

1c.
3t.
1mo.
3mo.
6m.
1y.

1 sq. 10 lines or less,
50 100
1,25
1,00
5,00
5,00
5,00
5,00
3,00
3,00
1,00
1,25
3,00
5,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00
3,00</t [Larger advertisements in proportion.]

Executors' and Administrators' Notices. 6 inser-tions, $2,00. Availabre's Notices and Legal Notices, 3 insertions, $1,50. Special Notices, as reading matter, 10 cents a line for one insertion. Yearly advertisers will be charged the same rates as transient advertisers for all matters not relating stratig, to their business.

All Advertising will be considered CASH, or collectable by draft in 30 days after first insertion. JOB WORK, Having just added to our office one of Gampas's In-raover Jon Presses, we are enabled to execute in a superior manner, at the zery locast prices, every de-scription of printing known to the art. Our assor-ment of JOB TYPE is large ond frashloundle. Give us wrust and our work shall speak for itself.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD. Trains leave Columbia going east, Columbia train, 815 A. M. Harrisburg Accomodation, 650 P. M. Trains leave west, Mail trian, 650 P. M. Columbia train arrives, 820 E. K. BOICE, Ticket Agent.

READING AND COLUMBIA R. R. Train leaves Columbia at 1 20 P. M. Returning, leaves Adumstown 6 40 A. M. Arrives in Columbia at 9 10 A. M. R. CRANE, Supt.

YORK AND WRIGHTSVILLE R. R

The trai will run as	ns from Wrigl follows, until	itsville and Yor further orders :
Leave Wrightsville,		7 30 A. M.
• • •	· · ·	1 00 P. M.
66 ·	44	7 30 P. M.
Leave York		6 30 A. M.
	14	12 10 P. M.
•• •	44	4 30 P. M.

n. C. Bailway.

Departure and Arrival of the Passenger

Trains at York. DEPARTURES FROM YORK. For BALTIMORE, 4.15 A. M., 8.30 A. M., and 2.50 P. M.

ARRIVALS AT YORK. From BATTIMORE, 11:55 A. M., 6.15 P. M. and 12:25 A. M. From JATTIMORE, 11:55 A. M., 6.15 P. M. and 12:25 A. M. From JARUISBURG, 4:10:42 M., -8:25 A. M., and 2:45 P. M.

M., and 2.5 P. M. <sup>1</sup> On Sunday, the only trains running are the one from Harrisburg at 8.25 in the mora-ing, proceeding to Baltimore, and the one from Baltimore at 12.25 A. M., proceeding to Manufahurg to Harrisburg.

DR. HOFFER, DENTIST.--OFFICE, Fred Street uext door to R. Williams' Drug Store, between Locust and Walnut sts, Cola., Pa. Apr.

II, B. ESSICK, ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW,

COLUMBIA, PA.

LADIES' DRESS GOODS ! NEW Stock just received. We have some cheap bargains. STEACY & BOWEIRS, Opposite Odd Fellows' Hall, Col'a, Pa. November 23, 1863.

Love's a thing of heavenly birth, God's best boon to us of earth; School the heart and school the soul, "Till they are perfections whole, "Till man maketh heaven his goal!

Hearts are secrets !- would that we Could the hearts of mortals see; But we can t-so heads will ache, Souls will suffer, hearts will break ! True as notedle to the polo, True love binds us soul to soul; Makes two hearts have the same goal, And tho' we're of dust a part, True love binds us heart to heart.

Of poor mortals a things of clay, E'er prefering Night to Day, Love's a thing of joy for aye; Aud to fond hearts, loving words Sweeter are than songs of birds. But, oh when we love and find That we investigate been blind, That the idol we ve cushrined In our soul of souls, is false, Then it seems our life-march halts, Then we see fiends dance and waitz.

Then, as from sweet dreams we wake, Then our heads grow wild and ache, Then it scons the heart must brake; And with hearen-ward lifted oye, In our souls we pray to die ! Vain !--- up soul and no'er despair, To eternal life thou'rt hoir; Vertical form of the second se

Yet, the you unlearn to love, Jlate not.—tor thy God above Iluth commanded.—oh, love yo If ye would be loved by me, If ye would my children be.

