New Publications.

COOK'S LADY'S BOOK.—Godey for April has come to hand. A good number of profusely illustrated, especially with delineations of the fashions. Whoever fails to be fashionable taking in the Lady's Book, cannot be looked into shape by human ingenuity. Godey exhausts the subject.

ATLANTIC MONTHLY.—The April Atlantic, although rather behind its March predecessor, is a fine number. Beside a good story it contains a number of excellent papers, the most interesting among which are Agassiz's "Silurian Beach," the "Vicissitudes of Keats' Fame," by Joseph Severn, and "The Water-Work," by the author of the number as inferior to the general Atlantic product.

AMERICAN EXHIBITION AND REVIEW.—The March number of this monthly contains "The Science and Art of War," "The American History," "Money and Credit," "The Generative Gas Furnace," "The Diamond and its Paragons," besides much useful information contained in its several departments.

THE TRAVELER'S DAUGHTER.—By Gustav Aimard. Philadelphia: T. B. Peterson & Bros. Messrs. Peterson send us their recently published translation of the "Traveller's Daughter," one of the celebrated series of French Indian tales, by Gustav Aimard. The series has been translated by Cooper's "Leatherstocking Tales," but there is no point of resemblance between the productions of the two authors. The characters in both are American Indians, but the latter are drawn from natives of different continents. But this difference does not interfere with the interest of "French" Indians when they are skillfully worked into fiction as they are in this work. The scene is laid on the Western Prairie, and wild adventures are described. It is a book that will please all who love excitement and scenes of strife.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Stacy & Bowers advertise new goods. Give them a call. H. F. Bruner has a fine stock of new goods which he offers at low rates. He also advertises a second hand buggy and harness. See P. Schreiner & Son's new advertisement. Miss Caldwell will open a Select School on April 13th.

THE FORTY-FIFTH.—It will be seen by the letter of "45," that the Forty-fifth regiment has gone to Kentucky. The address of the regiment will be found in the letter.

THE RIVER.—The river is high, and on the rise (Friday afternoon). The latest news from "up river" represent the streams as high, and eighteen inches of snow on the ground; so we may soon look for a fleet of rafts from the headwaters.

ANOTHER SQUAD.—On Tuesday afternoon the second squad of colored volunteers for the 54th Mass. Regt. left this place. The following is the list: William Lee, Simon Malsou, William Nelson, Lewis Robinson, John Young, H. Young. Malsou and Henry Young were rejected on examination at Philadelphia, and have returned. These boys should all make good soldiers.

REV. E. DORSEY.—We are sorry to learn that the connection of Dr. Dorsey with the English Lutheran Church of this place has terminated. During his ministry Dr. Dorsey has made many friends in our town, within and without his congregation, who part with him regretfully. His services to the church have been exceedingly great. By his personal exertion he has succeeded in almost freeing the church from a debt which was crushing the life out of it. The Doctor goes to Waynesburg, in this State. We have not learned who is to replace him here.

UNION LEADER.—Owing to various embarrassing influences which delayed the issue of the Spy last week we omitted publication of the Organization of Union Leagues, on Saturday 14th inst. We have now received the Secretary's minutes too late for more than mere record of the officers of the Organization. The Fundamental Articles are identical with those of the Lancaster League, published by us last 1st.

OFFICERS: President, F. K. Smith. Vice President, Col. James Myers, Rudolph Williams, C. S. K. Smith, John A. Hook. Standing Committee, T. B. Peterson, J. W. Houston, Jas. Vaughan, J. R. Bachman, G. Brand, George Berger, Thos. R. Snitzer, Jas. Schneider, John Finger, Dr. S. Arnold, Henry G. Marsh, Jacob S. Miller, John Peart. Treasurer, Samuel Schoch. Secretary, George Wilford. No room for meeting has yet been selected.

