

The attention of the reader is directed to the advertisement of Dr. Mackley's Directo...

New Publications.

American Statesman.—Were we a farmer we would not fail to take the Agriculturist. It is the very best publication of its class...

This Office For Sale.

We desire to dispose of the Spy Office, and offer it for sale. It is well known as one of the best Office in the State.

A Good Hostler Wanted.

General Welsh desires to employ a good man to accompany him on Monday to the army in the capacity of hostler.

New Advertisements.

Books and Stationery.—Our friend William U. Hess has opened a Book and Stationery Store, with a complete stock of everything in the line of business.

Our advertising, locals and Correspondence go so full this week that we are compelled to omit all army news.

THE FORTY-FIFTH.—We learn by our letter from "45" that the Forty-fifth Penna. Regt. is stationed at Paris, Ky.

LETTER FROM THE TWENTY-THIRD.—We have received a letter from a correspondent in the 23rd regt. Penna. Reserves which we publish to-day.

THE CANALS.—The Tide Water Canal is now open for navigation, the water having been let in on the 1st inst.

THE RIVER.—The river has been at a very high stage, but has now subsided, and is in first-rate running order.

Army Correspondence. CAMP OF 45TH REGT. P. V., FAIR GROUNDS, PARIS, KY., March 29th, 1863.

DEAR SIR:—I sent you a brief sketch of our movements last week from Baltimore; I must be equally brief now, as we are but arrived, with no leisure as yet for correspondence.

We left Baltimore on Tuesday, 24th, via the Baltimore and Ohio R. R., for the great west. I will attempt no description of the notable points and scenery on the line of this road—let it suffice that we arrived safely at Parkersburg, Va., where we took boat and descended the "beautiful river" to Covington, Ky., opposite Cincinnati.

Paris is in Bourbon county, a fine country—the home of "Old Bourbon," that noble son of Kentucky; who we drink his blood! Our stay here will probably depend somewhat on the rebels. If they become troublesome, we shall look after them and pacify them—if not, we may enjoy the delights of Parisian life for an unlimited term.

Of course you at home knew of our Colonel's promotion before it was announced in camp. I need not tell you how the boys regard it. We only ask that he may be put in command of the old Brigade.

The boys are all well. Our address is 45th Regt. P. V., 1st Brigade, 1st Division, 9th Army Corps, via Cincinnati, Ohio.

CAMP OF 23RD REGT. P. V., NEW FAIRMOUNT, VA., March 27th 1863.

DEAR SIR:—I notice in your issue of the 14th inst., a letter from "45" in which after complimenting his regiment on its superior drill, for which it is to be ordered to Fort Monroe, (which is all good, but no doubt he would like to inquire after the "Zu-Zus"—so thinking that the citizens of Columbia might like to hear from some of her sons in the 23d regiment, I will address them through your columns.

WHEREAS, After two years of the most patriotic sacrifices on the part of the people, and the most desperate trials and struggles on the part of the army, to restore our shattered Union and maintain our national honor, our Government finds itself assailed by a class of persons at home who would yield it, Jude-like into the hands of the enemy or sell it by a dishonorable compromise with the host of treason and who are even now trying to induce the masses to resist its lawful authority in order the sooner to gain their hellish ends; therefore as color bearer at Turkey Bend and Malvern Hill, well earned the commission he received as 2d Lieut.

Resolved, That we look upon all proposals from whatever source, to give up this struggle on any other terms than the unconditional submission of the traitors in arms against their country, as disgraceful to those who originate, and to those who for a moment lend an ear to them.

Resolved, That we have no sympathy or feeling in common with those who, from a real or pretended admiration of any man, or General, would make their consciences in their country's cause, perhaps their only dependent on, or subordinate to, their personal feelings; that we are ready and anxious to fight for our country under whatever commander we may be placed, and under none with greater alacrity than our present Commander-in-chief.

HEADQUARTERS 150TH REGT. P. V., CAMP NEAR BELLE PLAIN, VA., March 21st, 1863.

DEAR SIR:—It has been some time since the "Happy Family" has graced your columns, owing to the scarcity of news in Washington. We are now in Virginia, thank Providence, where we have been anxious to be ever since we came out. We left Washington on the 15th of March, the day before the 135th left, and proceeded down the river to Belle Plain landing, where we left the boat and marched to our present camp about 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

My dear Sir.—I stumbled a day or two since on the following picture—for picture it is—of the right kind of an officer, and it struck me at once as fitting to a hair "Our Tom." Everybody—that is anybody who has brains—can "see it," though "Tom," bless his good natured soul, would blush like a Miss of sixteen, on having it applied to him. But it is true—he deserves it.—Put it through, FRANK.

THE OFFICER WHO IS A SOLDIER AND A GENTLEMAN.

