The Columbia Spy. COLUMBIA, PA SATURDAY, MARCH 19, 1862.

The Rev. W. R. DeWitt, will preach

SALE OF VALUABLE REAL ESTATE.-We valuable out-lots belonging to the Estate of William Wright a deed a are to be sold at public sale at the Exanklin House: - This is gery desirable property, and we are sufficently interested to ask a full attendance of Ber It will be seen by reference to the advertisement of Miss A. Caldwell, that her of the families of our brave volunteers, who nt her residence on Locust street, as announced last week.

inspected.

however, is not upon us yet.

New ADVERTISEMENTS. P. S. McTague, week to the recipients. & Co., advertises a large and handsome stock of every variety of goods in their line. time to us.

Fondersmith offers the populie one last riety to suit all tastes. Give him a call.

Professor T. R. Vickroy announces the opening of a classical school in the Washing. | He says: opening of a classical sensor in the manning of a classical sensor in the number of the first of April. Columbration, for the purpose of capturing a party of rebels, fourteen in number, standard, on the mainland, near Governor unte of Dickinson College, and has had considerable experience in his profession.

R. T. Ryon advertises a sale of Personal Property-Foundry appurtenances-on the 13th prox.

: Ur. Greene advertises a lost memorandum book.

Election Returns.—The election of last Captain Rambo, Licet. Kelsey and seveteen week year off quietly, and without any ex-Election Returns .- The election of last hibition of party bitterness. The main struggle was for Justice of the Peace and Conshould get fewest. A reference to the fig-

Judge.	N. $W$ .	S. II.
Jacob S. Strein,	98
Jos. M. Watts;	86
Benjamin Haldeman,		106
Samuel E. Maxton,		ຸຜວ
Inspectors.
Samuel C. Swartz,	100
Augustus Pelen,	- 35
Milton Wike,	-	107
√'eter A Limburg,		72
- Assessor.	•
Jos. H. Black,	95	111
Michael Clepper,	76	71
Constable.
James McCinris,	1.50	168
P. F. Appeld,	,12
Lenac Telall,	. *	- 1
Justice of the Prine.
Jno. K. Eberlein,	94	•
James Barber,	79
J. W. Hamilton,	l i
Jno. M. Rend,	2
· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	•	-

strong wrong. Car little road is denounced specified in giving the order, or his without measure or mercy, and immediate judgment in permitting his whole company of forty men to fire at two men, even had he been positive that they were enemies. Captain Rambo would never have acted so improdently. Captain R. had preproad enterprise and progress.

ger Rullway, with a clause permitting the the moment, shot through the heart. over that route, to the depot of the Philadelphia, Wilnington and Baltimore Railroad, at Broad and Prime streets. With such Législation we have nothing to do, and is expressed in the following extract: do not in the least object to the over running. It seems hard to realize that the Captain of the city with through-trains in every distribution, if the citizens are content that their previous to his fall. He was much pleased thoroughfares shall all resemble Third, and at my arrival—his greeting was so eager, and from the heart, too. It is spent the appossible aid to the cause of the Fifth and Sixth streets re-charter, a general attack on his frierds. A few hours later and he was the Reading and Columbia Railroad can dead. You will sympathize with me in my prove. We are content that the C. 7 den feelings. He was my devoted friend—my feelings, He was my devoted friend—my intimate companion. I knew his many good qualities, and loved him as one of my ning up Walnut and down Cuestout street, ewn femily—find he been my own brother if that will expediate the transmission of I could not have loved him more. passengers through the city; but we contend Colonel Welsh also in his letter announces the Atlantic the best and freshest thought able to hold its own, and command the pref. W. says: erence. This, too, we imagine, is the conceived at the office of the Company in Both of them were wounded in the arm. of Ericsson's Iron-clad "Moffier," &c.—this place for the construction of the let reaching the learness hounded. There is more actual labor expended on the in the Prest yterian Church, to-morrow (Sun day) morning and evening, at the usual last been contracted for by enterprising and contracted for by enterprisi reliable parties, and the bids of Tuesday were from sub-contractives, who are ready entreat our readers to remember that this to commonce work at once. The attendance of bidders showed plainly that the work was comfortable. (Saturday) afternoon at Lo'clock, two very in demand. We have not yet heard the result of the sub-letting, the bids having been glad to learn that he is in good health. He forwarded to the chief contractors. We can promise, howe er, that the whole line will be strongly worked before the end of April.

necessary to the country.

