The Columbia Spy. COLUMBIA, PA. SATURDAY, APRIL 31, 1862.

Rev. Mr. Upham will preach in the Presbyterian Church to-morrow (Sunday) morning and evening at the usual hour.

REMOVAL.—The Messrs. Lindsay announce their removal to Locust street opposite the Bank, where they invite inspection of their complete stock of everything in their line.

NEW FIRM.—It will be seen on reference to our advertising columns that Messrs. Stoney & Bowers—both well known salesmen in our Columbia stores—have succeeded in C. C. Fundermish in the new store opposite the Old Fellows' Hall.

RE-CHARTER OF THE COLUMBIA BANK.—The bill for the re-charter of the Columbia Bank for ten years passed both houses of the Legislature previous to adjournment, and is now in the Governor's hands awaiting his signature or possibly may, before this time, have been signed.

LADIES' FAIR.—The ladies of the Lutheran Church will hold a Fair on Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday of next week—afternoon and evening—which will deserve general attention and patronage.

THE JOSEPH ENGAGED—KILLED AND WOUNDED.—As near as I can estimate the entire force engaged in the conflict, I have estimated at about 10,000 men on the rebel side, and a somewhat smaller number, say over fifty thousand, on our side.

THE RIVER AND LUMBER.—We have had an unusually favorable spring freshet this year, and the consequence is a large amount of lumber lying at our wharves.

GOVER'S LADY'S BOOK.—Godey for May has been received. The contents are varied and interesting, and good throughout.

ARMY NEWS! ANOTHER UNION SUCCESS. HUNTSVILLE, ALABAMA, CAPTURED.

THE REBEL LINE OF DEFENCE AGAIN BROKEN AND THEIR COMMUNICATION CUT OFF.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—The Secretary of War has received the important information that Huntsville, Alabama, was occupied yesterday by General Mitchell without much resistance.

Very Respectfully, J. B. GARBER. COLUMBIA, PA., April 12, 1862.

WAR BULLETIN.—Thanks to the Almighty. WAR DEPARTMENT. WASHINGTON, April 9th, 1862.

Order giving Thanks for the Great Victory over Rebels and Traitors. Ordered, First, That at the termination of Sunday next, after the receipt of this order, at the head of every regiment in the army of the United States, there shall be offered by its Chaplain, a prayer giving thanks to the Lord of Hosts for the recent manifestation of His power in the overthrow of the Rebels and Traitors, and invoking the continuance of His aid in delivering this nation, by the arms of patriot soldiers, from the horrors of treason, rebellion and civil war.

Second, That the thanks and congratulations of the War Department are tendered to Major-General Halleck for the signal ability and success that have distinguished all the military operations of his department, and for the spirit and courage manifested by the army under his command, under every hardship and against every odds, in attacking, pursuing and destroying the enemy wherever he could be found.

Third, That the thanks of the Department are also given to Generals Curtis and Sigel, and the officers and soldiers of their commands, for the matchless gallantry at the bloody battle at Pen Ridge, and to Major-Generals Grant and Buell, and their forces, for the glorious repulse of Beauregard, at Pittsburg, in Tennessee, and to Major-General Pope and his officers and soldiers for the bravery and skill displayed in their operations against the Rebels and Traitors entrenched at Island No. 10, on the Mississippi river. The daring courage, diligent prosecution, persistent valor, and military result of these achievements are unsurpassed.
