

For Justice of the Peace.—We are requested to announce that J. W. Hamilton will be a candidate for the office of Justice of the Peace in the Upper Ward, at the ensuing Spring election.

Rev. Wadsworth, D. D., of Philadelphia, is expected to preach in the Presbyterian Church to-morrow (Sabbath) morning and evening, at the usual hours.

Bishop Stevens, who was announced to officiate in the Episcopal Church on Monday next, will not be able to do so, having received a fall which will confine him temporarily to his house. He, however, will preach on the Monday evening following—that is, Monday evening, the 24th inst.

OUR VICTORIES.—There is no need for a "victory" upon our part over our glorious victories in Tennessee and North Carolina. The simple word of the facts, in considerable proportion derived from rebel sources, is triumph sufficient. We give our space freely this week to a record of the inspiring news.

CORRECTION.—An error occurred in the County Account as published last week, in the item of Mayor and Constables' fees, there being a charge of $132.42 for fees paid Mayor Sanderson, swelling the amount received to him for himself and Constables by that amount. This should have been charged as Bond Damages, making the total Mayor and Constables' fees $1200.08, and the Total Bond Damages $1618.22, and the total miscellaneous $2325.00.

OUR TEMPERANCE.—At a meeting of the Rising Star Section, No. 30, of T., held on Monday evening last, the following persons were installed as subordinate officers to serve the present term:—

W. A. Chas. H. Erwin; V. A., P. Gardner; T., George Millin; A. T., Charles P. Shreiner; S., George Lytle; A. S., Thomas Fisher; G., Joseph Knowlton; T., Daniel Sample; W. J. John Yessen; A. W., John Clark; Corresponding Sec., D. Peart Erwin.

SECRET.—We accidentally omitted last week to call attention to the concert for the benefit of the poor given by the "Columbia Files Club" on Saturday evening, in Old Pillsbury's Hall. The performance at that occasion was admirable, and a fair audience—by no means so good as it should have been—attended. The musical talent in the company is first-rate, and should receive encouragement and support.

The same company will give a concert on next Tuesday evening, 18th inst., when an entertaining bill will be presented. We hope the people will turn out and give the club a hearty support, in their effort to amuse and entertain. They are worthy a bumping house, and we hope they may get it.

GOOD TEMPLARS.—At a meeting of Hope Lodge, No. 8, I. O. of T., on Tuesday, 4th inst., the following officers were installed to serve for the ensuing term:

P. W. C. T., Chas. H. Pfahler; W. C. T., John Gaines; W. V. T., Miss Lizzie Clarke; W. S., Chas. H. McCullough; W. A. S., Miss Jane Heisley; W. T., W. H. Shibley; V. E. S., S. W. Millin; W. C. L. C., Oberlin W. R. H. S., Miss Annie Hallemann; W. L. H. S., Miss Lizzie Beveridge; W. M., Oyrus McClaugh; W. D. M., Miss Mary Odeh; W. G. G., Miss Rebecca Fisher; W. G. G., Chas. P. Shreiner.

COLORED WELSH RECRUITING.—Col. Welch is busily recruiting his health and strength, but has also opened a recruiting office for his regiment, in Whipper's Building—adjoining the immortal temple of his former labors and triumphs, the "Blue Front"—an opportunity to enter the service under him. We hope he may have abundant success. His regiment is among the fullest in the service, and it would be a great gratification to Col. W. if he were enabled to return with sufficient material from home, to bring it up to the standard. We believe the Colonel expects to join his command between now and the first of March.

OUR COMPANY.—At the annual election of the Executive of the Company, the following gentlemen were elected to serve for three years:

H. G. Minch, S. F. Eberlein, M. D. M. Ald, A. S. Green, John Fendrich.

The officers of the Company are now: President—C. S. Kaufman.

Secretary—G. S. Young, Jr.

Directors—C. S. Kaufman, Abraham Bruner, Sr., H. G. Minch, Sam'l F. Eberlein, M. M. Strickler, Michael H. Moore, Nicholas McDonald, A. S. Green, John Fendrich, H. R. Knowlton, Geo. Young, Jr.

