SMUEL WRIGHT, Editor and Proprietor.

"NO ENTERTAINMENT SO CHEAP AS READING, NOR ANY PLEASURE SO LASTING."

$1,50 PER YEAR IN ADVANE; $2,00 IF NOIN ADVANE

VOLUME-XXXIV, NUMBER 36.1

COLUMBIA, PENNSYLVANIA, SATURDAY MORNING, APRIL 4, 1863.

[WHOLE NUMBER 1,702,

PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY MORNING. Office in Carpet Hal, North-westcorner of

Cont and Locust streets. Te ms of Subsciption. as Copyperannum, if paid in advance; $150 if not paid within three months from commencement of the year, 200 4 Conts a Copy.

Nocubscription received for a less time than an ogiths; and no paper will be discontinued until al rearagemare paid, unless at the option of the pub-Rates of Advetting quare[6 ines] one week, $0.38

three weeks, 75
ench ubsequent insertion, 10 [12 ines] one week, 50
three weeks, 100
ench ubsequent in sertion, 25
Engerid vertisement in proportion, 31 entry of carly devertisers, who are strictly confined other business.

H. M. NORTH, A TTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW Jounties. Columbia, May 4, 1850.

H. B. ESSICK, ATTORNEY AND COUNSELOR AT LAW. COLUMBIA, PA.

DR. HOFFER. THUNTIST .-- OFFICE, Front Street 4th down Ustrom Locust, over Saylor & McDonald's Book sto Columb a, Pa. Dentrance, same as Jolley's Ph ograph'Gallery of [August 21, 1829.

Clocks, Watches, Jewelry, Silver and Silver-Plated Ware. SHREINER & SPERING,

HAVING taken the old established stand of John Felix. Front street, Columbia, respectfully invite the public to call and examine their large as-ortment of

CLOCKS, WATCHES, JEWELRY,
SILVER and SILVER-PLATED WARE,
CUTLERY, COMBS, PISTOLS,
ACCORDEONS, and FANCY ARTICLES, Buch as are gaustly kept in a first-class Jeweiry Store We will keep constantly on hand a large stock of American Watches, In Gold and Silver Cu-es-Appleton, Tracy & Co. P. S. Bartlett and Wm Ellery movements—which we will offer to the public at prices to sait the times.

A continuance of the former patronage is respectally solicited

III Repairing of all kinds promptly attended to Columbia, July 19, 1862.

NOW FOR BARGAINS. WE have just recoived another int of all-wool De-laines and pland Mosambiques, which we offer at reduced prices STEACY & BOWERS. Cola June 22, 1962 Cor 2d and Locust Sts. Cola June 29, 1962

OLD CREAM OF GLYCERINE,—For the current and prevention to compose hands, &c. For as at the PLDEN MORTAR DRUG STORE, Dec 3 1858

SALT! SALT!

t market prices h william i RAMAN, or, Bond's Boston Crackers, for Dyspeptics; and Acrow Root Crackers, for in s and children—new articles in Columbia, at Hrrison's oumbian nk.

WHICH is a superior stricts, permanently black, and not corroding the pen eyn be had in any annity age the Framity Medicine Sidne, and blacker et re-hat English Boot Poltsh.

Columbia, June 9, 1859

OFFISH! PISH!

MATKEREL by the barrel half barrel and quarter barrel, of the best qualities, as T. APPOLD.

Columbia. July 42, 1862.

Columbia. July 42, 1862.

Columbia.

WALL PAPER! E have just received a large lot of Wall Paper, all the newest sty ex and hest goods, which we sell at prices to-un the times. Sen at prices to ut the times.

SAYLOR & MCDOVALD,

Rook wore, Front St., above Locust, Community
March 2 '01.

NOTICE. I desire to settle up the old hook accounts, of both stores, and request all persons knowing themselves indebted to please card and settle the same.

H. C. FON DERE MITH.

Columbia, May 17, 1862.