PROCEEDINGS OF COUNCIL.—COLUMBIA, March 20, 1863.—Council met. The roll was called, and Messrs. Danny and Herr reported absent. The minutes of last meeting were read and approved. The following bills were read and ordered to be paid: James Henry, $1.25; Felix Hyde, $11.37; Samuel Waites, $25.00; Sam'l Hightenger, $2.00; W. Timony, $8.88; Jas. Hightenger, 7.25; D. S. Chalifant, $30.00. Mr. Bogle moved that the lamp-lighter's salary be increased $10, from April 1st, next, agreed to.

Mr. Eberlein that the high constable be allowed 12 cents for each meal furnished to vagrants, after this date, agreed to. A communication was read from James Myers, Esq., relative to the bad condition of the hundred yards of road, connecting the terminus of the Columbia and Marietta Turnpike with Commerce street, the only entrance to the town from the west, instead of being macadamized, fifth and offensive dirt meets the pedestrian, right on the threshold of the town, the greater part of the year, making an unreasonable impression upon all strangers coming into our otherwise clean and handsome city, town, &c. Referred to the road committee.

Mr. Bogle gave notice that at the next stated meeting he would introduce a resolution to change the regulation of the Market, so as to permit hawkers and others to ascend market to sell their produce as soon as they arrive at the market house. On motion, adjourned.

Mr. Eberlein that the high constable be allowed 12 cents for each meal furnished to vagrants, after this date, agreed to. DEATH OF THOMAS G. WILSON.—The name of Thomas G. Wilson was published last week among the names of the deserters from Co. K, 5th Regt. Penna. Reserves. He had been absent from the regiment for a long time without leave, and was supposed to have deserted. He was at home sick, and before recovering started to return to his regiment, whilst still suffering from disease. He got on board a canal boat, owned by Wm. McConkey, Esq., of Wrightsville, which went adrift at some point on the Potomac, and was captured by the rebels, the crew, with Wilson, being taken prisoners to Richmond. This occurred during the winter, and the friends of the missing soldier in this place were entirely ignorant of his fate until Thursday last when Capt. Hingotogler, of the captured canal boat, recently released by the rebels, returned and brought the sad intelligence of Thomas Wilson's death, on Feb. 9th, in a Richmond Hospital. Capt. Hingotogler brought with him the following Hospital record and certificate:

Name, Thos. G. Wilson, Citizen, Penna. Admitted, 1 Feb., 1863. Discharged, 9 Feb., 1863. Disease, C. Diarrhoea. I certify to the death of this man, Thos. G. Wilson, Asst. Surgeon in charge. East. Dist. H. Sp., 12 Feb., 1863. Richmond, Va.

This taken from a brave young soldier the stigma of desertion, and the record should be altered accordingly. However sad his fate, it must be a comfort to his friends that he is not among the skulkers from duty. Poor fellow! He did good service in his company, and was deserving of a happier fate.

ONE OF THE BRAVE SOLDIERS WHO HAVE GONE.—Although we had heard of the death of private George H. Kline, Co. I, 23d Regt. P. V., last December, in the Alexandria Branch Hospital, we only learned the particulars a few days since. At White Oak Swamp private Kline received a severe bruise over the spine, from a piece of shell, which disabled him and sent him to the hospital for a time. After apparent recovery he joined his company and went through some of the hard marches terminating in the battle of South Mountain and Antietam. In the latter battle, in a hand to hand encounter with three rebel cavalrymen, he strained his back in lifting the last of his foes—a Lieutenant—from his horse on the point of the bayonet, and after some further service was compelled to go into the hospital again. Here, after apparently almost recovering, he was suddenly taken worse, and died—the attendant surgeon thinks from the effect of the old bruise. His father, Dr. Kline, of Chestnut Hill, proceeded to Alexandria last month, and brought the remains of his son home for burial. The funeral took place on the 1st of March. Kline was one of the bravest boys who left this part of the country. He was out in the three months service, in Capt. Raub's Company K, 2d Regt., and again enlisted for three years with Capt. C. C. Halldeman. Great sympathy is felt for his father, who loses a noble son, the prop of his declining years.

