of our trip. The transport upon which we were ran upon a shoal, where she lay all C. S. Kauffman, who addressed the meeting night. In the morning a most terrible snow at length. Mr. Kauffman then moved that set in, and we landed in the midst of it, and sas. were marched three miles, almost blinded. through mud at least two feet deep, to this,our present place of encampment, which is about three miles from Balle Plain, Va. Here we found every thing in the most retched condition. It was the deserted camp of one of the Penna. Reserve 'Regiments, and the former quarters were all brokon down-and filled with mud walls and snow. The miseries of our first night in Virginia can never be described. Men with a single blanket were compelled to lie on the damp ground, with no other covering than the dark angry clouis of the heavens above them. They bore it as cheerfully as never he truthfully written; and if it is. For sale by all Druggists. will never be credited by those who have never left the luxuries of their homes. If history is truthful, more than one Valley Forge in this war will grace its pages and excite the admiration of the coming generation, at the fortitude of a people battling for the preservation of the only good Government on earth.

Upon the second night Co. K was detailed on picket duty in the very front. Here we had the satisfaction of seeing our neighbors, the rebels, on the hills on the south side of the Rappahannock. The men of the company displayed all the coolness of voterans. and performed their duty as effectually as those who have a year of similar experience. We were not distorbed, and returned to camp and repaired and fixed up quarters. We are now as comfortable as circumstances will admit, though we are burrowed in all mother earth as eductually as so many hedge bogs and rabbits. We expect to change our quarters in a few days to a pleasanter locality, where the process of building new huts must be gone through with.

Promotion for marit and good discipline has telen place in our company: Lieut. Geo. A. Souders has been promoted to the 1st Lieutenantoy, and Orderly Sergeant S. K. Albright to the 21. Both amply deserved it. Elgar White, of Columbia, has been promoted to the position of Orderly Sergt. vice Lieut. Albright.

Major R. W. Shenk, of Lancaster, who was delayed in Washington did not join us until Friday following. Such a reception as the Major received was never surpassed by the men of any regiment. Such cheering never shook the hills of the Old Dominion as were given him as he rode in camp among the boys. He made a short sneech which was received with deafening cheers by the assembled regiment. No man is more deserved y popular than Major Shenk. The boys look upon him as a most reliable officer who in any position and under any circumstances, can always give a good account of himself, and all the officers of the regiment respect and place the utmost confidence in him as an officer. He at present is in command of the regiment, and since he has assumed it, every thing has worked with the rogularity and smoothness of clock work. The Lancaster county companies look upon him as their representative, and well has he merited their confidence.

NASHVILLE, March 6 -- There was fightog all day yestesday between Van Dorn's obel command and three Federal regiments of infantry, about 500 cavaly and one battery, at Springville, about 13 miles south of Franklin. Col. Cohurn's three regiments of infantry were cut to pieces or cantured by the rebel force. They fought desperatey, but their ammunition became exhausted. nd being overpowered by superior numpers were either killed or captured. The cavalry and artillery got off safely. No reinforcements from Gen. Hurlbut's command at Franklin reached the scone of action. Seven regiments of infantry are at that place.

Van Dorn is said to have 18,000 men in his command.

NASHVILLE, March 6 .- The following additional details have been received of the fight near Frauklin, yesterday: Five regiments of infantry, one battery, the 18th Ohio, with the 7th Pennsylvania and 2d Michigan cavalry, all under command of Col. Coburn, of the 33d Indiana, advanced on Spring IIill, on the 4th inst. Several spirited skirmishes occurred during the day, our troops camping four miles distant. Oa the 5th, a movement by the rebels was apparent, causing some disorder at Thompson's station. The rebels suddenly opened on our men with three batteries on different points, and at the same time they appeared on each flauk in greatly superior numbers.