SPALDING'S PREPARED GLUE.-The want o Such an article is felt in every family, and now it, can be supplied; for mending fasiniure, chinumere, or manufacture of the superior. We have found it we full in repairing many articles which have been usedess for months. You are the supplied of the superior of the su POCKET BOOKS AND PURSES.

A LAMBER to of Fine and Common Pecket, Boo and Purses, se from 5 cents to two dollars exc. Series and News Depot. Columbia, April 14.1 80. Lawns, Lawns, Lawns.

L ADIES called see our heraftful 12) cont. Lawrence STEACY & BIWERS.

June 28. 1892 Opposite Odd Fellows Hall.

HOOPED SKITS. A NEW and epiendid style of Hooped Skirts, just A received; Also, a full assortment of other styles, very cheap

Columbia, Apr. 126, 1962. FOR SALT. 1500 Sacks G. A. Salt, 100 Sacks Ashton Salt Ap-APPOLUM Warehouse, Lunal Basin. Columbia. Dec. 29, 1861.

RAISINS.

JUST RECEIVED

A VD for sale, by the barrel or larger quantities. A barrels Monongahela Whicky, at APPOLD'S Warehouse, Cola, May 14; '61. For Sale at a Bargain.

THE choice of Two Fire and Burglar Proof Rafes— A "Herring" or "Lillies" Patent: Also, a Family Hereel and a first-rate Carriage and Harness. Call a | the steer of Colm. May 17, 1962.

H. C. FONDERSMITH, adjoining the Bank

HO! FOR CHRISTMASI Choice Baking Moissers the best in the market STEACY & BOWERS.
Colu. Dec 6.1882. Cor. & BOWERS.
CLOAKING CLOTH.

BEAUTIFUL Black Cloth, solimble for ladies oles STEACY & BOWERS, Corner Second and Locust Streets
Cola. Dec. 6 52. Opposite Odd Fellows' Hall.

LIQUORS.

HIQUORS.

WE have received a Supply of Pere Brandy. Old kyr Whinky, Old Port Wine,
which we offer for sale for Medicinal purposes.
A GRAY & CO. Cola July 6, 61. Golden Mortur Drug Store

FRATE AND DRESS GOODS. 16. Delaines, Cashmeres, Black Silks, Sack Plannels Fickings, Checks, Marlins, Shections, Shections, Shections, Cons. BRUNERS' Cots, Oct 27, 1860. Cor. Third and Union.

COAL OIL

OF Superior quality, constantly on hand at Northeless. WATER TO SEE THE SEE T

Noetry.

Back Again.

From all the Fonts, salt, bitter, sweet— Fashion's Bethesdas, Wealth's and Pride's— Where, in "the season," the elite Bantize-in Health's name-their insides:

From Newport, Rockaway, Cape May, Where, lively as the tutored ficas, Metrons and mails at leap-frog play

In summer, with gymnastic ear; From where, in foam, Niagara's floods Explode with earth-convulsing throes,

Who gape at the sublime Cohoes; intains White and mount From lake by wood-crowned hills ellp: in,

"Done" by the folks of Ton and Tin. Throngs back our human china ware, Our locomotive porcelain, And Fourteenth street is debonnir,

Fifth Avenue itself again! On Broadway, "forms of choicest mould"

Once more are moving to and fro, nd—see the Testament, the Old— Forever "mincing as they go." The clergy that in summer's heat

To the "first temples" fied to cool, Again the pulpit cushions best, Again rich sinners mildly school, heatres and concert halls are jammed, The Park's alive with prancing steeds,

The millinery stores are crammed, The rich give estentations feeds.
The Falls, the Spas, the Lokes, the Sea

Have had their day-their halls are bere-

•I-iah, iii. 16.

Selections.

Insurance and Assurance.

FERNANDINE.—I have been drinking hard all night, and with have more time to prepare me, or they shall near out my brains with billets. I will not consent to lie this day, that's certain.

DUKK.—O, sir you must; and therefore I beseech you now forward on the journey you shall go.

FRENANDINE.—I swear I we'l not die to day for any man's persuasion.

(Mensure for Measure.