The annual statement of the Company which will be found in our columns, shows a steady progress towards extended usefulness, which, considering the brief time the Company has been in operation and the difficulties encountered in the shape of hard times and prostrate business, speaks loudly in favor of the able management of the Company. Thus far it has been fortunate, as well as judiciously conducted. No assessments have been made, and no large balance remaining on hand for future contingencies. There is a heavy insurance on property in Columbia, and a fair share of this is due and should be given to our home company, which is perfectly reliable in every respect.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE.—We have received at a late date, the numbers of "Harper" for January and February. Everybody has certainly read Harper by this time, and will agree with us that the numbers in question are admirable in all departments. A new story by the author of John Hallam will constitute one of the main attractions of the magazine during the present year. Thackeray's "Philip" and Tolstoy's "Warley Farm," two of the most readable works of fiction of the day, continue to appear regularly in the monthly issue of Harper.

Lo, the Conqueror.—The "Immortal J. N." who has triumphed over bolts, ladders, duncans and chains, and intellectually conquered the press by the sweep and power of his genius, will lecture in the Hall of the House of Representatives, on Monday evening. Prepare to hear the fearless, "intellectual hero," who would rather die than renounce any philanthropic view he entertains.—The ladies are respectfully invited to attend. Subject—"Truth and War." "Magnificent and grand." Infinitely as J. N. surpasses Socrates, Plato and Newton in philosophy—transcendentially as he rises above Demosthenes, Cicero and Henry, as an orator—immensurably as he leads Juvenal, Pope and Byron as a satirist, he is as simple as a child and as modest as a maiden.

When we encountered the above elegant extract in the local columns of the Harrisburg Patriot and Union we exclaimed "If it were not for Jones' well known principles we should say he had written that first class notice under the influence of a 'snifter'." We at that time had not fallen under the influence of the "greatest philosopher, orator and satirist"—J. N., in short. We have seen this intellectual phenomenon, and obtained a slight insight—from a monologue of about thirty minutes, during which he sat enraptured—into the character of this truly wonderful being. His philosophy—"A man must be judged by his moral alone" (the genuine article, this)—applied to himself, sets him far above all ordinary and extraordinary mortals—past and present—that it is fully intimated in his comparisons. But that Druckenmiller is local, whilst J. N., is national, we should endeavor to trace out a something-like-a-similarity in their respective mental organizations. D. possibly has the more delicate and refined sensibilities of the poet, while J. N. may claim the rare combination of qualities of the thunderous orator, the profound and subtle philosopher, the stinging, scathing, flaying satirist.

J. N. lectured in Marietta on Thursday evening, but could not tarry long enough to give Columbia a taste of his quality. He promises, however, to stop here on his return from the National Capitol, and every one will have an opportunity of hearing this greatest of the children of men.

MEETINGS IN REGARD TO THE TAXES.—The meeting called for last Saturday evening, to consider the proper steps towards a general appeal from the over-assessment of our State and County Taxes for the coming three years, assembled in the Town Hall and was organized by the choice of George Bagley as Chairman, and Jno. J. McTague and Thos. Collins as Secretaries.

The object of the meeting having been stated by the chairman, the subject was discussed, and suggestions made as to the most effective course in opposition to the increase of the assessment by the Commissioners. The Secretaries were authorized to call, by handbill, a meeting for Thursday evening, 12th inst., in the same Hall, and the meeting adjourned to that time and place.

The adjourned meeting assembled on Thursday evening, and after being called to order general discussion ensued. It was finally decided that a committee of seven should be appointed by the meeting to represent the tax-payers of Columbia in an appeal before the County Commissioners against the injustice done them in the addition, of a heavy percentage to the triennial assessment of the value of property in the borough.—The following gentlemen were selected.

H. M. North, George Doyle, Sam'l Gore, H. R. Knowlton, Philip Shreiner, Wm. G. Case, Joseph M. Watts.

On motion the Assessor and Assistant Assessors were added to the committee for consultation.

The meeting then adjourned.

THE BURNSIDE EXPEDITION

The News of the Victory Fully Confirmed.

Roanoke Island in the Possession of the Union Forces.

The Rebel Fleet Completely Destroyed.

Elizabeth City Attacked and Evacuated by the Rebels.

The Rebel Army on the Island said to be 3000 Strong.

EVERY MAN KILLED, WOMAN OR TAKEN PRISONER.

RECEPTION OF THE NEWS AT NORFOLK

GREAT CONSTERNATION AMONG THE REBELS.

FURTHER PARTICULARS OF THE TRUTH.

A Decisive Victory to the Federal Army.

GEN. WISE REPORTED SHOT.

Over 2000 Prisoners Taken.

escaped up the creek, and was probably also destroyed.