PRAISEWORTHY ACT .- The County Commissioners have appropriated an additional School Louse, in Second syreet, instead of have given themselves to their country for the purpose of upholding the Constitution men engaged is in praise of Capain Rambo's and Laws. So well-have the finances of coolness and self-possession. His command the county been savaged that the large was in the road, while company II was con- lantic. We left Philadelphia, after a fare-Tax Arreat. -It will be seen that Mon | sums contributed for this most noble object, | cealed. After the first one or two scatterday, April 7th, has been fixed as a day of amounting to forty thousand dollars, has ing shots Capt. R., was heard to encourage on Saturday night, at twelve o'clock, and Appeal from the Assessment of taxes for been done without requiring any addition to his men, and fell with the words on his lips. 1862. The revised assessment is in the the county taxation. The following is the Lieut. Kelsey's place being in the rear of just in time for two hours' sleep and a good hands of J. H. Black, Esq, where it can be resolution passed by the Board of fielief on the company, he waited for Capt. Rambo's Monday week:-

The River.—The river is at good rafting consideration of the distress of the families ange and the lumber and timber from above has been arriving all week. The rush, the United States and the severity of the United States and the severity of the United States and the severity of the Resolved, That for the last three weeks, in weather, the Board of Relief will award allowances, as formerly, each and every

THE PEATH OF CAPTAIN RAMBO. -- We . Call at their store in Locust street, where wrote the account of Capt. Rambo's sad you will be waited upon courtenusly by the death, published last week, harriedly, and gentlemanly head of the firm, and his atten- under excitement. We omitted any mentire and obliging clerks; and if you foil to tion of the date of the fatal mistake-it was find something to please you, charge the lost Thursday, 13th inst. After our paper went with him a number of recruits for the regi- in Eroadway. The steamer charles from to press we obtained more specific details of ment, which will nearly fill it to the maxi- her dock at eleven o'clock on Monday mornthe sad event, given by Lieut. Fessler. A mum. chance to obtain wall paper at wenderfully private letter of two days' later date, howcheap rates. He has a large stock and va- ever, from Col. Welsh, from which we are permitted to make extracts, gives as noterate and minute an account as can be had.

Aikin's plantation, about twenty miles from Otter Island. The information was received ofter Island. The information was received from a body of fugitive negroes who had excaped to Ofter Island. Sound of these secured to be intelligent and offered to lead our men to the place. On this information the officers proposed to act. The expedition was commanded by Lieut. Col. Beaver, and was to have consisted of Companies G—Caption Witney-and H—Captain Shirfflip tain Whitney-and U-Captain Shiefflin They went in bonts up the Ashepoo river to the mouth of Mosquito, and up the Mosquigle was for Justice of the Peace and Constable. The rivalry for the former was, between two of the candidates, who should get the most votes—between other two, who should get fewest. A reference to the fig. will be seen that in spite of strengous opposition our efficient Constable McGiunis was ver, with Captain Rambo and his detachment—Lieut. Kelsey and seventeen men trigmphantly returned by a handsome ma-jority. Old "Eleven-per-cent." went in easy, of course, as Assessor. The following reetly to the house occupied by the rebels, surround it and capture, the men or destroy them with the bayonet should they show fight. them with the bayonet should they show light. The negroes acted as guides. They seemed well acquainted with the country and goods, but either ignorantly or designed find Captain Rambo's party into the same road upon which Captain Shiefflin was advancing—Sergeant McCann and Augustus Wagner marched a few rods in front of Capt. Rambo and on their approach, Captain's Shiefflin's company, who had balled to remain fin's company, who had halted to repair a bridge which they found impassable turned and fired into Co. K.; with what terrible result you already know. There was no fault or blunder on the part of Captain Rambor or blunder on the part of Captain Rambor he followed the road pointed out by the guide, and under the direction of Lieut.