ANOTHER RAID.—On Monday afternoon our town was startled from its propriety by the sudden appearance in our streets of a marshaled battalion, which made a triumphant entry, marched through the streets in token of possession, and after an undisturbed occupancy of about an hour, retired in good order. There was much stir on this sudden appearance of so formidable a force, but the militia were not called out, probably from the fact that the raid was entirely unexpected. We are credibly informed that the invaders crossed our picket lines entirely unchallenged. No formal surrender of the town was demanded, and the keys of the borough (lock-up) were suffered to remain in the hands of High Constable Waites. The only Brigadier General in town at that time, was happy to step, escaped capture. We are compelled to award a measure of credit to the invading force, inasmuch as private property was strictly respected; but considering the fact that no armed opposition was offered, the wanton injury inflicted upon the flower of our youth was unprecedented barbarity. No lives have been lost, but many of the most severely wounded are, we fear, without hope of recovery. Some of them would not bring twenty-five dollars as substitutes. The invading force was under command of Gen. Tabuhy, of Litz, and consisted of the faculty and pupils of the Litz Female Seminary. They were guided, in fact, conveyed to town by Dr. Crane, Esq., Superintendent of the Rowing and Columbia Rail Road, in the cars of the company. The next time a similar raid is contemplated, we hope Mr. Crane will give Columbia timely warning, that the citizens may prepare a warm reception. We warn the people of Litz to be on the watch, for some fine day they will, in return for our surprise of Monday, find their beautiful town surrounded and taken possession of by a horde of Columbians.

THE WAR ENDS.—Harvey L. Goodall, who will be remembered as formerly Editor of the Lancaster Inland Daily, turns up after a long silence as publisher of the "War Eagle" at Columbus, Ky., a patriotic sheet of about the size of a Sunday School "Track." The little paper is a sprightly one, and gives no quarter to either "rebels" or "Copperheads." May the Eagle increase and multiply, and may the Editor thrive always.

ARMY CORRESPONDENCE. BALTIMORE, Md., March 24, 1863. DEAR SPT.—We are again on the move. On Friday we received orders to prepare five days' cooked rations to go on board transport vessels next morning. Owing to the terrible snow storm we were permitted to remain in camp quietly until Monday. Our regiment then embarked on the good steamer "Mary," Washington, and after a pleasant trip reached Baltimore same night.

WE departed this morning, and after some delay got on board the cars of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, and will start for the West this evening, via B. & O. R. R. I hoped we would go via York and Harrisburg, but we won't. My chums Jerry Long, Mike Collins, with myself had arranged a plan to fall out of the cars at York, and of course would have been compelled to run after the train—viz. Columbia. Our girls will have to kiss other chaps now. Mike swears at the bad luck; so do I. Rumor says we go to Kentucky. Send the Spy, and tell our daisies to address Company "K," 45th Regt. Penna. Vols., 9th Army Corps, via Cincinnati, Ohio.

SOBROWFUL "45." CAMP NEAR BELL PLAIN, Va., March 21, 1863. FRIENDS:—I believe it will not be displeasing to the folks at home to be kept informed how the "Bowery Boys" are getting along. They are doing very well, although we have very disagreeable weather; it has been snowing and raining for two days, and it will be another basket to the army. But we have been caught in the same kind of storms before, and are getting used to them. When it was snowing the very hardest the Sergeant Major stepped up to Sergeant White and gave him a detail for picket, and in the mud and snow away the boys had to travel. They looked very queer in the morning, when they crawled out of their little muslin houses and found they had to tramp out about five miles to the picket lines; but old "K" is always ready for everything and anything. We were all ready and off we started in a good walk and a hearty laugh from "Old Santy." On the 19th we vacated the miserable quarters which we first occupied and took up new and more comfortable ones, where we are well situated, well fed and well clothed.

We don't see why our friends of the 45th did not like the "Army of the Potomac." Was it because they were too near the rebels? If so we should like to hear from them. They should not fear the "Bowery Boys," for if they have a chance they will give a good account of themselves. We were happy to meet with our "Zoo-Zoo" friends of the 23rd, on the sacred soil of Virginia, and also our old friend John Sheets, of the 1st Penna. Cavalry. They all have a great deal of confidence in our Commander-in-Chief, and are satisfied that he will lead us on to victory.