"It is inconceivable to the virtuous and praisworthy part of the world, who have been born and bred to respectable idleness what terrible straits are the lot of those scandalous rogues whom Fortune has left to ling out which is not often." shift for themselves." Such was my feeling ejaculation, when, full of penitence for the sin of urgent necessity, I wended my way to the attorney who had swept together, and for the most part picked up, the go off suddenly." crumbs which fell from my father's table .-He was a little grizzled, and sardonic enimal, with features which were as hard in the room." as his heart, and fitted their leather jacket so tightly that one would have thought it and shrunk from washing, or that they had nearly out at the elbows. They were completely emblematic of their possessor whose eligion it was to make the most of everything, and amongst the rest, of the distress es of his particular friends, amongst whom rent rolls nor title-deeds, and we sat down ted as a fit subject. to consider the readiest means of turning an excellent income for one year into somethrough all the speculations of the age, and, She was dressed in slight m life for a few thousands; you will have but little premium to pay, for you look as if you would live for ever; and from my know- pounds and a widow." ledge of your rattle-pated habits, and the various chances against you, I will give you a handsome sum for the insurance." Necessity obliged me to acquiesce in the proposal, and I assured the old cormorant that there was every likelihood of my requitting after his marriage." his liberality by the most unremitting perservance in all the evil habits which had procured me his countenance. We shook hands in mutual ill-opinion, and he obligingly volunteered to accompany me to an Insurance Office, where they were supposed to estimate the duration of a man's life to a quarter of an hour and odd seconds. We arrived a little before the business hour, and were shown into a large room, where we found several more speculators waiting ruefully for the oracle to pronounce sentences. In the centre was a large table, round which, at equal distances, were placed certain little lumps of money, which my friend told me were to reward the labors of the Inquisition, amongst whom the surplus arising from the absentees would likewise be divided From the keenness with which each individual darted upon his share and ogled that of his absent neighbor, I surmised that some of my fellow sufferers would find the day against them. They would be examined by eyes crpable of penetrating every crevice of their constitutions, by noses which could smell a rat a mile off, and hunt a guinea breast high. How, inuesd could plague pestilence, gout or gluttony expect to lurk in its hole undisturbed when sur- very much inclined to titter, which I con- spite of my constitutional confidence, felt a rounded by a pack of terriers which seemed Whenever the door slammed, and they looked for an addition to their cry, they were attendance, I longed to tell her to stop till I the encouragement of volatile coquetry; and, going to bark; and if a straggler really en-the labor of the day commenced.

plies upon their natural lives, were afflicted laughed outright. Our affairs were settled but my blood was in a turmoil, and I have with a natural conceit that they were by no exactly at the same moment, and I followed means circumscribed in foundation for such her closely down stairs. a project. In vain did the board endeavor "What mad trick are you at now?" into persuade them that they were half dead quired the cormorant. already. They fought hard for a few more years, swore that their fathers had been al most immortal, and that their whole families She bowed with much courtesy. laughed had been as tenacious of life as eels themselves. Alasi they were first ordered into home. an adjoining room, which I soon learnt was the condemned cell, and then delicately informed that the establishment could have nothing to say to them. Some, indeed, had the good luck to be reprieved a little longer but even these did not effect a very flattering or advantageous bargain. One old gentleman had a large premium to pay for a tot ter in his knees; another for an extraordinary circumference in the girth; and a dowager of high respectability, who was afflicted with certain undue proportions of width, was

"How old are you, sir?" inquired an ex-fixed most exorbitantly. The only customer who met with anything like satisfaction was a gigantic man of Ireland, with whom death aminer. "Forty."

"You seem a strong man." "I am the strongest man in Ireland."

"But subject to the gout?" "No-The rheumatism .--- Nothing else inon my soul." "What age was your father when h died?" "Oh, he died young, but then he was killed in a row." "Have you any uncles alive?"