Tool Beaver, Captain Shiefflin was supposed in the present form, the profit arising to be applied to the supposed the waves broke clear over the bow of the waves broke clear over the bow of the the waves broke clear over the bow of the the waves broke clear over the bow of the the waves broke clear over the bow of the waves broke clear over the bow of the dark mining, we have over the substanting, we have over the read and wounded. Mr. Luce, an assistant of the imagence of the waves broke clear over the bow of the dark mining, we have over the substanting, we have over the bow of the waves broke clear over the bow of the waves broke clear over the bow of the substanting, we have over the bow of the substanting, we have over the substanting, we have over the substanting we have over the substanting we have over the substanting we have the substanting we have over the substanting we have over the Col. Beaver. Captain Shiefflin was supposed the way, Messrs. Saylor & McDonald.

to be in position some twenty minutes previously, but was detained at the crossing, as I have mentioned. Capt. S. alleges that on Continental Monthly for April. This James Barber, J. W. Hamilton,
Ji. W. Ham seeing the two men approach he hailed them pletion of this valuable fink in the great tiffy Capt. Rambo, and the first word he heard was the command "Firt." The valuable fink in the great tiffy Capt. Rambo, and the first word he heard was the command "Firt." The valuable fink in the enterprising press of heard was the command "Firt." The valuable first word he heard was the command "Firt." The valuable first word he heard was the command "Firt." The valuable first word he heard was the command "Firt." The valuable first word he heard was the command "Firt." The valuable first word he heard was the command "Firt." The valuable first word he heard was the command "Firt." The valuable first word he heard was the command "Firt." The valuable first word he heard was the command "Firt." The valuable first word he heard was the command "Firt." The valuable first word he heard was the command "Firt." The valuable first word he heard was the command "Firt." The valuable first word he heard was the command "Firt." The valuable first word he heard was the command "Firt." The valuable first word he heard was the command "Firt." The valuable first word he heard was the command "Firt." The valuable first word he heard was the command "Firt." The valuable first word he heard was the command "Firt." The valuable first word he heard was the command "Firt." The valuable first word he heard was the command the heard was the heard wa the old "sound dues" levied in that city are yards apart, and the night perfectly still, it about being abrogated. Within the past would seem strange that the hail should no reak there has been a general outers in the be heard. Capt. Shiefflin's men on the con week there has been a general outery in the columns of the city dailies against this montrous wrong. Cur little road is denounced. Shiefflin's haste in giving the order, or his

The legislative action sought, is a re charter of the Life heard Captain Shiefther of the Life hard Sixth streets Passential of the Word, and immediately commanded: "Steady, boys, steady!" He fell at ded to its circulation. The conductors of that the passenger shall have a choice of the death of Corporal Reichard, who was upon all topics. routes; and we fully believe that in spite of shot through the lungs at the time Captain all expedients to rush the trains through the Rambo and Corporal Reighard were killed. a first-rate number, rousing the farmer to streets of Philiddelphia, regardless of the He suffered very much before his death, his work for the Spring. This is an agrisafety of inhabitants, our country route when which occurred on the morning of the loth. cultural monthly that should be generally once fairly established, will certainly be Of the remainder of those wounded, Col. in the hands of our country subscribers. We

Wagner is better, and I think ha will surclusion to which Philadelphians are coming; and will account for the reckless misreprer lodged in his spine. The others are out of can Agriculturist, and we believe the motto of the April accomplishing nothing of importance besides miles distinct from any temperature station.

It may, however, be permanently any provious one—is the motto of the April accomplishing nothing of importance besides miles distant from any telegraphic station.

It may, however, be permanently any provious one—is the motto of the April accomplishing nothing of importance besides miles distant from any telegraphic station.

It may however, be permanently any provious one—is the motto of the April accomplishing nothing of importance besides miles distant from any telegraphic station.

It is may, however, be permanently any provious one—is the motto of the April accomplishing nothing of importance besides miles distant from any telegraphic station.

It is may, however, be permanently any provious one—is the motto of the April accomplishing nothing of importance besides miles distant from any telegraphic station.

It is may, however, be permanently any provious one—is the motto of the April accomplishing nothing of importance besides miles distant from any telegraphic station.

It is may however, be permanently any provious one—is the motto of the April accomplishing the first accomplishing the form of the provious one—is the motto of the April accomplishing the first accomp ble, and our surgeon skilful and attentive. The patients have everything that they require. I spend much of my time with them. and will continue to see that they are made great research and care.