If ye would more parts to die, For that were implicity, For that were implicity, For that were implicity, for that food thy nice did give, And thy mission is to live. If you can't forget—forgive Those who're wronged you while you live; And e're love or life a corse They will writhe in soul remorse; And in remns they "I see dread hosts Of infernal, hendish ghests!

of infernal, hendish ghests! Then and now-then and now, Like all christian souls do thou Ever to God's judgments bow; Life is ever gan and loss, Life is ever gan and loss, Life is ever gan and loss, Highted troth and lover's vow Fatse and true are "then and now;". Build not dols made of clay, For such idols findle away; If thy idols faithless grown, (such is love on this earth-zone.) Then, without one sigh or groan-Dash it from the hearts high throas!

written for tho Spy.

My Dreams have all Vanished!

AT TIMLET JOHNSON. 1. My dreamy have all vanished, My hopes all have field; Like the Layes of the antimm, They he withered and dead; Simbon, thou false maiden, Thou yet mayest tool The pang of the iron, The tance of the steel. The tance of the steel. The lines of the steel. The lines of the Winter, With branches all bare; Are hopetally waiting For summer's pure air; So I though now stricken By columess and scorn; Shall hope for the coming Of love's golden morn. Thou alluring coqueto; Thou alluring coqueto; Thou stillaring contend of loan on the sea; My memory is failing Forever from me.

you-you should be glad to get what I hath a calling, hath an office of profit give you-could do without you easily- and of honor; but then ones trade must only keep you to give you employment, be worked at, and the tailing followed, &c., &c. !' or neither the estate or the calling will Really, I am almost ashamed of my enable us to pay our takes. If we are industrious, it is said, "we shall never own race when I look around me and behold the selfish, miserly and almost inhustarve; for at the working-man's house man robbery in which some of our wouldhunger looks in but dares not enter." be aristocratic employees seem to take a He that from small beginning has dedelight! May the God of the laboring servedly raised himself, by his daily toil, man shower his endless blessing upon him to the highest stations, may not always now in this his time of need ; and, in due find satisfaction in the possession of his season, deal a just retribution upon the object, that he anticipated in the pursuit of it. But although he may be dismiserly, and scornful aristocrat! appointed, the community are benefited,

"Come hither, ye that press your beds of down, And sleep not. See him sweating o'er his bread, Before he cats it... Tis the primal course, But soften'd into Mercy : made the pledge Of cheerful Days, and Nights without a groan. Benjamin Franklin remarked that Sloth made all things difficult-but Industry all easy"-no truer words ever escaped the lips of man-"he that riseth late must trot all day, and shall scarce overtake his business at night; while Laziness travels so slowly, that Poverty soon overtakes him." Toil ! toil ! toil !---And this is not all. There are others, perhaps as dependent as the laboring man-I need not mention their capacity-the reader may judgethey may be, forsook, only dependent in one way-upon the generosity of their many friends and acquaintances-if they are legion-and patronize them-then they are safe, otherwise they are discorded, no matter how honest or attentivethey are not needed. It is useless to disguise Lallude to the salesmon, it mat-ters not in what department of trade or merchandizing, he meets the same fite, of course, they are isolated cases, when he is encouraged, and raised to a proper level with the employee, even to the possession of an interest in the establishment -but it is seldom recorded. I have known instances where young men of this class have been given a "yellow envelope," because they have been made the dupes of "shoppers," when in truth, they've been strictly attentive honest and industrious, while less deserving have won favor and been retained-aye, been "excellent, and effectual salesmen, attends so and so to my interest, and with such a business capacity; (of so true;

first by his exertions, and secondly, by The soft evening twilight is charming to his example ; for, it has been well observed, that the public are served not by Korthen energing lass 1 love them to gaze. what the Governor, or Mayor feels who ovice raise.

For The Spy.

rides in the coach, but by what the Apprentice Boy feels while looking at him. Baltimore, Md, Feb. 10, 1864.