"No: they were killed in rows too." "Pray, sir, do you think of returning to Ireland?" "May be I shall, some day or other," "What security can we have that you are not killéd in a row yourself?" "Oh, never fear! I am the sweetest temper in in the world, barring when I'm din-

"What, sir, you can drink a little?" "Three bottles, with ease."

"Ah that is bad. You have a red face and look apoplectic. You will, no doubt.

Devil a bit. My face was born with me; and I'll lay a bet I live longer than any two

"But three bottles-"Never you mind that. I don't mean to and live snug." A debate arose amongst the directors re. specting this gentleman's eligibility. The words "row" and "three bottles" ran, hurryscurry, round the table. At last, however, I had the happiness of standing very for- the leader of the pack addressed him in a ward. My business required but little ex- demurring growl, and agreed that, upon his planation, for I was oppressed by neither mending irregularities, he should be admit-

It was now my turn to exhibit; but as my friend was handing me forward, my proat the same time, had taken a very exact the most sparkling beauty I had ever seen, neasurement of my capabilities of turning and appeared to produce an instantaneous that I was fit for nothing on earth. For themselves. The chairman politely reone undertaking, I wanted application; for quested her to take a seat at the table, and another I wanted capital. "Now," said he; she immediately cotored into her business, 'as the first of these deficiencies is irreme- which seemed little more than to show herdiable, we must do what we can to supply self to be entitled to twenty thousand the latter. Take my advice; Insure your pounds, for which her late husband had insured his life.

"Ah, madami" observe the chairman, "your husband made too good a bargain with us. I told him he was an elderly, sickly sort of a man, and not like to last; but I never thought he would die so soon

An elderly, sickly sort of a man! She would marry again, of course! I was on fire to be examined before her, and let her hear a favorable report of me. As luck would have it, she had some further trans actions which required certain papers to be sent for, and, in the pause, I stepped boldly forward.

"Gentlemen," said my lawyer, with a mile which whitened the tip of his nose, and very nearly sent it through the external teguments, "allow me to introduce Mr. ----, a particular friend of mine, who is desirous of insuring his life. You perceive he is not of your dying sort."

The directors turned their eyes toward me with evident satisfaction, and I had the vanity to believe that the widow did so toc. "You have a broad chest," said one, "I dare say your lungs are never affected."

"Good shoulders, too," said another. 'Not likely to be knocked down in a row." "Strong in the legs, and not debilitated by dissipation," cried a third. "I think this gentleman will suit us."

pliments, and a few others, the widow was I was not quite prepared for this, and, in sidered as much as a flirtation commenced; little embarrassed. I had, perhaps, mistaken bungry enough to devour one another :- and when I was ordered into another room the breakings forth of a young and buoyant to be farther examined by the surgeon in spirit, under ridiculous circumstances, for come back. The professional gentleman for a moment, I was in doubt whether I tered and seized upon his molety, the in- did his utmost to find a flaw in me, but was should not apologise and pretend that she obliged to write me a certificate, with which was not the lady for whom my visit was inthat of a dog who has lost a bone. When I re-entered, and had the satisfaction of tended! But then she was so beautiful! ingly intelligible story about your father ten or a dozen of these gentry had assembled hearing the chairman read that I was war- Angels and ministers! Nothing on earth ranted sound. The Board congratulated sould have sent me down stairs unless I had

"I am going to hand that lady to her carriage," I responded; and I kept my word. again, and desired her servant to drive

"Where is that John?" said I.

and away they went. We walked steadily away, the bird of prey reckoning up the advantages of his of their union. "Ah, madam," said I, "the my soul." bargain with me, and I in a mood of omission is extremely natural! I am sure equally interesting reflection.

"What are you pondering about, young gentleman?" he at last commenced. not overreached yourself in this transac thought he would have died so soon after

"How so?"

"Why, I begin to think I shall be obliged to give up my harem-scarum way of life; I thought was likely to have a puzzling con- drink moderately, leave off fox-hunting, and sell my spirited horses, which, you know, will make a material difference in the probable date of my demise."

"But where is the necessity of your doing all this?" "My wife will, most likely, make it a tipulation." "Your wife?"