Col. Welsh's numerous friends will be writes thus of himself: "I am very well-my cough has left me altogether." Since writing the above we have had an interview with Lieut. Fessler, of Company K. Forty-fifth Regiment, from whom we obtained details of the night encounter between our men corresponding with those adds that the universal testimony of the word of command after the volley, but hearing none he stepped forward and called his commander by name. There was no reply, and before he had time to order his troops to return the fire the discovery of the mistake was made, and at the same time Caytain Rambo's lifeless body was found. A few random shots were fired by Co. K, without orders, which inflicted several slight wounds upon men in Company G.

Lieut. Fessler, starts from Harrisburg tofill up Company K. He will also take out Proceedings of Council. --- Columbia, March 21, 1862.-Council met: The roll was called and S. F. Eberlein reported absent. Minutes of previous meeting were read and approved.

A communication was read from S. Atlee ets.; W. Timony, $11,20.

Ca motion Council adjourned. Attest: WM. F. LLOYD, Clerk.

TRAIN'S E. HON SPEECHES .- By Geo. Francis

Train. Fabiladelphia: T. B. Peterson & Bros. Messrs. Peterson send us in pamphlet form the union speecken of Train, the in domitable Yankee introductr of street railways to England, and the defender, in and out of season, of the interests of his country. He has delivered, during our national troubles, a number of very telling off-hand speeches in favor of our cause, which have been received with great favor in England. Originally reported for, and appearing in, the "London American," a paper devoted to American interests, they have been collected and issued in the present form, the FRANK LESLIE's continues to be one of the most entertaining monthlies published. It is full of good stories, and spirited illustra. trations. .There is an immense amount of reading matter in it, and such, too, as must suit all tastes. We can heartfly recommend the April and all other numbers. "

The ATLANTIC MONTHLY for April is good as usual. We are glad to learn that the war has had no unfavorable influence upon ded to its circulation. The conductors of will continue to lend power and dignity to its pages: and that favorite poets will evolve from the ever-shifting phases of our national affairs the lessons of the hour. The two fixed public attention-Professor Agassiz's popular expositions of the science of Naturel History, and James Russell Lowell's Biglow Papers"-will be continued each about them. We had a short stroll along month. Still other features of extraordi- the beach and down to "Niggertown," as nary interest have been provided for the the boys denominate the nigger quarters. forthcoming numbers, and the conductors By the way, we hope to have something will always seek to present in the pages of more to say about the negroes hereafter.

The FARMER AND GARDENER for March is cordially recommend it.

of fruits, flowers, and vegetables-require

Our Army Correspondence.

HEADQUARTERS, OTTER ISLAND, March 12th, 1862.

DEAR Spy:-Having just landed here enfely, my first good impulse is to sit down and furnish you with an account of the voyage and arrival of "Corporal Biartin's Squad," in South Carolina. After shaking hands warmly with all our friends at the given in Col. Welsh's letter. Licut. Fessler old station at home, and receiving their good wishes for our soccess and safe return, your correspondent, with Col. Welsh, hurried on to New York, so as to catch the steamer Atwe'll from Lieut. Bruner of the old "Second." arrived in New York about break of daybreakfast.

