THE ATLANTIC MONTHLY.

BEGINNING OF A NEW VOLUME.

THE Number for January, 1863, begins the Eleventh Volume of the Atlantic Monthly.

From the commencement, in 1857, the Atlantic has rapidly increased in circulation, and it now has the largest class of readers since its beginning, five years ago. It has, in point of steadily augmenting, held its course, amid all the fluctuations and dangers incident to our national crisis, to gain ground in the estimation of the public. At a time so pregnant with events which touch the future destinies of America in every vital particular, the Publishers and Editors do not deem it necessary to promise that its pages will never swerve from the honest paths of loyal patriotism and universal freedom. Its opinions have always been on the side of Liberty, Progress, and Right, and the course so first adopted in its early career, will ever be faithfully maintained.

The Staff of Writers regularly contributing to the Atlantic Monthly, embraces all the best known authors in American literature, and warrants the Publishers in promising to its readers,

The Best Essays,
The Best Stories,
The Best Poems,

Which American talent can furnish.

Fancy Furs! Fancy Furs!

JOHN FARRERA, No. 718 Arch St., Philadelphia, Importer and Manufacturer of and Dealer in all kinds of Fancy Furs, for ladies and children's wear.

I desire to say to my friends of Lancaster and the surrounding counties that I have now in store, one of the largest and most beautiful assortments of all kinds and qualities of FANCY FURS, for ladies' and children's wear that will be worn during this Fall and Winter.

My Furs were purchased in Europe, previous to the rise in Sterling Exchange, and the New Duty Imposed on all Furs, imported since the first of August.

I would also state, that as long as my stock lasts, I will offer it at prices proportionate to what the goods cost me; but it will be impossible for me to import and manufacture any more Furs, and sell them at the same prices, owing to the unsettled state of the affairs of the country.

JOHN FARRERA.