We were very sorry to find that one of our company, (a corporal who had just been promoted) deserted while we were leaving Washington; but I am pleased to tell you that he is not a Columbian. He was formerly from Lancaster City. The health of the company in general is very good. We left two sick behind at Washington and we hope their health will soon return; and they will speedily join their company. The 1st Sergeant has not much trouble in making out the sick report, for there is not much of that done in the company. Our Captain's friend the "little doctor" says that Company K is too full of devils to be sick. The K's do not like to take quinine for it is not healthy. Our Columbia friend Dr. Hottenstein (formerly surgeon of this regiment) has been promoted to Division Medical Director, on General Doubleday's Staff, and has proved himself a very efficient officer. We are very well pleased with our officers. We have the best captain in the regiment. A better man has not left the back of the Susquehanna than Capt. G. H. Erismar, for he is as a father to the men under his command.—His delight is to be with his company, and to have his men as comfortably situated as he can. He always provides for his men before he thinks of himself. We are very well pleased with the promotions that were recently made, especially that of 1st Sergeant Albright, for he is capable to hold the office and he was well thought of by the men. He always did his duty faithfully as a company officer, and we hope he will continue to do so as a commissioned officer. I must not omit mention of our Adjutant J. B. McClain. He is from Jefferson county and is a gentleman and a soldier, and one of the best Adjutants that ever drew a sword in the Army of the Potomac. He ever looks to the welfare of his men, and especially Co. K, and if every other officer would forsake us the Adjutant would stand by us; and we hope that if there be any promotions in the regiment Adjutant McClain will be the man.

You will hear from us often, as I hope to continue the correspondence. Yours, Truly, "ONE OF THE BOWERY BOYS."

WAR NEWS! THE WAR ON THE MISSISSIPPI. Operations at Vicksburg.—Reported Evacuation of Haines' Bluff. ST. LOUIS, March 24.—A special despatch to the Democrat, from the post below, dated the 5th inst., says the rebels continued shelling the canal at Vicksburg, somewhat retarding the prosecution of the work. The river had fallen, and the fears of an overflow of our camping ground had subsided. All was quiet at Greenwood. Both parties were repairing damages. Our present force there was regarded as insufficient to reduce the rebel fortifications. Levees were being cut, which it was thought would result in drowning the rebels out. Rumors were in circulation of the evacuation of Haines' Bluff, and that the 8th Missouri had gone up to garrison that place. If this report is true, it fore-shadows the fall or evacuation of Vicksburg. The Democrat learns that a gentleman who has just arrived from Vicksburg, states that the steamer Diligent, with the 8th Missouri regiment, had succeeded in entering the Yazoo river above Haines' Bluff.—Her course was through the Cypress bays, which debouches in the Yazoo opposite Johnson's plantation, where General Sherman's troops landed last December; thence, through Stead's bayou into the Sandfower, which empties into the Yazoo river 20 miles above Haines' Bluff.

The steamer Diligent was accompanied by a light gunboat. As soon as it was found possible to get through four iron-clad foes followed. Our informant also says that—thousand men had gone up before this movement was made. Our force can't this be placed between Haines' bluff and Yazoo city, which will enable us to operate in the rear of our former position, and bring the enemy between two fires. It is also believed that our fleet can navigate the bayous and enter the Yazoo above Yazoo Pass, by which means our gunboats can co-operate with our forces at Greenwood, reduce Fort Pemberton, and then throw their combined strength against Yazoo city and flank the rebel position. The enemy being thus turned, Vicksburg will undoubtedly be evacuated. The batteries at Haines' Bluff were built so as to sweep down the river, and are powerless from any attack from above. A confirmation of these tidings is anxiously looked for. CAIRO, March 24.—Memphis papers of Sunday last have received here. They contain a report of another canal, or cut-off, having been opened from the Mississippi, 50 miles below St. Helena, into the Yazoo river, Washington lake, and also into Sandfower river, by which access is gained to Yazoo city and Haines' Bluff. They also report that two of Admiral Farragut's gunboats had reached the lower mouth of the Vicksburg canal, and one small boat had passed into lake Providence. The water was rushing into the lake at a rapid rate. Greenwood was held in check by a rebel battery.

