot and shell. Troops continue to leave for Pensacola.

The principal streets are all barricaded, and many of the houses furnished with shutters, in which loop-holes are cut, for the purpose of pouring a deadly fire on any troops that might attempt to march through the city.

Mr. Allberger, who has just risen from a sick bed, was surrounded by a mob of a dozen half-drunken ruffians at the Eatway House before he left, who endeavored, by abusive language, to provoke a word of reply from him, intending no doubt to shoot him on the spot, had he afforded them a pretext.

He could not procure a revolver in the city every store having been emptied of arms by the mob. A prominent citizen who was known as a Union man, was compelled to leave the city at six hours' notice, taking with him a family of eight children. It is believed that no northern man's life will be worth an hour's purchase there when the next gun is fired in the war.

WILMINGTON, April 22.

Passengers from the south on the train which has just passed here report all quiet at Baltimore, and that the turnpike over which they traveled was clear of secessionists.

NEW YORK, April 22.

Collector Barney states that a gentleman officially connected with the government says that he has information from Washington that a correspondence has been opened with the Baltimore authorities, resulting in an undertaking, on the part of Baltimore, to repair the railroad bridges, telegraph lines, and to keep the communication open for passengers, mails and dispatches, as well as the troops.

WILMINGTON, April 21.

An enthusiastic Union meeting was held at Newport, Delaware, last night. The meeting was eloquently addressed by Colonel James L. Kilgore, a Breckinridge democrat. But one sentiment prevailed—the Union must and shall be preserved. Strong Union resolutions were adopted, and the meeting adjourned with enthusiastic cheers for the Union, the Constitution, the American flag, and the speaker.

WILMINGTON, April 22.

A U. S. naval officer, arrived here, states that the steamer Spaulding landed her troops, reinforcing Fort Mifflin very quietly.

The Baltimoreans were expecting her arrival, intending to capture her, but she started down the bay, and frustrated their designs.

Fortress Monroe has also been reinforced with the Massachusetts regiments.

It is also certain that the Sixth Massachusetts regiment has possession of Annapolis.

NEW YORK, April 22.

The brigantine Tornado, was seized yesterday, having on board a large amount of powder for the South.

An armed steam tug has gone in pursuit of a three-masted schooner which sailed yesterday from Perth Amboy, loaded with arms, &c.

It is stated by a gentleman arrived from Baltimore that a report prevailed there that some of the ships now at Norfolk had been scuttled, the heavy derricks in use at the Navy-yard had been thrown down, and much of the machinery there had been destroyed, by order of the U. S. government.

The U. S. steamer Pawnee arrived at Norfolk on Saturday morning in Washington.

ALBANY, April 22.

The banks here have tendered to Governor Morgan their share of the $2,500,000 State loan for war purposes.

INDEPENDENCE, Mo., April 21.

There were only 100 muskets, nearly 200 rifles, and three cannon, taken from the arsenal in Clay county, and they were only taken to protect the city from any rising bands of desperadoes that may attack the county.

A bond was given for them, and they will be returned when demanded by the proper authorities. Other cannon and guns were not taken.

PITTSBURGH, April 22.

Many lots of contraband goods have been seized by the Committee of Public Safety. They give notice that hereafter no goods of any description for the southern States shall pass through Pittsburgh.

TYNONG, April 22.

Four more companies will leave this county during the next two days, making ten companies in all from little Blair county. This place furnishes another company under the command of Capt. Crowthers. Over one-seventh of our actual population is now in the ranks.

REIDERS, April 22.

The 80th Rifles of Tamaqua, 85 men, and the German Yeagers of Pottsville, 80 men, passed through to-day for Harrisburg. The German Light Infantry, 80 men, and Jackson Guards, 95 men, of Tamaqua, will leave there to-morrow for Harrisburg.

GREENSBORO, Pa., April 22.

We are all for the Union here, now and forever. Our company, the "Union Blues," 115 men, has left for Harrisburg.