IN person he is manly; there is nothing pretty about him; he is no petti man; he does not look like a lady's man; but he looks like a man to whom a woman might trust her honor, her fortune, and her life, and be sure that he would be faithful in all. His bearing is as manly as his person; there is no affectation of military precision about it; still less of swagger. His step is firm, his head erect, his eye steady, clear and calm; it neither outfaces nor avoids you. It is an eye that speaks of a constant mind and a brave heart. It is an eye that a woman would confide in, and that a soldier's look into to draw from it confidence in peril.

Last week our Division was reviewed by Maj. Gen. Doubleday. Our brigade is the 33d, and is composed of the 140th, 150th and 145th regiments, Col. Roy Stone of the 140th commanding. Our regiment was pronounced the best drilled in the division by Gen. Doubleday. Mrs. Gen. Doubleday and Mrs. Col. Stone were present at the review, mounted.

With kind regards to all at home we remain still a

"HAPPY FAMILY."

P. S.—Can you find room for the appended patriotic resolutions passed by our regiment, in expression of our opinion of "Copperheads?" H. F.

A meeting of the officers and soldiers of the 150th Regt. Penna. Vols., was held at the regimental headquarters on the 11th day of March, 1863, in pursuance of the following call, signed by all the officers of the regiment:

The undersigned, officers of the 150th Regt. P. V., respectfully request Col. Wilcox, commanding the regiment, to call a meeting for the purpose of expressing our sincere loyalty and devotion to our country; and our detestation of the Northern traitors, now endeavoring to paralyze the efforts of the army in the field, and insidiously to overthrow their country's cause.

Lieut. Col. Haidick was called to the chair, and Adj. Ashhurst appointed Sec'y. The object of the meeting having been stated by Major Chamberlin, after appropriate and patriotic remarks by Col. Wilcox, Lieut. Col. Haidick, Adj. R. L. Ashhurst, Quartermaster A. S. Voorhes, Lieut. Wm. P. Duergal, Co. D, and private Phil. Hammer, Co. A, the following preamble and resolutions offered by Major Chamberlin, were unanimously adopted, amid great enthusiasm:

WHEREAS, After two years of the most patriotic sacrifices on the part of the people, and the most desperate trials and struggles on the part of the army, to restore our shattered Union and maintain our national honor, our Government finds itself assailed by a class of persons at home who would yield it, Jude-like into the hands of the enemy or sell it by a dishonorable compromise with the host of treason and who are even now trying to induce the masses to resist its lawful authority in order the sooner to gain their hellish ends; therefore pledging to the restoration of its entire authority "our lives, our fortunes, and our sacred honor."

Resolved, That we have no sympathy or feeling in common with those who, from a real or pretended admiration of any man, or General, would make their consciences in their country's cause, perhaps their only dependent on, or subordinate to, their personal feelings; that we are ready and anxious to fight for our country under whatever commander we may be placed, and under none with greater alacrity than our present Commander-in-chief.

Resolved, That we believe that "fighting for Southern rights" means nothing more than warring for the extension of slavery—which we regard alike as a curse to the land, and a great moral wrong, we hail with joy the President's proclamation doing away with that institution in every State in which rebellion has not broken out, and see it forever blotted from our soil.

Resolved, That our feeling toward traitors, both north and south is one of implacable hatred, and that while this army has bullets for those at the south, it has also been broad enough and heavy enough to General Sherman, and information to him, if they persist in the insidious attempts to weaken and overthrow the Government.

Major Chamberlin, Capt. Widels, Co. A, Capt. Risinger, Co. H, Adj. Ashhurst and Q. M. Voorhes were appointed a committee for the publication of the these resolutions. On motion adjourned.

H. S. HUBBARD, Lt. Col. 150th P. V., Chairman. R. L. ASHBURST, Adj. 150th P. V., Sec'y.

For the Columbia Spy.

DEAR SIR:—I stumbled a day or two since on the following picture—for picture it is—of the right kind of an officer, and it struck me at once as fitting to a hair "Our Tom." Everybody—that is anybody who has brains—can "see it," though "Tom," bless his good natured soul, would blush like a Miss of sixteen, on having it applied to him. But it is true—he deserves it.—Put it through, FRANK.

COLE'S MARCH 30th, 1863.

HE IS A SOLDIER, fit to stand by Caesar And give direction.—Shakespeare.

TO CONSUMPTIVES.

TO THE SUFFERING.

TO NERVOUS SUFFERERS OF BOTH SEXES.

FREE SCHOOL.

PRIVATE ACADEMY.

COMMERCIAL SCHOOL.

SELECT SCHOOL.

REMOVAL.

DR. HOFFER.

DR. HOFFER.

DR. HOFFER.

DR. HOFFER.

DR. HOFFER.

DR. HOFFER.

DR. HOFFER.

DR. HOFFER.

DR. HOFFER.

DR. HOFFER.

DR. HOFFER.

DR. HOFFER.

DR. HOFFER.