One report at Norfolk only seventy and another only twenty-five escaped from Roanoke Island.

Gen. Hunger telegraphed to Richmond that only fifty escaped on the island.

There appears to be no bright side to the story for the rebels.

The Richmond Examiner of this morning says, in a leading editorial:

"The loss of an entire army on Roanoke Island is certainly the most painful event of the year. The intelligence by telegraph yesterday is fully confirmed—2,500 brave troops on the island in the sea were exposed to all the force of the Burnside fleet. They resisted with courage, but when fifteen thousand men were landed against them, their retreat being cut off by the surrounding element, they were forced to surrender. This is a repetition of Hatteras on a large scale. The following are despatches on the subject in Richmond papers of this morning:

NORFOLK, Feb. 10.—The latest news states that Capt. O. Jennings Wise, son of Governor Wise, was shot through the hip and disabled, though his wound was not mortal. Major Lawson and Lieut. Miller were mortally wounded. About 300 Confederates were killed. Our wounded numbers over six thousand. The number of Yankees wounded is about the same.

Midshipman Carnen had his arm shot off. The other casualties are unreported.

A late arrival this morning, says Elizabeth City had been shelled and burned by the Yankees, and that the enemy was pushing on through to Edenton.

SECOND DISPATCH.

NORFOLK, Feb. 10.—A rumor has prevailed that Commodore Lynch's fleet of gunboats had been captured. It is not regarded as true, but it is believed that they were burned by the Confederates to prevent their capture, with the exception of one, which was endeavoring to make its escape.

The fleet went to Elizabeth City from Roanoke Island, and was probably burnt at the former place.

THIRD DISPATCH.

NORFOLK, Feb. 10.—(Received in Richmond at midnight.) A courier arrived here this afternoon, at four o'clock, and brought the intelligence that Elizabeth City was burned this morning by the inhabitants.—During the conflagration the Federal landed a large force. All our gunboats, excepting one, were captured by the enemy.

Gen. Wise has not yet arrived at Norfolk. The following is the very latest, which we copy from to-day's Day Book.

A courier arrived here yesterday afternoon about three o'clock, from which we gather the following information:

The enemy advanced in full force upon Elizabeth City yesterday at about seven o'clock and began an attack upon that place. The citizens finding resistance vain, evacuated the place, but before doing so set fire to the town, and when our infantry left it was still in flames.

We have also to record the capture, by the enemy, of all our little fleet except the Ensign or Forest—our informant is not certain which eluded the enemy and made up the Pasquotank river. It was pursued, however, and captured two others, besides the half-completed gunboat Eastport.

The steamer burned were freighted with rebel military stores.

The Eastport has about 250,000 feet of lumber on board.

We captured two hundred stand of arms and a quantity of clothing and stores, and destroyed the encampment of Col. Crews, Savannah, Tennessee.

We found the Union sentiment strong.

FROM TENNESSEE.

THE EXPEDITION UP THE TENNESSEE.

The "Old Flag" Looked Upon with Joy and Gladly Welcomed by the Unionists in Tennessee and Alabama.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 12.—The special despatches to the Gazette and Commercial dated Fort Henry, 10th inst., give the following account of the expedition up the Tennessee river after the capture of Fort Henry.

The gunboats Lexington, Conestoga and Tyler gave chase to the Rebel steamer Dunbar, and reaching the Memphis and Louisville railroad bridge our troops set fire to a portion of it and took a quantity of stores, etc.; and then passed on in chase of the Dunbar, but did not overtake her, and it is supposed she escaped by running in some creek during the night.

The gunboats then went on to Florence, Alabama, the head of navigation on the Tennessee river, a distance of two hundred and fifty miles from Paducah.

Everywhere along the river they were received with astonishing welcome by numerous Union families in Southern Tennessee and Northern Alabama, and at the towns along the river the "old flag" was looked upon with unmistakable joy.

Captain Gwin, of the gunboat Tyler, recruited 30 men for service on the gunboats, and says he can get enough to man the whole fleet.

The people of Florence were so delighted to find the Stars and Stripes once more their protection that they prepared to give a ball to the officers of the gunboats, but they could not remain to accept the courtesies.

Whoever our boats landed and the people became assured that we did not come to destroy, but to save, they seemed to have no means too extravagant to express their delight and joy.

Our boats captured four steamers, including an unfinished gunboat, and burned seven others.