> HARRISBURG, Feb. 9th, 1864. Since Mayor Roumfort issued his proc lamation prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquors to soldiers, our city is in a quiet condition. Many of the soldiers and new recruits, who imbibed too freely in intoxicating beverage, have been victims of thieves and pick-pockets. Men who injudiciously exhibit their money, drink until they become oblivious, and then "lie around loose," do not deserve much sympathy when robbed. There are scores of thieves, some of them "lewd women of the been cont from that of the watch for such converting of the der, and they have plied their vocation quite successfully for several weeks past. Some singular developments were reon the river bank near the water house, in this city. The substance of which is as follows: A man by the name of Strawbridge, a workman at the rolling mill, was found with his head cut and other and the coal region in Huntingdon and injuries inflicted upon his person, from Bedford counties, I am satisfied as to its the effects of which he died, and the inf- practicability, and no one can, for a mo fair has remained a profound secret until She stated that on a Saturday night, of your town and country, and in fact along there is any exact analogy to be found were being plundered. November, 1862, she was walking on the your town and country, and in fact along anythere in the metropolitan world. In they did not touch the baggage train which, perhaps, the employee never had a fair chance to judge) I really wouldn't river bank with a soldier. a short distance part with him for the world, couldn't from the water house they met the depossibly get any one to fill his place,ceased, when the soldier struck him on would rather tribble his salary than lose the head, with a weapon of some kind, him!" and, even with this, ten chances which prostrated him to the earth, he to one, if he is then paying him enough then rifled his pockets and threw him to board and clothes him decently, and down the bank into the river, as she suphe is made to understand that he is not posed. After committing the act, the worth the sum he receives ; "merely kept soldier made the woman take a solemn because times are hard," and perhaps, oath never to reveal what had happened. he'd not get another place if out of em-Recently this woman became sick, and ployment, "no one in these times are in when made fully conscious of her condiwant of help," and believing this, he tion, exhibited signs of great mental agthinks it folly in himself to leave his sitony, she said she could not die without uation. Who can blame him? we are revealing a terrible secret that had been all-aware "the times are very trying" to of action. long treasured in her mind; the substance of which I have already stated. Such is the rascality practiced by fiends in human form. 🖃 west, He's folded the daylight around his bright breast, He has moved to the earth his parting farespell.

The stars have appeared in heaven's fair blue, And the moon sheds her beams so fair, yet

The evening winds whisper in voices quite things into consideration. Should this discusion. low,— And shadows are flitting in my room to and fro. The dew-drops are resting on each blossom

And delicate perfume floats on the night air, And each tiny blado of grass of bright green, Is decked with a jewel the fairest I've seen.

For then cherished faces I often do see:

Written For the Spy.

Clara Lee. BY WILLIE WARE. 'Moved she 'mid the happy throng, Clara Lee, Strongly thriling was her song, Clara Lee, Eyes had she of heaven's own blue, Shone they brightly as the dow-Clara Lee.

your paper of the 30th ult., in reference to a new Railroad route from some point "usur Columbia or the mouth of Conewa go creek, to run westwardly, by the most practicable route, to the Broad Top coal fields. As a great friend to all public improvements of this kind, I will, with bed, in relation to a man who was found your permission, give my views in regard to the construction of a railroad as stated > ago. From the knowledge I have of the country intervening between your place ment, doubt the beneficial results that must necessarially ensue, should the entioned made the following statement:- terprise be put into execution. The ple. Indeed, we doubt whether, for cer- holders, who thrust the muzzles, under She stated that on a Saturday night, of movement is of paramount importance to tain characteristics which distinguish us, the noses of their victims whilst they upon the route, cost, &c., of the railroad purpose of everybody to be paramount, which is spoken of, to extend from near generally kills the best schemes which your place to the coal region. There is may-be-devised for a community.--And on all the earth rests night mystic another route worthy of the attention of What might be'readily accomplished for those interested, by way of Dillstown, the general welfare by combination of which perhaps would cest less, but may means and unanimity of will, is fendered not be the most practicable, taking all impracticable or abortive by division and road be built by way of Gettysburg it In this city of half a million of people, would ere long be extended to Waynes- we have the fact illustrated in an emiboro', and into one of the finest and rich. | nent degree. Individualism in all public : est valleys in the State. Thus, apart from undertakings is the dominant power, : any other interest, the people may have and it has, in everything relating to our in the road, I think that they should be commercial condition especially, produce able to see that the investment made in ed its natural fruits in social weakness, the stock of such a company would be a stagnation and provincialism. - We have profitable one. That section of country achieved some creditable works, it is produces a large amount of grain, and true; but it has been in spite of our want hey have flouring mills of the largest of that generous, sagacious, self-forget. capacity converting it into flour. This ting metropolitanism, which is the prime a road, if built, would draw an immense element in the greatness of every reallyamount of produce over the road, and prosperous and imperial city of the therefore make it one of the best roads world. ....

Rebel Highway Robbers.