Sunday morning about eight o'clock we started on the hunt of the boys, and a splendid time we had. It was walk, walk, walk! From "State" street to "Palace Garden,' from "Palace Garden" to "State" streetand to how many other places we were sent I cannot remember; but after a five hour's walk through the metropolis, we found them comfortably quartere! in "White" street, and in very good cheer. Corporal Martin was busy showing some of the boys the cleday for New York, with enough recruits to phant, and many of them thought it was worth three years soldiering to see the sights ing, making the announcement with her two little guns aft, and slowly wound her way through the shipping toward the ocean. Unfortunately there was a cold drizzling rain falling, which, together with the fog along shore, prevented us from getting a fair view of the neighboring land and the The Road Committee reported the ex- various shipping and batteries which mostpenses since Jan. 1st, for work on streets ly constitute the fine prospect, when leaving New York. The day, if anything, was one to depress the spirits of those who were Bockius claiming $65 for damages, incurred leaving their homes on an errand such as by buggy upsetting over an ash heap while ours, especially as the cold wind whistled driving down the alley running parallel to through the rigging of the ship, and the Locust street, between Front and Second rain made it very uncomfortable to stand on streets, which was, on motion, laid on the the wet deck, watching for the last glimpse of shore, as the noble vessel turned her prow The following bills were ordered to be southward after rounding Sandy Hook. paid: Samuel Waites, $5,50; D. S. Chalfant. It was not long ere we were out in the swell $11.56; C. A. Hook, $12,50; P. Gardner, 90 of the ocean, when the slip began her gentle rocking, which the boys thought was equal to any swing they were ever on; but it was not many hours before the motion began to have its effect-and there was an awful casting up of accounts. The water tinually peering into it-even after the shades of night obscured the sight-it was still look, look, look, into those fathomless depths-and thus it was for hours. Now and then you would hear one ask his or her is strewn with the arms they have thrown neighbor how they felt; but the invariable away in their flight. The cavalry is still in answer was a thrust of the head over the pursuit of the enemy. gunwale, and an awful sour expression of the fice, as if the question was a very insulting one. Thus was passed Monday evestill worse, as the wind blew very hard and skirmishing, we have lost about ten killed control. They threw their dead and wound-> on Saturday, on Hilton Head. I think a good many of us are considerably lighter than when we left home; still it only helped acclimate us in our new homes We had not many chances to see the improvements about Gen. Sherman's headquarters, but with the little opportunities ascertained, but it is estimated that our loss that the soldiers under his command have one colonel and fourteen captains and stopped us to get the mail and papers. - of land. Arrived off the light ship on Thurs-not been idle. We all arrived on Otter Island Tuesday at noon and were soon ushered into the very lost nearly 500 killed and wounded, 300 comfortable quarters of Co. K. to make our- prisoners. selves at home. I rested my wearied limbs on a very enticing sofa until supper from Winchester says:-Our forces to day time. All were anxious to hear the news from home, and were looking for us for several days. As the steamer took us up to the Island, the sloop-of-war "Dale" fired a salute and the shore was lined with the great serial features which have so firmly men eager to see, and shake hands with their friends.

We have not seen a great deal of our new quarters yet, and are not able to tell much

Yours, truly, 🤌

IMPORTANT PROM THE TENVESSEE-RIVER

Our Troops in Possession of the Charleston and Memphis Railroad.

Cairo, March 22 .- The gunboat Lexing. ton, from the Tonnesse river, has arrived, "ONWARD"-every number better than and reports our forces concontrating in the speedy completion of a road which is recognized in New York and Washington as also doing well. His is a necessary to the country.

The loss of the Receis must nave occurrent in tween a battalion of the Fourth Illinois Report to be done in April in tween a battalion of the Fourth Illinois Report to the country.

The loss of the Receis must nave occurrent in tween a battalion of the Fourth Illinois Report to the fourth Illinois Report to the country and giment and a squadron of Rebel Cavalry, and giment

General Grant's Army.

the innumerable plants, items of cultivation been made by our army here. A second carrying off their wounded during the day six gun battery and one four gun battery, flood in the Tennessee and its tributaries is prevailing. Our information in regard to the enemy is still quite meagre. His main force is supposed to be at Corinth, Miss., where it is probable he will be able to concentrate fifty thousand troops. Our force mostly reigning on board our transports. Gen. Grant, who has been reinstated, in the command of this expedition, arrived here to-day. It is not likely that any active opcrations will take place hereabout for several days.

> BATTLENEAR WINCHESTER, VA. A Skirmish on Saturday and a Battle on Sunday.

THE REBELS DRIVEN BACK TO STRASBURG. Their Force 15,000-Ours $,090!

Over One Thousand small arms Captured-Our Loss Seventy-Five Killed and Two Hundred and Fifty Wounded.

last night at half-past 10 o'clock says: A he advanced to retake it. slight skirmish occured this afternoon about four pieces of artillery.

The enemy retreated with loss, as soon as our gans openéd fire. One man was killed on our side, and General Shields suffered a infantry and nine pieces of artillery, with a slight injury on the left arm, from a fragment of a shell which burst near him.

A prisoner, brought in to-night, says the enemy were under the impression that our and First Virginia Cavalry on the enemy's troops had left Winchester, and that Jackson's rebel forces were on the road from the enemy get his guns again in position in Strasburg, under the same impression.