We also captured a large quantity of stores and 150 stand of arms.

The boats go up the river again this morning.

The weather is improving and the roads are drying.

OUR ARMY IN MOTION.

The Commercial says our army in Central Kentucky is in motion, and that General Nelson's Division is marching along the Glasgow turnpike.

General Mitchell's Division crossed Green river on Monday morning, taking the advance of the main column to Bowling Green.

Official Despatch to Flag-Officer Foote.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—The following is Lieutenant Commanding Phillips' official report to Flag-Officer Foote, received to-day at Headquarters of the Army by telegraph from Cairo.

GENERAL CONESTOGA, RAILROAD CROSSING TENNESSEE RIVER, February 10, 1862.

Sir—We have returned to this point from an entirely successful expedition to Florence, at the foot of the Muscle Shoals in Alabama.

The rebels were forced to burn six steamers, and we captured two others, besides the half-completed gunboat Eastport.

The steamer burned were freighted with rebel military stores.

four were set on fire and burned by the citizens of Florence.

A private dispatch received this evening from Decatur says that everything is quiet, and the trains will run regularly again on the Memphis and Charleston Railroad.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 10.—Private and general despatches sustain the report that reconnoitering gunboats have gone up the Tennessee river as high as Florence.

NASHVILLE, Feb. 10.—A private dispatch received last night from Florence states that the gunboats had left that place.

The latest accounts from Fort Donelson say the place had been largely reinforced, but no advices have been received of movements there.

The Movement against Knoxville.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 11.—Reinforcements have gone forward from Danville and Somerset to support General Thomas in his movements on Knoxville, Tennessee.

The Threatened Attack on Savannah.

The latest intelligence from Savannah is that the Federal gunboats were at Wall's Cut, an opening which communicated with Savannah without passing Fort Pulaski.

Congressional.

THURSDAY, Feb. 6th.—The Senate discussed the bill relative to the pay and emoluments of army officers, &c. Mr. Sherman moved an amendment to reduce the mileage, contingent fees, &c., of Members of Congress. The amendment was adopted. A further amendment, proposed by Mr. Doolittle, providing for the reduction of mileage fifty per cent, the computation to be made by the shortest route, was also adopted and the bill laid over.

The House passed—aye 95, nays 69—the bill authorizing the issue of $150,000,000 of Treasury notes and making them a legal tender.

FRIDAY, 7th.—In the Senate petitions were presented for the permanent location of the Naval Academy at Newport, Rhode Island. The Judiciary Committee reported that Senator Stark, of Oregon, was entitled to be sworn in. The Committee express no opinion on the question of the Senator's loyalty. The bill authorizing the construction of twenty iron-clad gunboats was amended so as to appropriate ten millions of dollars for the purpose and passed. The joint resolution thanking Com. Dupont and officers and men under his command for their brilliant services at Port Royal was passed.—The report of the Naval Committee in relation to the employment of George Morgan as the agent of the Government in the purchase of vessels was discussed, but no action taken. The House bill for the immediate issue of $10,000,000 of Treasury notes was taken up and passed. A resolution including Washington with St. Louis as places where military awards were to be paid when passed by the Commission was adopted, and the Senate adjourned till Monday.

In the House the Treasury Note bill was amended so as to leave it optional with the Secretary of the Treasury whether the interest on the bonds shall be paid in coin or paper. A supplementary bill was passed authorizing the immediate issue of $10,000,000 of Treasury Notes to the amount of $10,000,000, the object being to meet the pressing wants of the Government whilst the Senate is acting upon the main bill. The Senate also passed the supplementary bill. The report of the Van Wyck Investigating Committee was taken up and discussed.

Monday, 10th inst.—The Senate passed the bill incorporating the Washington and Georgetown Street Railway Company.—After some other unimportant business the Senate went into executive session. A number of military confirmations were made by the Senate, including those of Major General Hurlburt and Brigadier General Anderson.

The House passed the Senate bill authorizing the issue of ten million dollars in demand notes. A resolution was adopted on motion of Mr. Crittenden that Congress meet on the approaching anniversary of the birth of Washington on September the day by counting the day from the birth of the General at Mount Vernon, in the year 1732.

The clause of Mr. Sagar to a seat in the House from the First District of Virginia was discussed at some length, but no vote was taken in regard to adjournment.