DR. HOFFER.

and corrects them only for their own good, the honor of the service, and the glory of their common country. If wounded dangerously, and sent home, he leaves his post with regret. In the city he is modest in his deportment; seldom speaks of his own actions; never finds fault with the actions of his superior officers; he knows that in a great army, discipline and obedience to orders are the hinges of success; and that Thersites could ridicule Ajax, and mock at Achilles! On sick leave, his great anxiety is to get well and join his regiment in service; he does not believe in drawing his pay and not doing his work; so he eschews bar-rooms; is not to be seen lounging on tavern steps, cigar in mouth and regimentals on back; but, being on leave, he dresses in civil (military for plain clothes), and drops camp talk, leads a quiet life, and, as soon as he is firm on his legs, reports himself well, and is on duty, again. His soldiers cheer him when he appears, and there is not a man in his company that would not risk his life for him.

If he falls, they make a rampart round his body and bear him from the field. If his wound be mortal, every man feels that he has lost a friend; and when his regiment follows his body to its last resting-place, the sternest eye is moist, and his country has lost a brave officer and a good soldier. Requiescat.—Home Journal.

THE POSTAL CURRENCY.—There is popular error in reference to the postal currency. Some of the notes have on the lower right hand corner of the back the letters "A. B. N. Co.," and those not thus stamped are supposed to be spurious. The contract for printing these notes was originally given to the National Bank Note Company, whose signature in small letters appeared on the face. When the demand became urgent, the National Bank Note Company printed the face and the American Bank Note Company the backs, hence those which were printed by the American Bank Note Company have their signature upon the back; but the absence of this signature is no evidence of spuriousness.

EDITOR SPY:—With your permission I wish to say to the readers of your paper that I will give you a receipt for all who wish to receive a receipt with full directions for making and using a simple Vegetable Hair Dressing, which will remove in 10 days, Pimples, Bores, Tan, Freckles, and all impurities of the Skin, leaving the same soft, clear, smooth and beautiful. I will also mail free to those having Bald Heads or thinning Hair, a certain and infallible Hair Dressing, which will enable them to start a full growth of luxuriant Hair, whether on a non-shave, or less than 30 days. All applications answered by return mail, without charge. Respectfully yours, J. H. CHAPMAN, Chemist, No. 531 Broadway, New York. February 25-3m

DR. WATSON & COTTRELL, HAVING associated themselves in the practice of Medicine and Surgery, offer their professional services to the citizens of Columbia and vicinity. Office in Locust street, one door below Court-House.

NOTICE.

TO FARMERS BUILDING BARN, STABLES, OR TOBACCO SHEDS.

A PLAINE.

THE SOLACE.

NEW AND CHEAP BOOK STORE.

STATIONERY AND SCHOOL BOOKS.

LEDGER, PRESS, AND INQUIRER.

COAL COAL.

BY THE CARCO, CAR-LOAD OR TON.

DR. HOFFER.

DR. HOFFER.

DR. HOFFER.

DR. HOFFER.

DR. HOFFER.

DR. HOFFER.

DR. HOFFER.

DR. HOFFER.

DR. HOFFER.

DR. HOFFER.

DR. HOFFER.

DR. HOFFER.

DR. HOFFER.

DR. HOFFER.

DR. HOFFER.

DR. HOFFER.

DR. HOFFER.

DR. HOFFER.

DR. HOFFER.

DR. HOFFER.

DR. HOFFER.

DR. HOFFER.

NOW OPEN AT

HALDEMAN'S CHEAP CASH STORE.

COLUMBIA, PA.

OUR

SPRING STOCK

OF

DRY GOODS,

CARPETINGS AND OIL CLOTHS,

QUEENSWARE, &c.

Our Assortment is as Large, Varied and Complete, as any Former Season.

HAVING MADE

HEAVY PURCHASES FOR CASH,

BEFORE THE GREAT ADVANCE,

We are now offering many Goods

AT LESS THAN PRESENT WHOLESALE PRICES.

To which we invite the SPECIAL ATTENTION of our customers.

N. B.—We are prepared to supply COUNTRY STORES with the BEST MAKES of Cotton Goods

AT VERY LOWEST CASH PRICES,

AT HALDEMAN'S STORE.

Columbia, March 21, 1863.

DRS. WATSON & COTTRELL, HAVING associated themselves in the practice of Medicine and Surgery, offer their professional services to the citizens of Columbia and vicinity. Office in Locust street, one door below Court-House.

NOTICE.

TO FARMERS BUILDING BARN, STABLES, OR TOBACCO SHEDS.

A PLAINE.

THE SOLACE.

NEW AND CHEAP BOOK STORE.

STATIONERY AND SCHOOL BOOKS.

LEDGER, PRESS, AND INQUIRER.

COAL COAL.

BY THE CARCO, CAR-LOAD OR TON.

DR. HOFFER.

DR. HOFFER.

DR. HOFFER.

DR. HOFFER.

DR. HOFFER.

DR. HOFFER.

DR. HOFFER.

DR. HOFFER.

DR. HOFFER.

DR. HOFFER.

DR. HOFFER.

DR. HOFFER.

DR. HOFFER.

DR. HOFFER.

DR. HOFFER.

DR. HOFFER.