Parson Brownlow's Book—A Sketch of the Rise, Progress, and Decline of Skeession. By W. G.

Brownlow. Philadelphia: George W. Childs.
This wonderful Book, just issued by G. W. Childs, of Philadelphia, is meeting with immense success. Its circulation will number hundreds of thousands, before it runs its course. The sublishers announce their orders in thirty days as 75,000 coptes. And it is a book that cannot be too widely circulated. Plain and unpretending, it gives an unvariable history of the devillab machinations and outrages of the Secasionists of East Tenuessee, and carries conviction of its entire truth in every line. The reland price is $1.25 and the book will be sent free by mail from the publisher, on receipt of the price.

AMERICAN EXCHANGE AND REVIEW .- The July num AMERICAN EXCHANGE AND REVIEW.—The July number of this monthly completes the first volume. It we'll merits success, and should have a large general circulation. The present number is a good one.

Godey's Lady's Book.—Godey, for August, contains a number of excellent tales, and is illustrated in the usual profuse manner. In anternet, fishons, &c. Godey is without rival. The number altogether is a first true one.

WAR NEWS!

FROM TENNESSEE.

Rumored Capture of Murfresborough—Two Generals and a Michigan Regiment Cap-tured by the Rebels—Destruction of the Railroad Depot—The Town Shelled.

NASHVILLE, July 13 .- The city is filled with rumors about a fight at Murfresboro to-day. The most reliable reports confirm the statements about a fight having occurred, with the following particulars:-About thres o'clock this morning a large force of Rebel cavalry, under command of Colonel Forrest, composed principally of two Georgis and one other regiment of regular cavalry, drove in our pickets and assaulted the the town. The Ninth Michigan Regiment, Colonel Parkhurst, was surrounded and captured. General T. T. Crittenden, of Indiana, and General Duffield, who had recently arrived to take command of the Twenty-third Brigade, were also made prisoners, with Lieutenant Barry, Commissary, and Lieutenant C. H. Irwin, Acting Assistant Quartermaster.

Hewitt's First Kentucky Battery made a gallant resistance, and their bravery is beyond praise. They saved the railroad track Marrel, of the best qualities. and bridge, losing but few men. The Rebels destroyed the railroad depot and other property, including the telegraph.

The town was being shelled by Hewitt's Battery at the last report, at 3 o'clock P.

Forrest is not expected to make an attempt upon Nashville, as he will find work enough for him to attend to before approach-ing the city. By reliable accounts he had A consultation has just been held between Governor Johnson, Colonel John F. Miller, commanding the post; Colonel Lewis D. Campbell, Provost Marshal; Captain O. D. Green, of Gen. Buell's Staff, Captain McFeely, United States Commissary; Captain Bingham, United States Quartermaster; Captain Bredan, of General Dumont's Staff, and Colonel Gillam, of the Governor's Staff.