LATER FROM WINCHESTER. 8 o'clock, P. M.-I have just come in from the very front of the battle, three miles out. Colonel Kimball, ordered Colonel Tyler to A complete victory has been achieved over Jackson. We have taken two guns and our troops but with terrible loss, the enemy caissons, and killed at least 100, and woun- being protected by the stone bridge. The ed twice as many. Our loss is large, but Eighty fourth Pennsylvania and Thirteenth not more than 150 killed and wounded. Our Indiana charged their centre, and the fight men did bravely and have taken a great now became general with a terrible slaughmany muskets. The rebels are in full reter on both sides. Colonel Murray, of the

LATER.

WINCHESTER, March 23 .- 10 o'clock, P. I.-We have this day achieved a glorious victory over the combined forces of the rebel l Generals Jackson, Smith and Longstreet .the battle was fought within four miles of Our troops followed and drove them till dark, this place. It raged from half-past ten o'clock this morning until dark. The enemy's strength was about 15,000, and the seemed to be very attractive. It appeared strength of our division was not over 8,000. that no one on board could help but be con- Our loss in killed and wounded is not definitely ascertained, but it is heavy. The enemy's loss is double that of ours.

> We have captured a large number rrisoners, some of their guns and the ground

STILL LATER.

would like so much to be back home, with his manded in person, was struck by a fragment sylvania, Fourth, Seventh and Eighth Onio, new horse and buggy. Altogether, we had of a shell on the upper part of the left arm, | Seventh, Thirteenth and Fourteenth Indiana, rather a rough voyage-head-winds contin- shattering the bone, producing a compound new-comer among our Magazines is steadily ually, which made it a long one. We see fracture, and it was feared amputation would Daum's battery of Parrott guns. mained out of sight of land all the way un be necessary. The General remained on til the arrival off Charleston, where one of the field after being wounded, giving his Scessionists in Winchester that Jackson the steamers of the blockading squadron orders until the close of the fight.

Washington, March 24.-A despatch Thence to Port Royal, weremained in sight from a surgeon in General Shields' army, women. to the Surgeon General at Washington, in day evening—received a pilot on Saturday relation to the battle of yesterday, states morning, and were landed safe and sound that our loss was from 75 to 100 killed, and that our loss was from 75 to 100 killed, and 250 wounded. He adds: "I have seen 225 of the enemy's dead."

WINCHESTER, March 24-11 o'clock P. M. -In consequence of the forward movement of our forces, the reports of the killed, wounded, and missing cannot be accurately offered, we could see enough to assure us was 80 to a 100 killed, among whom were lieutenants. Two hundred were wounded -among them were ten officers. The enemy

Washington, March 24 .-- A despatch pursued the rebels, with extraordinary courage, toward Strasburg, driving them' like frightened sheep.

THE BATTLE OF WINCHESTER. THE RETREAT OF THE REBELS A DISASTROUS ROUT.

THEIR LOSS VERY HEAVY. OUR ARMY IN PURSUIT BEYOND STRISBURG. A SEVERE FIGHT. BOLD CHARGE OF THE UNION TROOPS.

Washington, March 26 .- Information recived here to-day shows that our army was at Strasburg this morning, and that the rereat of the enemy is a flight.

No details of the battle near Winchester on Sunday have ye; been received, our officers and the correspondents of the press were too busy yesterday pursuing the Rebels

Our artillery makes terrible havoc among troops at Bull Run. the enemy in their flight, and the rout bids war.

WINCHESTER, March 25 -The following are the main facts relative to the battle fought near this place on Sunday:

On Saturday, about two o'clock in the afternoon, the enemy showed themselves about ment, was wounded severely. a mile and a half from Winchester. The enemy's force consisted of five hundred of Ashby's Cavalry, with two guns. They drove in our pickets and then skirmished with the Michigan cavalry and a portion of refused, and were driven forward by a Rebel the Maryland First Regiment. General Shilds brought up his forces and fired several to fire upon the Union troops. Forty corpses rounds of shell and drove them back and of this battalion afterwards strewed the took several prisoners. Gen. Shields was, as before stated, wounded in the left arm by the first fire of the enemy.

It appeared that Jackson had been in-WASHINGTON, March 23.-Telegraphic formed by some of the inhabitants that the lespatches received from Winchester, dated town was deserted by the Union troops, and

Gen. Shields' force slept on their arms on a mile and a half from Winchester, on the Saturday night, and on Sunday morning at Shield's troops and the rebel cavalry, with our army near Harristown, three miles from Winchester.

