Cettical Notices of the Press.

We would not so often call attention to Harper's Weekly if we were not well satisfied that it is the family paper published in the United States, and for that reason, and that alone, we desire to see it undermine and root out a certain kind of literature too prevalent, which blums the morats of its tread-re. Visites their rate for sensible reading, and is altogether bad in its effects.—Now Londons Advertiser.

Its fresh leaves, its clear type, its entertaining variety, its severe but just criticisms apon the tollies of the times, its eleganity writtes, and instructive strices, and its able correspondence, all combine to make it the model incompaper of our country, and one that every family most prize. Its condensed weekly som mary of, Foreis and Domestic Intelligence is altogether superior to that contained in any other journal. Heing published too, in a form for preservation and binding, if taken care of as it deserves to be, it will be found in future years as we come a companion for the (a nily and freshed as the day on which it was first perused.—N.
