color. Charagy Uniforms.—There is, perhaps, no departing in 6 military tursiness in which there has been more marked improvement than in the clothing of soliders. Not many years since officers and private-were clad in granems which were ulmost skin tight. They were leather stocks, which were worthy of the hame, for they kept the wearer in tribulation; while likely budged breasts and light sleeves made volution a market of great difficulty. During the present war such of our volunteers as procure their uniforms at the Brownesstone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos-603 and 605 Chestant street, above Sixth, Philadelphia obtain clothing that is perfectly easy, substantial mabecogning. The firm numed have gone largely into the bathers of making Philiary Clothing, and their facilities enable them to fill the largest orders in the shortest possible time.

Cruical Notices of the Press.

Cretical Notices of the Press.

We would not so often call attention to Harper's Weekly it we were not well satisfied that it is the family paper published in the United States, and for that reason, and that alone, we desire to see it undermited and root out a certain kind of literature too prevalent, which blants the morals of its readers, vitiates their taste for enable reading, and is altogether bad in its effects—New London Attertier.

Its fresh leaves, its clear type, its entertaining variety, its severe but just criticisms upon the follies of the traces, its elegantly writte, and instructive articles, and its able correspondence, all combine to make it the model newspaper of our country, and one instevery family mestprize. Its condensed weekly summary of Foreig and Domestic Intelligence is altogether superior of the tangency of Foreig and Domestic Intelligence is altogether superior of the tangency of Foreig and Domestic Intelligence is altogether superior of the tangency of the family and fireade as the day on which it was first perused.—N.
