Tue "Reseaves."- As usual the infamoss N. F. Herald lied, in its secount of the great battle at Fredericksburg, about the conduct of the Pennsylvania Reserves. A correspondent (of what paper we do not know-we find the letter in the Baltimore American, without credit) thus corrects the Herald's unprincipled misrepresentations:

WAR NEWS!

ARMY OF THE POTOMAC. GENERAL BURNSIDE'S REASONS FOR CROSSING

THE RAPPAHANNOCK. HEADQUARTERS, ARMY POTOMAC, Dec. 19. Mojor General H. W. Halleck, General-in-Chief of the United States Army.

following reasons for moving the Army of the Potomac across the Rappahannock sooner than was anticionted by the President Secretary of War or yourself and for crossing at a point different from the one indicated to you at our last meeting at the President's During my preparations for crossing at the place I had first selected, I discovered that the enemy had thrown a large portion of his force down the river and elsewhere, thus weakening his force in front, and also thought I discovered that he did not articirate the crossing of our whole force at Fredericksburg, and I hoped by rapilly throwing the whole command over at that place to separate by a vigorous attack the forces of the enemy on the river below from the force behind and on the crest in the rear of the town, in which case we could fight him with the greatest advantage in our favor. To do this we had to gain a height on the extreme right of the crest, which height commanded a new road lately made by the enemy for the purpose of more rapid communication along his lines, which point gained, his positions along the crest would have been scargely tenable, and he could have been driven from them easily by an attack on his front in connection with a movement in rear of the crest.

How near we came to the accomplishment of our object future reports will show. But for the fog, and the unexpected and unavoidable delay in building the bridges, which gave the enemy twenty four hours to concentrate his forces in his strong position, we would almost certainly have succeeded, in which case the battle would have been, in my opinion, far more decisive than if we had crossed at the places first selected. As it was, we came very near success. Failing in accomplishing the main object, we remained in order of battle two days, long enough to decide that the enemy would not come out of his strongholds to fight me with his infantry, after which we recrossed to this side of the river unmolested, without the loss of men or property.

To the Suffering.

The Rev. William Cosgrove, while laboring as a Missionary in Jupan, was cured of consumption, when all other means had failed, by a recipe obtained from a learned physician residing in the great Giy of Jeddo. This recipe has cured great numbers who are suffering from consumption, throughing, sore thront, coughs and colds, and the debility and nervous depression caused by these disorders. Desirous of benefiting others, I will send this recipe, which I have brought home with me, to all who need in, tree of charge. Address.

If the above may be relied upon, it would appear that the Umon forces met with a check the first day of the assault. Full particulars will doubtless be received from Fortress Monroe this morning. When last heard from at Newbern by scouts, &c., the heard from at Newbern by scouts, &e., the Rebels had at Kiston but parts of five regiments and two batteries of artillery, with six other guns mounted in earth-works.

Other reports, however, by way of Suffolk, stated that Gen. Evans, with forty thousand men, had recently been despatched to this part of North Carolina, to resist the expected advance of General Banks, who was supposed to be about to march upon Richmond, by way of North Carolina. The reported force at Goldshoro', as known at Newbern, by information from scouts, was at this time but insignificat.

It would now appear that a large force, ander General Evans, had really been thrown upon this line of our operations, as the above despatch shows that fifteen thousand men were repulsed after thousand men were repulsed after thousand men were repulsed after thours in the County of Lancaster, and Constables of the above despatch shows that fifteen thousand men were repulsed after thours in the County of Lancaster, and constables of the above despatch shows that fifteen thousand men were repulsed after thours in the county of Lancaster, and constables of the above despatch shows that fifteen thousand men were repulsed after thours in the county of Lancaster, and constables of the above despatch shows that fifteen thousand men were repulsed after thours in the county of Lancaster, and constables of the court of Operand Terminer, and county of Lancaster, and Constables of the court of Operand Terminer, and county of Lancaster, and county of La
