ly, while many of the companies flew to arms at every alarm, some standing in their ranks the greater part of the night.

At day-break we were in ranks. After breakfasting on biscuit and water the line was again formed and we moved back towards the railroad. We are, at this writing, (Monday noon) in the woods near the railway station, awaiting (rumor says) cars to return to York.

It may not be proper for a soldier to find fault with his superiors, but I must complain of the want of system and military foresight in all the arrangements for moving this Brigade. We were hurried from Harrisburg without being furnished with anything except muskets and bayonets—no uniforms, no accoutrements. The majority of the men being entirely raw and uninstructed in handling the musket, or in drill of any kind, rendered our Brigade of no great importance in face of an enterprising enemy. Add to this the total want of efficiency or experience in our field officers, and you will see that the advantages of good, strong, brave men, are counteracted by the weakness of their organization.

Our men are to-day all in good health and spirits; ready and willing for any service their country may require.

I regret for the honor of the company to record the disappearance, early this morning, of two of our men. Up to this time they have not been heard from. They may be prisoners in the hands of the enemy, but I fear this the most favorable supposition. It is generally believed that they have deserted. I will withhold their names for the present. They were well known in town, and better things were expected of them.—I hope to give you a later account before the Spy appears. Yours, &c.,

THIRSTY SQUAD.

CAMP SCOTT, April 26, 1861.

DEAR SPY: My last brought us up to leaving Camp Ashland, or, as the soldiers term it, Camp Misery. Early on Monday we took up our line of march for the Railroad to take cars for York. Provisions were very scarce and the men complaining. We lay here all day. In the evening while lying waiting for the train, a colored messenger arrived in our lines with information that a large body of horsemen were on the march to destroy the Railroad Bridge, two miles above Ashland, which would cut off our railroad communication. Our Captain immediately offered the services of his company to go forward and protect the bridge at all hazards. His offer was promptly accepted, and we were formed in line and led up the road in double quick time. After a hard run we arrived at the bridge ahead of the "Plugs." Lieut. Rambo was ordered to take twelve of our most trusty men and climb the hill overlooking the bridge. The Captain stated that as this was a service of danger he would prefer volunteers who had determined to sacrifice life if necessary. Nearly the entire company stepped forward. Our movements were so prompt and rapid that the "Plugs" were foiled and the trains passed over safely. Our men seemed eager for a fight, and there was no flinching. At midnight we took the cars and after a most tedious ride reached York at 9 a. m., Tuesday, men all well, but very hungry and thirsty. After we had debarked, Rev. J. H. Menges served us with provisions—baskets of bread, meat, &c. His kindness will ever be remembered and if the prayers of our boys avail he will be blessed. We were marched to the Fair Grounds, where we took up our quarters. Our friends soon began to pour in with provisions of every kind, and our tired hungry company was soon supplied not only with necessities, but luxuries. Never has it been my fortune to meet with more kindness than from the citizens of York. The soldiers will not soon forget their hospitality. It would be invidious to mention names. All seemed alike actuated by a desire to make us comfortable and to minister to our wants. Our men are all in good spirits and are getting tolerably proficient in drill; we hope soon to be in more active service. Private William B. Berry was discharged on account of physical disability. More next time.

THIRSTY SQUAD.

[Our correspondent says in parenthesis in the above letter, "Praise the citizens for us." The desire on the part of the men that the citizens shall have their meed of praise shows most conclusively how nobly it has been earned. On the part of Columbia we beg leave to thank our kind friends of York for the friendly sympathy extended to our citizens now bearing arms and encamping in their borough. It is what might be expected of them, and will not soon be forgetten by our soldiers or citizens.—ED SPY.]

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS AND OINTMENT.—The voice of the people is the testimony of reason. Ministers of the Gospel are everywhere recommending them while eminent medical men prescribe them for their patients in all cases requiring tonic, disinfectant, antiseptic or alterative remedies. Letters are received from all parts of the United States and Canadas enclosing orders from respectable physicians or certificates, from clergymen of every denomination, of extraordinary cures effected by the agency of these medicines. It but a tithe of these well authenticated documents were published it would form a re-spectable sized volume and an interesting addition to the literature of the day. Read the advertisement.

THE CONFESSION AND EXPERIENCE OF AN INVALID.

Published for the benefit and as a warning and a caution to young men who suffer from Nervous Debility, Premature Decay, etc., supplying at the same time the means of self-cure, by one who cured himself after being put to a great expense through medical imposition and quackery. HENRY R. COSTAR.—All the summer I have been troubled with Roaches and Mice. I was actually ashamed of the house, for the Roaches were everywhere. I purchased a box of you Exterminator and tried it, and in one week there was not a Roach or Mouse in the house.

JOHN B. GIVENS, No. 91 Elm street.

HOUSEKEEPERS—troubled with vermin, need be so no longer, if they use "Costar's" Exterminators. We have used it to our satisfaction, and if a box cost $5, we would have it. We had tried poisons, but they effected nothing; but Costar's article knocks the breath out of Rats, Mice and Bed Bugs, quicker than we can write it. It is in great demand all over the country.—Medina (O.) Gazette.

MORE GRAIN and provisions are destroyed annually in Grant county by vermin, than would pay for tons of this Rat and Insect killer.—Lancaster (Wis.) Herald.

HENRY R. COSTAR—Your Exterminator is received, used, and pronounced a decided success. We used a box of it, and the way the Rats and Mice around our premises "raised Ned" that night was a caution to sleepers. Since then not a Rat or Mouse has been heard in kitchen or cellar.—Mogregor (Iowa) Times.

I HAVE BEEN SELLING your Exterminator for the last year, and have found it a sure shot every time. I have not known it to fail in a single instance."

BELLINGHAM'S CELEBRATED

STIMULATING ONGUENT,

For the Whiskers and Hair.

The subscribers take pleasure in announcing to the citizens of the United States, that they have obtained the agency for, and are now enabled to offer to the American public, the above justly celebrated and world renowned article.

The Stimulating Onguent is prepared by Dr C. P. Bellingham an eminent physician of London, and is warranted to bring out a thick set of in from three to six weeks. This article is the only one of the kind used by the French, and in London and Paris it is in universal use.

It is a beautiful, economical, soothing, yet stimulating compound acting as it by magic upon the roots, causing a beautiful growth of luxuriant hair. It applied to the scalp, it will cure all cutaneous, and cause it upon upon places of the bald spots a fine growth of new hair. Applied according to directions, will turn red or tawny hair dark, and restore gray hair to its original color, leaving it soft, smooth and flexible—The "Onguent" is an unexceptionable article in every gentleman's toilet, and after one week's use they would not for any consideration be without it.

The subscribers are the only Agents for the article in the United States, to whom all orders must be addressed.

Price One Dollar a box—for sale by all Druggists and Dealers; or a box of the "Onguent" (warranted to have the desired effect) will be sent to any who desire it, by mail (free of) on receipt of price and postage, $1.18. Apply to or address
