DAVIS' PANORAMA. - In the press of local and war matter last week we overlooked a gether with a Wrightsville company, acted notice of Davis' Panorama of the Rebellion. This extensive delineation of the scenes of the present war was exhibited on Monday and Tuesday evenings to crowded houses, and gave general satisfaction. The artist has labored to good purpose, and presents un canvass a series of life-like mimic battles which conveys as satisfactory an idea of the reality as can be given by work of the pencil. Some of the scenery is beautiful and the whole is exceedingly interesting. Mr. Davis has since exhibited his work very successfully at Lancaster.

At a special meeting of Company C. (Silver Greys) held at Old Fellows' Hall, on Wednesday evoning, Sept. 10, Abraham Bruner, Sr., was called to the chair, and John A. Hook appointed Secretary.

The President stated the object of the meeting, to elect a Captain in place of Mr. Samuel Houston, who declined to accept on account of ill health. On motion, First Lientenant John D. Wright was unanimously elected. Mr. John Wisher was then unanimously elected First Lieutenant, when the meeting adjourned.

-The following are the officera: Cantain-John D. Wright. First Lieut .- John Wislar. Second Lient. - D. P. Griffith.

A CAVALRY COMPANY .- Under the late requisition upon Governor Curtin for three regiments of cavalry, to serve for three years or the war, authority has been given to Messrs, M. M. Strickler and M. D. Wilson-the former as Captain, the lutter as Lieutenant--to raise a cavalry company for one of the new regiments. These gentlemen have been busily at work in town and country, making every effort to accomplish their aim, and, we are glad to add, with encouraging success. The limit assigned is the 20th inst., and from every indication the company will be filled by that day. Of the gentlemen engaged in this undertaking, nothing that we can say will effect their success; yet we renture to remark that they are admirably qualified for the positions to which they have been appointed. Town and township will be honorably represented by these young officers, both of whom make very considerable sacrifices in thus devoting themselves to the service of their country.

The fire is believed to have been incom diary work. Our neighbors are especially unfortunate at present in the attempts to burn their town. They are particularly helpless, being without a fire organization, and being dependant entirely on buckets for conveying water in emergency. Our firemen are always ready to proceed to their aid; but fire among the frame buildings of the town has time for fearful headway before the engines can be drawn across the bridge and put into service.

DEATH OF LICUT. R. W. SMITH .- We last week, in a paragraph noticing the countities in the Fifth Regt. Penna. Reserves, mentioned Lieut, R. W. Smith of Co. G. as severely but not dangerously wounded.