> The enemy's force, as far as can be ascertained, were 500 of Ashby's Cavalry, 5,000 Union." reserve of 18 pieces of artillery. The fight was kept up till noon, when a charge was made by the Ohio infantry, First Michigan right and drove them back half a mile, when a dense woods, flanked by his infantry and drove us back. A short artillery engagement ensued, when Gen. Shields, through turn their left flank, which was executed by Eighty-fourth Pennsylvania, was among the killed in this charge. The enemy retired slowly, bringing their guns to bear at every opportunity. Our men rushed upon the foe with yells, when the enemy broke and fled panic-stricken .capturing three guns and three caissions, and muskets, equipments, etc., almost innumerable.

Our troops bivouacked on the ground they and won for the night, complete victors. Our dead and wounded were sent here vesterday at noon.

Gen. Williams' First Brigade, Col. Donnelly, of the Twenty-eighth New York, commanding, reinforced Gen. Shields' forces .-Gen. Banks assumed command.

Meanwhile Gen. Shields' Division, commanded by Col. Kimball, pursued the enemy WINCHESTER, March 23 .- The rebels have beyond Newton, shelling them the whole been driven back to Strasburg. There has way. Jackson's men appeared for the most ning on board the Atlantic. Buesday was been very little fighting to-day. In the part to be perfectly demoralized and beyond

First Virginia and Michigan Cavalry, and

It was evidently known to many of the was approaching, from the evident buoyancy of spirits among some of the men and

Gen. Shields' command being screened from observation on the east side of the town no doubt led Jackson's informant to believe all our troops were evacuating the place, and that Jackson would enter unobstructed. This is evidenced by the statement of the prisoners. Competent judges say the enemy's loss in prisoners, including an aid to General Jack-

Our loss is killed 65; wounded about 125. The Latest from Strasburg. WINCHESTER, March 25 .- The latest from Strasburg is to the effect that Gen. Banks was there, with Jackson's rear guard in sight. The Very Lutest. Michael 25, P. M.—Our column is now five miles beyond Strasburg and we are still in pursuit.

Capture of Rebel Army Wagons. WINCHESTER, March 25.—It is currently reported here to-night that General Banks army wagons.

FURTHER DETAILS.

Deeds of Daring and Heroism.

WINCHESTER, March 25, Midnight .- The many deeds of personal daring and courage Pennsylvania, twenty-six were killed and on the part of our troops, some of which are eighty-three wounded. Colonel Murray fell probably unsurpassed by any battle in his- leading this gallant corps forward, and tory.

Gen. Shields' Division while riding to the the glory and the losses with the Eightycrest of the hill to the left of the stone fourth, and the Third Virginia Regiment bridge, with two Orderlies, was confronted also suffered. Lieutenant Colonel Thobarn, to find time to give information to the public, by five Rebel cavalry, who discharged their commanding this corps, was severely revolvers killing the two Orderlies. Noth- wounded leading it forward to the last ing daunted, Captain Shriber charged the charge.

Captain Perkins, Chief of General Banks' The former was terribly decimated. Sevcan write will scarcely serve to prevent the to lie quietly in the hospital. He cats heart-full Calendar of work to be done in April in tween a battalion of the Fourth Illiquis Re- The loss of the Rebels must have been Staff, was mainly instrumental in planning occessary to the country.

On Tuesday of this week bigs were recited at the office of the Robert and Smith have left the hospital.— the important war operations, a fac-simile our men were wounded.

On the country is a fac-simile our men were wounded.

On Tuesday of this week bigs were recited at the office of the Robert and Smith have left the hospital.— the important war operations, a fac-simile our men were wounded. Sr. Louis, March 22.—The correspondent jacant to the battle field of Sunday are also ty-third, Forty-second and Thirty-second, and in burying them quickly as soon as making in all twenty-six guns, among which were some of those captured from our

All the color-bearers of the Fifth Ohio fair to be one of the most dreadful of the Regiment were killed, and when Capt. Whitcomb seized the standard, sword in hand, he was shot through the head.

Out of three hundred men of the Eightyfourth Pennsylvania Regiment engaged 26 were killed and 83 wounded. Lieat. Cot. Thoburn, of the Third (loyal) Virginia Regi-On the Rebel side the Fourth and Fifth

Virginia Regiments suffered most: The Irish battalion of $50 men, it is said, were ordered to fire upon the Federals, but regiment, but they could not compel them

The Rebels finally gave way before the ndomitable courage of our troops. Their loss is estimated at as high as 700 killed and wounded, besides prisoners.

