PROSPECTUS OF THE ATLANTIC MONTHLY, FOR 1862.

THE January number will commence the Ninth Volume of this Magazine. Its very large and still increasing circulation is a gratifying evidence of public approval, and no industry will be spared to render the forthcoming volume adequate to the requirements of times so prolific in every thing and so new in the day. The Age of the Republic has developments of the nation's demand of literature a loftily and generous action and the conductors of this journal will remit no efforts in enlisting the best talent of the country to support with vigor and eloquence those opinions and principles which have placed it upon the broad ground from on the side of Freedom and Right. An elevated national American spirit will always be found characteristic of the pages. The ATLANTIC MONTHLY will be, as it has been, literary and political. And in the coming year, with all its confidence to recommend a variety greater and better selections than ever both more than the past.

Among the contributions already in hand for 1862, the following will commend themselves as eminent inducements for every family to provide itself from the opening numbers for household reading:

PROFESSOR AGASSIZ will begin in the January number a series of articles on Natural History, and other kindred topics to be continued from month to month throughout the year. The name of so distinguished a man of science, and so interesting a theme, cannot fail to excite speedily the great favor of the reading public for these contributions.

A New Romance by NATHANIEL HAWTHORNE will appear in THE ATLANTIC early in the year.

A new story by the author THE HEIR OF REDCLYFFE, author of "Cheverly," "The Daisy Chain," &c., commenced in the January number.

DR. GEORGE B. WOOD will write for us a few remarkable experiments in Gymnastics, he wrote for THE ATLANTIC "The Apology" in its Strength Speech, giving an account of his method of training for feats of strength, with advice on the uses of Health.

The author of "The Autocrat at the Breakfast Table" will contribute a series of Talks during the year.

Articles by PROFESSOR JAMES RUSSELL LOWELL on topics of the times, and literature, will appear in numbers of the Magazine.

HARVEY TAYLOR has written a story which will be printed in the February number.

The Staff of Writers in Prose and Poetry contributing regularly to the ATLANTIC MONTHLY, comprises among its popular names the following:

James Russell Lowell,	Charles E. Norton,
Henry W. Longfellow,	George S. Hilliard,

"Unquestionably the best sustained Work of the kind in the World."

HARPER'S NEW MONTHLY MAGAZINE.

Critical Notices of the Press.

The volumes bound constitute of themselves a library of miscellaneous reading, such as can not be found in the same compass in any other publication that has come under our notice.—Boston Courier.

The most popular Monthly at the world.—New York Observer.

We must refer in terms of eulogy to the high tone and varied excellences of Harper's Magazine, a journal with a monthly circulation of about 150,000 copies, whose pages are to be found some of the choicest light and general reading of the day. We speak of this work as an evidence of the American people, and the popularity it has acquired is merited. Each number contains fully 144 pages of instructive matter, appropriately illustrated with wood-cuts, and combines in itself the tasty monthly and the more philosophical quarterly, blended with the best features of the daily journal. It has great power in the creation and dissemination of a love of pure literature.—TILDEN'S Guide to American Literature London.

No Magazine in Europe or America is so well know; none has half so many readers, and we may safely say, none has received so large a tribute of admiration from the cultivated mind. Each day in a dwelling, there is a new entertainment, a fund of information, elevating periods of retirement—It is the foremost Magazine of the day. The fireside never had a more delightful companion, or the million a more enterprising friend, than Harper's Magazine.—Philadelphia Presbyterian (Baltimore.)

TERMS:

The Magazine may be obtained of Booksellers, Periodical Agents, or from the Publishers, at Fifty Dollars a year, or THREE CENTS a Number. Their semi-annual Volumes, in neat cloth binding, are sold at Two Dollars each, and Much, Complete sets are furnished to those who wish the back Numbers uniformly bound, at Two Dollars Cents each—Twenty two Volumes are now ready. Cost 2 to 50 cents and also in Half Calf.

The Publishers will supply Specimen Numbers gratuitously to Agents and Postmasters, and will make liberal arrangements with them for circulating the Magazine. They will also supply Cuts of Two Pictures at Five Dollars a set; or Six Pictures at Ten Dollars. Clergymen and Teachers supplied at Two Dollars a year, commencing with the commencement of any volume.

The Magazine will not be sold at less than 25 cents a number. Postage 24 cents a year, which must be paid quarterly in advance at the office where the Magazine is received. Address THE HARPER & BROTHERS,

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS.

Are you sick, feeble, and complaining? Are you out of order, with your system deranged, and your feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the prelude to some severe attack, and if neglected, serious consequences may follow. Some act of sickness is creeping upon you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. Ayer's Cathartic Pills, and let it go on unresisted, for they will assuredly prostrate you in a few days. They stimulate the stomach and bowels to throw off the diseased humors—purify the blood and put the fluids move on unobstructed in health and vigor. They stimulate the functions of the digestive organs into healthy action, and thus remove the cause of disease. A cold settles somewhere in the body, and the system at once throws it out. Thus, it not relieved, it or some other disease will follow. Nature, in her own kind way, tries to throw off the disease, and we call it sickness, and help her by assisting the obstructions which make it. Ayer's Cathartic Pills are the most perfect remedy for all the purposes of a purgative that has ever been known, and I can confidently recommend it to my friends.
Yours, &c. J. C. AYER.

MARK THESE FACTS.

The Testimony of the Whole World.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

Bad Legs, Bad Breasts, Sores and Ulcers.

All description of sores are remediable by the proper and diligent use of this inestimable preparation. To attempt to cure bad legs by plastering the edges of the wound together is folly for should the ointment break out with ten fold fury in a few days. The only rational and successful treatment, as indicated by nature, is to reduce the inflammation and about the wound and to soothe the neighboring parts by rubbing in freely of the Ointment as salt forced into meat.

Diptheria, Ulcerated Sore Throat, and Scarlet and Other Fevers.

Any of the above diseases may be cured by well rubbing the Ointment three times a day into the chest, throat and neck of the patient, it will soon penetrate and give immediate relief. Medicine taken by the mouth must operate upon the whole system ere its influence can be felt in any local part, whereas the Ointment will do its work at once. Whoever rubs the unguent in the above manner for the diseases named, or any similar disorders affecting the chest or throat, will find them relieved as by a charm.

Piles, Fistulas, Strictures.

The above class of complaints will be removed by nightly fomenting the parts with warm water, and then by most effectually rubbing in the Ointment—Persons suffering from these direful complaints should lose not a moment in arresting their progress. It should be understood that it is not sufficient merely to smear the Ointment on the effected parts, but it must be well rubbed in for some considerable time two or three times a day, that it may be taken into the system, whence it will remove any hidden sore or wound as effectually though palpable to the eye. There again bread and water poultices, after the rubbing in of the Ointment, will do great service—This is the only sure treatment for females, cases of cancer in the stomach, or where there may be a general breaking down.

Indiscretions of Youth; Sores and Ulcers.

Blotches, as also swellings, can, with certainty, be radically cured if the Ointment be used freely, and the Pills be taken night and morning as recommended in the printed instructions. When treated in any other way they only dry up in one place to break out in another; whereas this Ointment will remove the humor from the system, and leave the patient a vigorous and healthy being. It will require time with the use of the Pills to ensure a lasting cure.

Dropsical Swellings, Paralysis and Stiff Joints

Although the above complaints differ widely in their origin and nature, yet they all require local treatment. Many of the worst cases of such diseases will yield in a comparatively short space of time when this Ointment is generally rubbed into the parts affected, even
