Occupation of Tampico by the French— Great Storm at Vera Cruz—Eight Vessels Wrecked.

New York, Dec. 10 .- Havana letters of the 4th instant announce the occupation of Tampico by the French troops. The forti-fications at the entrance of the river were dismantled. The French—two thousand count goes, were well received by the citizens. On the 6th ult., a heavy gale wrecked reight vessels at Vera Cruz. Two were American—the bark Ella, of Boston and a ahip, name unknown; five French trans-ports, two of which lost all hands, and a British merchantman. The Freuch have 28,000 troops at Vera

A letter from Galveston reports that the Rebels intend making an attack on the Federal gunboats in the harbor by a flotilla of light draft steamers, armed with guns from the battery at Virginia Point. A boat's crew of the steamer Owasca was captured by the Rebels on the 14th ult., at Bolivar

To the Suffering.

The Rev. William Cosgrove, while laboring as a Alissionary in Japan, was cared of consumption, when all other means had failed, by a recipe obtained from a learned physician residing in the great City of Jeddo. This recipe has cared great numbers who are suffering from consumption, bronchitis, sore throat, coughs and colds, and the debility and nervous depression caused by these disorders.

Desirous of benefitting others, I will send this recipe, whigh I have brought tome with me, to all who need it, tree of charge. Address particular, the Publishers and Editors do not deem it necessary to pramise that its pages will never swerve from the honest paths of loyal patriotism and universal freedom. Its opinions have always been on the side of Liberty, Progress, and Right, and the course it first adopted in the all yearcer, will ever be faithfully maintained.

THE ATLANTIC MONTHLY.

BEGINNING OF A NEW VOLUME. THE Number for January, 1863, begins the The fundated for saturary, 2008, begins the a likewinh Volume of the Atlantic Monthly. From the commencement, in 1857, the Atlantic has rapidly increased in circulation, but at now has the largest class of readers stace its beginning, five years ago. Its pro-perity readily augustus, and it continues, amid all the fluctuations and dangers incident to our national crists, to gain ground in the estimation of the public. At a time so pregnant with events which touch the future destines of America in every wind particular, the Publishers and Editors do not deem it presents to promise that its nuces will never swerter.

The Sind of Writers, regularly contributing to the Atlantic Monthly, embraces all the best known nutbors in American interative, and warrants the Publishers in promising to its readers,

The Best Essays, The Best Stories, The Best Poems Which American talent can furnish.