"Yet. That pretty, disconsolate widow we have just parted from. You may laugh; but if you choose to bet the insurance which you have bought of me against the purchase-money, I will lay you that she makes me a sedate married man in less than two surance office. The widow looked comimonths."

"Done?" said the cormorant, his features again straining their buckskins at the idea of having made a double profit of me. "Let turn, expanded in a laugh like the laugh of us go to my house, and I will draw a deed to that effect, gratis."

hanged myself a month before had it not wise than charming. I ran over all the been for the Esom races, at which I had amusing topics of the day, expended a thouparticular business, and any additional rea- sand admirable jokes, repeated touching son for disgust to the world, would, I passages from a new poem which she had thought, be rather a pleasure than a pain not read, laughed, sentimentalized, cuddled

Modesty is a bad bugbear upon fortune. have known many who have not been oppressed that remain in the shade, but I have as her beauty; nor did she put on a single drink more than a bottle and a half in future. never known one who emerged with it into grave look when I volunteered to call the bought it second hand, and were pretty Besides, I intended to get married, if I can prosperity. In my own case it was by no next day and read the remainder of the means a family disease, nor had I lived in poem. fore I began to think of an excuse for my intrusion. The drawing-room was vacant, PAPER CHEAPER THAN WHITEWASH. thing decent for a few more. My adviser, gress was arrested by the entrance of a whether I was not actually in some temple my attorney, giving me the choice of an enwhose small experienced eye had twinkled young lady with an elderly maid servant. of the Loves and Graces. There was not a signey in a regiment which was ordered to the through all the speculations of the age, and, She was dressed in slight mourning, was thing to be seen which did not breathe with WestIndies; or of going as missionary to New A tenderness. The ceiling displayed a little them to advantage, seemed to be of opinion effect, even upon the stony hearted directors derness of turtle-doves. The pictures were I was cut off by the yellow fever or devourinspired, and had a nest with two young least. "Zounds," thought I, "twenty thousand like minel I could not bear to look upon old acquaintance. Affairs went on pretty of the ass, besides." which I found were all in a tone with which a low evening dress, and my soul, which ing after!" I would have married her out the shoulders of Hercules. frosty Caucasus! I was in the most meltspeculations. She was dressed in simple gray, wholly without ornament, and her dark brown hair was braided demurely over a forehead which looked as lofty as her hair was lovely. The reception she gave me was polite and graceful, but somewhat distant: and I perceived that she had either forget-I could perceive that, during these com- ten, or was determined not to recognize me.

Most of our adventurers for raising sup- | me somewhat jocosely, and the widow | been kicked down! "Madam," I begannever been able to recollect precisely what I said. Something it was, however, about my late father and her lamented husband, absence and the East Indies, liver complaints, and life insurance; with complaints, condolences, pardon, perturbation, and preter-plu-perfect impertinence. The lady | that?" looked surprised, broke my speech with two or three well-bred ejaculations, and astonished me very much by protesting that she "No. -, sir, in -street," said John; never heard her husband mention either my father or his promising little heir-apparent, William Henry Thomas, in the whole course I am not at all offended with your late husband upon that score. He was an elderly, sickly sort of a man. My father always "I am pondering whether or no you have told him he could not last, but he never marriage. He had not time-he had not time, madam, to make his friends happy by introducing them to you."

> behaved remarkably well, for the widow could not quite make up her mind whether to credit me or not, which, when we consider the very slender materials I had to work upon, is saying a great deal. At last I contrived to make the conversation glide away to Auld Robin Grey and the drawing of Apollo, which I pronounced to be a chef d'ouvre. "Permit me, however, to suggest, that, the symmetry of the figure would not be destroyed by a little more of the Horcules in the shoulders, which would make his cally at the recollections which I brought to her mind; her rosy lips began to disclose their treasures in a half smile; and this, in Euphrosyne. This was the very thing for me. I was always rather dashed by beauty I did not flinch from the agreement. My on the stilts; but put us upon fair ground, ase, I knew, was desperate. I should have and I never supposed that I could be other--provided I was disappointed in the lovely the kitten, and forgot to go away till I had quite lost sight of my questionable introduction, and chimed in with a wit as brilliant and growl?"