Tuesday, 11th.—In the Senate Mr. Johnson, of Tennessee, presented the petition of citizens of Philadelphia asking that on the approaching anniversary of Washington's Birthday his Farewell Address be read in both Houses of Congress, and so far as possible by the Army and Navy. Mr. Johnson presented a resolution in accordance with the petition, which was passed. Mr. Rice, of Minnesota, introduced a bill authorizing the District Banks to issue small notes.

Mr. Grimes reported a bill from the District of Columbia for the same purpose. A resolution reinstating Lieutenant Charles Hunter as a commander in the Navy was passed.—Mr. Sumner submitted resolutions remanding the rebellious States to the condition of Territories and declaring that slavery therein was thus illegal. The fortification bill was amended by striking appropriations for the defense of Portland, Maine, and Portsmouth, New Hampshire, and the mouth of Tennessee river, Kentucky, and Columbia river, Oregon. After some further discussion of the bill the Senate found itself without a quorum and adjourned.

Wednesday, 12th.—The Senate passed the Fortification bill. The House bill for the issue of $150,000,000 Treasury notes was taken up and a legal tender was taken up with the amendments proposed by the Senate Finance Committee. The amendments were all adopted, but no final vote taken on the bill. Among the amendments was a strike on the declaration that the authorization to issue $150,000,000 is to meet the necessities of the Treasury and to provide a currency receivable for the public debt, and to insert that the notes shall be receivable in payment of all public dues and demands against the United States of every kind whatsoever, except for interest upon bonds and notes, which shall be paid in coin, and shall also be lawful money and a legal tender in payment of all debts, public and private, within the United States, except interest on bonds.

The committee also propose a new section authorizing the Secretary to receive from any person or corporation United States notes on deposit for not less than thirty days, in sums not less than five hundred dollars, with any of the assistant Treasurers or designated depositaries authorized by the Secretary to receive them, who shall issue therefor certificates of deposit, bearing interest at the rate of five per cent per annum, and interest to cease at the pleasure of the Secretary; and the aggregate of such deposits shall at no time exceed the amount of $25,000,000. Providing, that all duties on imported goods, the proceeds of the sales of public lands, and the proceeds of all property seized and under the law of the United States as property of rebels, shall be set apart as a special fund to be applied, first, to the payment in coin of the interest of the debt of the U. S.; secondly, to the purchase or payment of the interest of the entire debt, or payment of the principal thereof after the 1st of July, 1862, and to be set apart as a sinking fund, the interest of which shall be applied to the purchase or payment of the public debt as the Secretary shall from time to time decide; and thirdly, the residue thereof to be paid into the treasury of the United States.

The House directed the arrest of the notorious Henry Wyckoff, an attaché of the New York Herald, for refusing to testify before the Congressional Investigating Committee. He was brought before the bar of the House and questioned, as to from whom he received the President's message, before it was sent to Congress. He refused to reply and was committed to the custody of the Sergeant-at-Arms.

MILITARY UNIFORMS.—There is, perhaps, no department of military business in which there has been more marked improvement than in the clothing of soldiers. Not many years since officers and privates wore cloth uniforms which were almost worthless. They were leather stocks, which were worthy of the name, for they kept the wearer in tribulation, while their pockets were filled with clothing and articles of great utility. During the present war such articles as the following have become the dress of the brave men who are fighting for our country: Heavy Seal Clothing (Hull of Rockhill & Co.), No. 100 and 105 Seal Clothing, above Seal, Philadelphia, claims to be the best article of the kind made, and is becoming the dress of the brave men who are fighting for our country. The firm name above given largely into the hands of making Military Clothing, and their motto is to give them the largest orders in the shortest possible time.

DEPARTS.

At this hour, on Friday morning, 11th inst., Walter H. Young, and his wife, Mrs. Young, departed for the city of New York, in the steamer "The Eagle," on the 11th day of his age.

The amiable and exemplary character of Walter, endeared him to all who knew him. As a child he was dutiful and affectionate, as a pupil diligent and obedient, as a young man, industrious and generous. His time was devoted to his studies, and he was a most successful student. He was a most devoted and affectionate husband, and a most devoted and affectionate father. He was a most devoted and affectionate friend, and a most devoted and affectionate citizen. He was a most devoted and affectionate patriot, and a most devoted and affectionate Christian. He was a most devoted and affectionate man, and a most devoted and affectionate soul.

See how good and true in deed and thought, Yet how poor—incurred little blame, With an unselfish heart, and spotless fame." Z
