it will doubtless he one of equal mortifica-tion to the whole country. After fifteen months' of toil and bloodshed we have now returned to the starting point, and the whole work has to be commenced over again.— The Rebels may now again reiterate their assertion with some show of plausibility. that "the South cannot be conquered," There cannot be said to be any panic here, but the mortification is great and the disappointment so deep that every man seems to carry his feelings in his countenance.

There are also rumers here this evening of a change in the Cabinet, but I think they are at present unfounded.

CINCINNATI, September 3, 10 P. M. As martial law has been proclaimed in this city, I am not, under existing regula-tions, permitted to transmit any news to you touching military movements herea-

Martial law is being very strictly enforced here, and the citizens remain chediant and very quiet. The drinking sploons have all been closed, and business is very generally suspended, and but for the newspapers and markets, life would be truly intolerable.

Nearly the entire male papulation is either drilling or fortifying the hills on the Kentucky side of the river.

It is not a little singular to note the fact that both judges and ministers of the gas-pel in our city have been enrolled, mustered, and are now performing military duty.
Illundreds of men have been taken on the streets and in private houses and are now digging rifle pits opposite the city. I have just returned from similar duty myself, and in doing so I am unable to give you in this despatch the result of a number of impor-