any way by which I was likely to contract | It is impossible to conceive how carefully it. Accordingly, on the following day, 1 I walked home. My heat and heart was caught myself very coolly knocking at the full of the widow and the wager, and my widow's door; and so entirely had I been life was more precious than the Pigot Diaoccupied in considering the various bless. mond. I kept my eyes seculously upon the ings which would accrue to both of us from pavement, to be sure that the coal-holes our union, that I was half way up stairs be- were closed; and I never once crossed the street without looking both ways, to calcuand I was left for a moment to wonder I arrived, I was presented with a letter, from endure for Thirty years." West Indies: or of going as missionary to New At las Zealand. I wrote to him, in answer, that and asked the measure of his days. heaven of sportive Cupids, the carpet a wil- it was perfectly imm sterial to me whether a series of the loves of Jupiter, the vases ed by cannibals, but that I had business lies bleeding; the very canary birds were self of either alternative for two months, at ones; and the cat herself looked kindly over | The next morning found me again at the the budding besuties of a tortoise-shell kit- door of Euphrosyne, who gave me her lily ture, grant me a longer period." ten. What a place for a sensitive heart hand, and received me with a smile of an the mirrors which reflected my broad much the same as they did on the preceding shoulders on every side, like so many day. The poem was long, the singing exgiants; and would have given the world to quisite, my anecdote of New Zealand irreappear a little pale and interesting, although sistable, and we again forget ourselves till it might have injured my life a dozen years it was necessary, in common politoness, to purchase. Nevertheless, I was not daunted, ask me to dinner. Here her sober attire, and I looked round, for something to talk which for some months had been a piece of about, on the beauty's usual occupations, more gratuitous respect, was exchanged for I had remarked. Upon the open piano lay was brimming before, was in agony to find "Auld Robin Grey," which had, no doubt, room for my increasing transports. Her been sung in allusion to her late husband. spirits were sportive as butterflies over the meant to apply to her future one; and round rapidity of our acquaintance, sulogized my Moore, Campbell and Byron. "This witch," der, and every now and then sharpened her of a hedge-way, and worked upon the roads The third and the fourth and the fifth to maintain her; but with twenty thousand days, with twice as many more, were equal-mistaken, she would create a fever in the reasons for remaining, till at last I took upon me to call and remain; without trouing mood alive, when the door opened, and bling myself about the one or the other. I in walked the fascinating object of my was received with progressive cordiality; and at last, with a mixture of timidity which assured me of the anticipation of a catastrophe which was, at once, to decide the question with the insurance office, and determine the course of my travels. One day I found the Peri sitting rather pensively to work, and as usual, took my seat opposite

"I have been thinking," said she, "that I have been mightily imposed upon." "By whom?" I inquired.

"By one of whom you have the highest opinion-by yourself."

"In what do you mistrust me?" "Come, now, will it please you to be can did and tell me honestly that all that exceedand the liver complaint, and beaven knows what,-was a mere fabrication."

the wrong end of it?"

iumping up and leaning over her. "It should be done so. What stitch do you call creeps out when his task is over.

"Nonsense. Will you answer me?"

for joking. I took her band-it trembledand so did mine.

The work dropped upon her knee.

dressed the following note to my friend: rely upon my interest there.

The Lifetime of Man.

creatures assembled to have their lifetime the same manner, and a degree of conveniappointed, the ass first advanced and asked ence gained which would be attempted in how long he would have to live?

hat he agreeable to thee?" while. Remember what a wearisome exlife a much, longer purchase. A little more istence will be mine; from morning until amplitude in the chest, too, and a trifle night I shall have to bear heavy burdens, stronger on the legs, as they say at the In- dragging corn-sacks to the mill, that others may eat bread, while I shall have no enbut blows and kicks. Give me but a portion of that time I pray?"

with them?" "Is it thy will that I should?" replied the dog. "Think how much I will have to run time, and when I shall have lost my voice sojourned full two hours. Euphrosyne for barking, and my teeth for biting, what else shall I be fit for but lie in the corner

> Nature thought he was right, and gave twelve years.