THE YAZOO EXPEDITION. CAIRO, Ill., March 24, 7.50 P. M.—Hon. Gideon Welles, Secretary of the Navy: I have just received a communication from Lieutenant Commander H. B. Brees, dated Black Hawk, March 19th. The Admiral has got through Steel's and the Black Bayou with five iron clads, and with the Price into Deer Creek, and is making all haste for the Yazoo river. Doubtless he is there now. General Sherman and his troops are following him up. A. M. Pennock, Fleet Captain and Commander of Station. CINCINNATI, March 25.—The Yazoo expedition has come to a stand still. The Commercial's special from Greenwood says the Chiliothe in the last engagement was temporarily disabled by shot battering the sides to her port holes so that they could not be moved. Battery Wilson has been dismounted and the gun returned to the gunboat. The DeKalb and our forces are acting on the defensive. Fort Pemberton is being strengthened by the rebels, but is nearly under water, and the widening of the breach in the levee at the head of Yazoo Pass, it is thought, will drown them out completely. That work is being done by troops from Helena. Quincy's division was on Coldwater river on the 20th, and with good weather would reach Greenwood in two days. The guerrillas trouble the boats in that river and the Tallahatchie, and have killed three or four soldiers. The most important intelligence is the discovery of a new pass through the Mississippi through the Sandfower into the Yazoo river. Through this a large force can be thrown on Yazoo city, which being taken, they can go up the Tallahatchie to Greenwood and co-operate in the reduction of Fort Pemberton. The Monitor gunboat Lafayette is reported up the Yazoo above Haines' Bluff. Other gunboats have gone up. Stirring news is expected from that quarter. The reported evacuation of Haines' Bluff is not credited. The rebels will not abandon that ill-fated fort, or after deciding to evacuate Vicksburg.

THE WAR IN KENTUCKY. Surrender of the U. S. Forces at Mount Sterling.—Expected Attack on Paris. CINCINNATI, March 22.—A special despatch from Paris, Ky., to the Commercial, says:—The Rebel Col. Clarke surrounded our forces at Mount Sterling, Ky., at 2 o'clock this morning. Our troops, amounting to only 200 men, fought for four hours from the shelter of the houses in the town, but were finally compelled to surrender. The rebels then burned the place. It is believed that Col. Clarke intends to attack Paris, Ky., to-night. FROM TENNESSEE AND KENTUCKY. CINCINNATI, March 24.—The Commercial's Marreesboro' dispatch states that reliable information from the south represents that the evacuation of Vicksburg is being advocated, for the purpose of massing the troops with the army of Middle Tennessee for strategic advantage. Prominent rebels claimed that Rosecrans would be obliged to repeat General Buell's movements of last year. Within the last four days the rebels have made several reconnaissances, causing considerable picket skirmishing along the whole front. They do not appear to be anxious to bring on a general engagement. Small parties of guerrillas have appeared along the Nashville Railroad, attempting to capture trains. No serious damage has been done so far. The road is heavily guarded. Paroled prisoners from Mount Sterling, Ky., have arrived, confirming the reported capture of that place. Colonel Garrard attacked Clarke's forces yesterday, near Mount Sterling, driving him towards Owingville. THE WAR IN FLORIDA. NEW YORK, March 21.—The Port Royal New South, of the 14th, says that Jacksonville, Florida, was taken by a colored brigade on the 10th inst. The negroes behaved with propriety, and none of them were injured. On the 11th inst., Col. Montgomery, with 200 men, had a sharp skirmish, three miles from town, with 200 Rebels. Baldwin, in the junction of the Jacksonville and Tallahassee and the Cedar Keys Railroad, is supposed to be the point aimed at by the expedition.
