I beg leave to call the attention of chitzens of the United States to the above Wines, and Liquors, imported by Udolpho Wolf, of New York, whose name is familiar in every part of this country, for the pury of his celebrated Schiedam Schnapps. Jor. Wolfe, in his letter to me, speaking of the purity of his Wines and Liquors, says: "I will stake my reputation as a man, my standing as a merchant of thirty years' redience in the Cay of New York, that all the Brandy and Vines which I bottle are pure as imported, and of the best quality, and can be relied upon by every purchaser." Every bottle has the proprietor's name on the wax, and a fac simile of his signature on the zertificate. The public are invited to call and examine for themselves.