The ape then appeared.

be pleasant to thee," my grimaces, and then be rewarded by a most frequent. Children born in Spring sour apple. How often sorrow lies con- are generally stronger than those born in late the dangers of being run over. When cesled behind a jest! I shall not be able to other seasons. Births and deaths chiefly

"Will thirty years content thee?" to me most desirable, I shall die. Oh, Na-

"Then shalt thou have the eighteen years "That is not enough," replied the man.

"It is not yet sufficient," reiterated man;

'give me more." "I will give thee, then, the ten years of the ape, and in vain wilt thou claim more." Man departed unsatisfied.

Thus man lives seventy years. The first thirty are his human years, and pass swiftly tal city of the island of Java-according to by. He labors carefully, and rejoices in his the description of a newspaper corresponexistence. The eighteen of the ass come dent, is a brilliant specimen of oriental On the table was a half-finished drawing of flowers of her imagination with a grace that next; burden upon burden is heaped upon splender. The houses—which are as white Apollo, which was, equally without doubt, was quite miraculous. She ridiculed the him; he carries the corn that is to feed as snow, are placed one hundred feet back, others; blows and kicks are the reward of from the street, the intervening space beabout were strewn the seductive poems of modesty till it was well nigh burnt to cin- his faithful service. The twelve years of ing filled with trees, literally slive with the dog follow, and he losse his teeth, and birds, and every variety of plants and flowthought I, "is the very creature I am sigh- wit by a delicate recurrence to Apollo and lies down in the corner, and growls. When eas. Every house has a piezza in front; and these are gone, the ape's ten years form a is decorated with beautiful pictures, elegant conclusion. Then man, weak and silly, be- lamps, cages, &c., while rocking chairs, comes the sport of children.

Esquimaux Architecture.

emptied of their inhabitants, who move sea- light from the lamps. The hotels have ward on the ice to the seal hunt. Then comes grounds of eight and ten acres in extent into use a marvelous system of architecture, around them, covered with fine shade trees. unknown among the rest of the American with fountains, flower gardens, &c. Indeed. nations. The fine, pure snow has by that so numerous are the trees, the city resemtime acquired, under the action of strong winds and hard frosts, sufficient coherence to form an admirable light building material with which the Esquimax master-mason at the daylight office and ten are table. erects most comfortable dome-shaped houses. A circle is first traced on the smooth surface of the snow, and the slabs for raising the breakfast is served, and at seven, dinner. walls are out from within, so as to clear a Coffee and to always ready, day and night. space down to the ice, which is to form the floor of the dwelling, and whose evenness was previously ascertained by probing .-The slabe requisite to complete the dome. after the interior of the circle is exhausted, are out from some neighboring spot. Each slab is neatly fitted to its place by a flinching knife along the joint, when it instantly profesion.

"Will it please you to let me thread that freezes to the wall, the c.ld atmosphere needle, for I see that you are taking aim at forming a most excellent cement. Creviers are plugged up, and seams accurately closed by throwing a few shorelfuls af loose snow "I think I could put the finishing touch to on the fabric. Two men generally work tothat sprig. Low' you see?" I continued, gether in raising a house, and the one who is stationed within cuts -s low-door-and

The walls being only three or four inches The beauty was not altogether in a mood | thick are sufficiently translucent to admit a very agreeable light, which serves for ordinary domestic purposes; but if more be "Will you pardon me?" I whispered, "I required, a window is cut, and the aperam a sinner, a counterfeit, a poor, swindling ture is fitted with pieces of transparent ice. disreputable vagabond-but I love you to The proper thickness of the wall is of same importance. A few inches excludes the wind, yet keeps down te temperature so as to prevent dripping from the interior. In about a fortnight from this time I ad- The furniture-such as seat-, ab'es, and sleeping places—is also formed of snow, and a dessed the following note to my friend:

DEAR SIR:—It will give you great pleatovering of folded reinder skin or saalakin and that you have lost your wager. As I intend settling the insurance on my wife, I shall, of course, think you entitled to the job. Should your triffing loss in me oblige behaved remarkably well, for the widow rely upon my interest there. is promoted by building the houses configu ously, and cutting doors of communication between them or by erecting covered spansages. Storehouses, kitchens, and other When the world was created, and all accessory buildings, may be constructed in vain with a less plastic material. .. These "Thirty years," replied Nature, "will bouses are durable; the wind has little effect on them, and they resist the thaw, till "Alast answered the ass, "it is a long the sun acquires very considerable power. -Sir John Richardson.,

Statistics of the Globe.

The following curious facts are stated by the Abeille Medicale: "The earth is inhabcouragement, nor be refreshed by anything ited by 1,288,000,000 of inhabitants, viz. 369.000.000 of the Caffearian race: 552.000. 000 of the Mongolian: 196,000,000 of the Nature was moved with compassion, and Ethiopian; 1,000,000 of the American Indian; presented but eighteen years. The ass went and 200,000,000 of the Malay race. All away comforted, and the dog came forward. these respectively speak 3,064 languages, "How long dost thou require to live?" and profess 1,000 different religions. The askedy Nature. "Thirty years were too amount of deaths per annum is 333,333,333, many for the ass, but wilt thou be contented or 91,954 per day, 3,730 per hour, 60 per minute, or one per second; so that at every pulsation of our hearts a human being dies. This loss is compensated by an equal numabout; my feet will not last for so long a ber of births. The average duration of life throughout the globe is 33 years. One fourth of its population dies before the seventh year, and one half before the seventeenth. Out of 10,000 persons only one reaches his hundredth year, only one in 500 his eightie h, and only one in 100 his sixtyfifth. Married people live longer than un-"Thou wilt, doubtless, willingly live the married ones, and a tall man is likely to thirty years," said Nature; thou wilt not live longer than a short one. Until the fifhave to labor as the ass and dog. Life will tieth year, women have a better chance of life than men, but beyond that period the "Ah, nol" cried he; "so it may seem to chances are equal. Sixty-five persons out others, but it will not be! Should puddings of 1,000 marry. The months of June and ever rain down, I shall excite laughter by December are those in which marriages are occur at night. The number of men able to tion. The nature of the profession exercisof 100 of each of the following professions the number of those who attain their seven-"How short a time!" exclaimed man, tieth year is, among clergymen, 42; agri-When I shall have built my house, and culturists, 40; traders and manufacturers, presented nothing but hearts-case and love. which would prevent me from availing my- kindled a fire upon my own hearth-when 33; soldiers, 32; clerks, 32; lawyers, 29; the trees I shall have planted are about to artists, 28; professors, 27; and physicians, bloom and bear fruit-when life shall seem | 24; so that those who study the art of prolonging the lives of others are most liable to die early, probably on account of the efflueia to which they are constantly exposed .--There are in the world 335 millions wf Christians, five miliions of Jews, 600 mil-"Take, likewise, the twelve years of the lions professing some of the Asiatic religions. 100 millions of Mahometane, and 900 millions of Pagans. Of the Christians, 170 millions profess the Catholic, 76 millions the Greek, and 80 millions the Protestant > lounges and attamans, of the nicest description, furnish luxurious accommodations fo the family-who sit here mornings and eve-As the days lengthen, the villages are nings. At night the city is one blaze of ent. At daylight coffee and tea are taken to the guest's room, and again at eight o'clock light refreshments. At twelve No business is done in the streets in the middle of the day, on account of the heat. The nights and mornings are coel and de-The nights and mornings are cost and delightful; birds are singing all night. The thermometer stands about 82 degrees throughout the year. The island abounds, with tigers, leopards, anacondas, and poisonous insects of all kinds. The linest fruits in the world are produced in great approach.

A BEAUTIFUL CITY.-Batavia-the capi-creeds."