I beg leave to call the attention of citrzens of the United States to the above Wines and Liquors, im-ported by Udolpho Wolf, of New York, whose mume is familiar in every part of this country, for the parity of his celebrated Schiedam Schnapps. Sur. Wolfe, in his letter to me, speaking of the purity of his Wines and Liquors, says: "I will stake my reputation as a man, my standing as a merchant of thirty years' res-idence in the City of New York, that all the Brandy and Wines which I bottle are pure as imported, and of the best quality, and can be relied upon by 'every purchaser." Every bottle has the proprietor's name on the wax, and a fac simile of his signature on the centificate. The public are invited to call and exam-ine for themselves.
