We last week inexcusably neglected to thank a fuir young friend for a present of regiments in the service. splendid parches-the finest we have eaten this year. But our gratitude has not lost in strength or quality by holding over a week-it is of the winter variety, warranted to improve and grow mellow by kceping .--The fruit was magnificent and very suggestire in flavor. ' The young lady will please accept our sincere acknowledgements of the delicious compliment.

XARN .- We acknowledge the receipt of he being in command at Camp Curtin; but twelve and a half pounds of yarn, which we we scarcely think the term was meant to be baye placed in the hands of the ladies who applied so ill-naturedly and unjustly, To remove every excuse for reflection on Col. last week volunteered to receive and distributa it. There was some necessary delay in Welsh, on the part of any one, however, we procuring it, and several applicants were have made inquiry as to his connection with disappointed. The yain was' received by the transfer of the men at Harrisburg, supng yesterday morning, and immediately posing that as he was in command he would placed in the hands of the ladies, from whom necessarily receive them. It appears that it may now be obtained, as required by last week one company arrived from Pittsknitters.

· We are ready to receive an lacknowledge any further contributions of the same kind, and dispose of them in a like manner. Theyarn on hand will be sufficient for fifty pairs of socks, and will probably be distributed before the end of next week. Who volunteers to furnish another supply-large or small?

THE NEW STATE REGIMENTS .-- The regi ments under the last requisition are rapidly Obeing formed in Harrisburg. They will number from the Forty-fifth to the Sixtieth, inclusive-sixteen in number. The plan of Forty-Sixth Regiment. numbering is to count twenty-five three 'months' four independent and fifteen Reserve regiments, bringing the number, previously organized in the State up to fortyfour. The officers assigned to regiments thus far are:

Col. Thos. Welsh, Forty fifth; Col. Joseph Knipe, Forty-sinth; Col. T. H. Goode, Fortyseventh; Col. Jas. Nagle, Forty-eighth; Col. Wm. II. Irvin, Porty-ninth; Col. B. C. Christ, Hambright himself is too gallant a man, Fifticth. The remaining Colonels are not and too well acquainted with Col. Welsh's fyet assigned the number of their regiments. ; C.l. Knipe's regiment has already pro ceeded to Washington. Several others folcourtesy. ·low immediately.

We have been informed by a member of the "Fruit Grower's Assocation of Eastern Eennsylvania," that there will be a meeting 'of "Grape growers" in Lancaster, on whe 26th inst., at Cooper's hotel. Great exvertions are being made to have as many grapes, new and old varieties, on exhibition iss can be "scared up"-near and far. Lancaster, Chester, Delaware, Philadelphia, Bucks, Berks, Lebanon, York and other Sountiez, will, it is expected, be represented. Many grape fanciers (!) have been written to, to send samples of new kinds. Free for object of the opposition and the meetingwhether it will be strictly carried out is to all to exhibit and to take part in the exambe seen. Of course the Democracy join in insticut and deliberations. Other fruit of course is not excluded. The York papers will contribute to the their convention on Wednesday without success of the exhibition by giving the above making a nomination, as was expected. If one of the corporals of Company A, while -cr its substance-editorial insertion.

THE FIFTH RESERVE .- Everything connectel with this regiment, of which our boys of the Cookman Rangers form a part, They can, however, scriously elog this moveis of interest to our readers. It has never been a newspaper regiment, however, not maving received even bare justice, as far as we have seen. It's movements have been unchronicled, and its excellent condition unnoticed by newspaper writers, except loor other or its companies. At length we disappointed candidates of last week will for, who conveyed the man to our hospital the timbers of a bridge. Fortunately it
