The Captain was informed that Hindman ordered no trading with Yankees on pain of death, save for ammunition and salt.

We are also informed on indisputable authority that 5,000 negroes have been ordered by Major General Butler to work on cutting a canal across the bend on which Vicksburg, or its remains, are now situated. The bed of the Mississippi being thus turned, Vicksburg becomes an inland city for ever-

CONTINUATION OF THE BOMBARDMENT.

PHILADELPHIA, July 7 .- A special despatch from Memphis, dated 6th inst., states that the ram Lioness had arrived there from Vicksburg with dates to 2d inst.

The canal being cut across the point of land opposite Vicksburg was nearly completed. A large number of negroes had been collected to work on the canal from the Columbia, July 5, 1862.

Columbia, June 5, 1862. that when the ditch is finished the river will cut a wide channel during high water, forever leaving Vicksburg an inland village.

The bombardment has been kept up at regular intervals from both fleets, Com. Davis having arrived when the Lioness left. The Rebel batteries were replying occasionally. It is stated that the Rebel works were to be stormed on the Fourth of July, and there is every reason to believe that the place has already fallen. The city is said not to be so badly damaged as first stated. All the non-combatants were removed previous to the bombardment. The Rebel force is said to be 16,000. A story had reached the fleet that several hundred of the enemy were killed by the explosion of shells.

Brilliant Skirmish in Mississippi-Rout of WASHINGTON, July G .- the following was to-day received at the War Department: CORINTR. July 6.

Hon E M Stanton Secretary of War: Official reports have just been received here of a brilliant affair of our cavaley near Boonsville, Miss., op July 1. Col. Sheriden, of the Second Michigan Cavalry, with two min. regiments of 728 men, were attacked by parts of eight regiments of rebels, numbering some 4,700 men, which he defeated and drove back after seven hours' fighting. Our loss was forty-one killed, wounded and missing. The loss of the enemy must have been very great, as he left sixty-five of his dead on the field of battle. Official reports will be forwarded by mail. I respectfully recommend Col. Sheriden for promotion for gallant conduct in battle.

Cruical Notices of the Press.

We would not so o'ten call attention to Harper's Weekly it we were not well satisfied that it is the funity paper published in the United States, and for that reason, and that alone, we desire to see it undermine and root out a certain kind of literature too prevalent, which blunts the morals of its readers, witates their teste for sensible reading, and is altogether bad in its effects.—New London Advertiser.

Its fresh leaves, its clear type, its entertaining variety, its severe but just criticisms apon the follies of the times, its elegantly writted and instructive articles, and its able correspondence, all combine to make it the model newspaper of our country, and one mat every family meatprize. Its condensed weekly summary of Foreig 11nd Domewic Intelligence is altogether superior to that contained in any other journal. Being published too, in a form for preservation and binding, if taken care of as it deserves to be, it will be found in future years as we come a companion for the farily and firesde as the day on which it was first perused.—N.