A youthful Rebel soldier who had received two wounds in the breast, when approached by one of our officers inquired if the officer knew Gen. Banks, and receiving Strasburg road, between a portion of Gen. sunrise Jackson, being reinforced, attacked and affirmative reply, he said, "Tell him I want to take the oath of allegiance, for I have three brothers in the Federal service, and I want them to know I die true to the General Shields' arms is hadly shattered and owing to the imperfect setting must be re-set to-morrow. This morning many of the bodies of the Rebels and Union soldiers still remained on the field, but have since been interred.

Many of the wounded died since they were brought to this city. The ladies of the town are busy furnishing aid to the wounded. The ladies of the theatre, which is now occupied as a hospital, are assiduous in their attendance to the sufferers. THE LATEST FROM STRASBURG.

WINCHESTER, March 25, Midnight .- The latest information received to-night shows that all is quiet in the neighborhood of Strasburg. It is reported that two sons of the late

John A. Washington were in Sunday's fight and both wounded. Also that one has been taken prisoner. The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad have taken formal charge of the Winchester and Potomac Road, and persons can now purchase tickets at Baltimore for this place. Your correspondent leaves for Strasburg at 4 o'clock in the morning. There is no telegraph line to that point yet, but efforts will be made to express important news to the nearest telegraphic station. Burial of the Dead-The Designs of the Enemy-General Shields. Windhester, VA., March 26th, P. M .-A committee of citizens, with the Mayor and Provost Marshal, have buried all the dead of the enemy which have been brought in to town. Eighty-five were buried on the battle-field, and 123' were buried on the roadside between here and Strasburg.

Two hundred and thirty-five prisoners have been sent to Baltimore, and a number are still here, whilst others are on the way here.

A messenger from Strasburg states that Johnson was to have joined Jackson at Strasburg, but subsequently sent him word that he could not join him till Monday night. Their combined forces would have been from twen'y-five to thirty thousand men. It is also villers coul that they were arranging a plan by which they intended to keep Banks from moving to another point, but Jackson being impressed that our troops had nearly all left hazarded his fatal advance alone. Thousands of persons are visiting the battle ground and bringing off momentoes of the terrible fight.

Our pickets are six miles beyond Strasburg. Jackson is not in sight.

All the fences and trees and the ground along the route of the retreat show evidences of the terrible effect of our artillery on the retreating enemy. General Shields' arm has been reset, and he is now comfortable, and will probaly be killed is over 200, and 500 wounded and 300 able to resume active duties in two weeks. The contest raged furiously till three o'clock in the afternoon, the fighting being done chiefly by the artillery and musketry.

at a range of not more than three or four hundred yards, and often much less. The Rebel infantry opposite our right now debouched from the woods and attempted to capture Doan's Battery by a charge. The first effort was nearly successful, but the heavy discharge of grape compelled them to retire in confusion. A second and weaker attempt likewise failed, and the enemy fell back, with heavy loss, behind the stone parapet. General Taylor now ordered his brigade to charge the enemy's batteries on the left, overtook and destroyed 200 of Jackson's and a most deadly encounter followed .-Twice our men recled under the storm; but in the third effort they routed the Rebels with tremendous' slaughter and loud cheering, capturing two of their guns and fors caissons.

Our loss in these struggles was heavy.-details of Sunday's fight as received embrace | Out of 300 men engaged in the Eighty-fourth many other dashing officers were killed of Captain Shriber an Aid and Inspector of wounded. The Fifth and Eighth Ohio shared enemy, running one through the body to the The enemy's killed and wounded strewed sentation of the Resaing and Columns is and road, indulged in by the Philadelphia dailies. We have not space this week to take up their false statements in datail, and disprove them by the official facts and fig-tout this is unimportant, as all they not the road, indulged in by the Philadelphia dailies. It is occasional capture of the scouts of the Lates from General Banks.

It is occasional capture of the scouts of the constant capture of the scouts of the product on the product of the social capture of the scouts of the constant capture of the scouts of the Lates from General Banks.

The constant capture of the scouts of the social capture of the scouts of the constant capture of the scouts of the Municipal capture of the scouts of the Capture