Stoppage of a Railway Train-Reb-", "bery of Passengers. 1 1.50 ..........

and Connellsville Railroad, and the The rumor that prevailed in the city Hempfield road, and thus obtaining a yesterday of a train on the Baltimere, and Ohio. Railroad having been, robbed, by guerillas turns to be well founded. The train, which last. Baltimore at 6 through route, by the former, to Pittsburg and the North-West, and by the latter to Wheeling, and thus connect with the Central Ohio, running to Cincinnati o'clock on Thursday svening reached, and St. Louis. It would require but a moved on towards. Martinsburg, having short time to ascertain the actual cost of a road from Columbia to the Broad. Top Coal Region. Yourseleniv.

the train encountered a nile of sails on into fact, and interest a nile of sails on off, but going at a now proof as dam, age was done.

As soon as the train was stopped a rowd of armed. Rebels, about forty in number-surrounded it and took posses sion of the passenger cars. They then went around and searched and robbed The following extract from the Phils each passenger, commanding each to delphia Evening Telegroph with a few "stand and deliver" their watches, pock-amendments is so applicable to the me et books and other valuables." The work ly, with all the grace and sang froid; of experienced highwaymen. Even their, pocket-knives and tooth-picks did not escape the plunderers. Those who did In some things wo are a peculiar peo, the robbing were accompanied by pistol

'Mong hôf locks of curling hair, Clara Loc, Amid thy blooming flowers rare, Clara Loc All her hear's young joys had fied, And Hop.'s and Lovo's bright flowers dead, Clara Loc. For the Spy. Railroad. MR. EDITOR :-- I read an article in or proposed in your paper a few weeks

The following editorial from the "Phil adelphia "Telegraph," with the accompanying note was handed us for publication':

temptation to have it published.

A Local Trait.

ridian of Columbia that I cannot resist the is said to have been done most thorough in the country for our eastern citics .----

Should this road, ever be made by Gettysburg, the prospect would be of ultimately, connecting with , the. Pittsburg

Coal Region. Nours fruly,

New Oxford, Feb. 12, 1864.

DR. A. S. MILLER DR. A. S. MILLIZZ, SURGEON DENTIST, offers his profes-bia and vicinity. OFFICE on Front street, fourth door above Locust, office formerly occupied by J. Z. Hoffer. Columbia, Dec. 19, 1803.-19. H. M. NORTH, A TTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW Columbia, Pa. L. Columbia, Pa. Collection: promptly made in Lancaster York countie Cola., July 4, 1803.

BED BUG DESTROVE. BED BUG DESTROYE. MADE by J. Rumple. No humbug.— It is made a powder, and will not soil the bed clothing, if it does not prove satisfactory the money will be rofunded. For sale at the store of J. RUMPLE, & SON. the store of July 4, '63.

SALTI SALTI

JUST received by the subscriber, at their store in Locust street below Second, 100 Bags Ground Alum Salt, which will be sold at the lowest market prices. J. RUMPLE & SON. Cola. July 4, 1863.

LADIES TAKE NOTTICE !

YOUR attention is specially called to the very handsome and choice varieties of dry goods we have just received. For sale at very low prices. STEACY & BOWERS, Opposite Odd Fellows' Hall, Columbia,

IRON AND STEEL!

THE subscribers have received a new and large stock of all kinds and sizes of Bar Iron and Steel. They are constantly supplied with stock in thits branch of his business, and can farnish it to customers in large or small quantities, at the lowest rates J. RUMPLE & SON, Locust street below Second, Columbia, Pa. July 4, 1863.

STONE CHINA, QUEENSWARE AND

STONE CHINA, QUEENSWARE, AND GLASSWARE, AVE have received as large stock, of Din-nar, Tea and Toiles Serie. In great wartery. Having mide large purchases for Cash prior to the late advance on Cold and Ec-change, we are embled to offer goods much below the current rates they are hold at in this market. Please give us a call before purchasing elsewhere, as we know we can effar you some Real Bargains. STEACY & BOWERS, Corner of Second and Locust streets, Col'a, Jan. 23, 1844. Columbia, Pr.

NOTICE.

Farewell, thou falso hearted. 1 shall conquer my pain; And enter the battle, To win love again; And never, no, never. Studiuse thought be cost. On the shadowy vision That clouded the past. Ariginal. Written for the Spy. TOIL! BY JAMES S. WATKINS.

> It has been said that "bodily Labor of bodily pleasure need to be counteracted by the invigorating exercises of bodisome, yet, there are thousands who are ly Labor; whereas bodily Labor without doubly benefitted by the change, and bodily Pleasure converts the body into a among them this very merchant, to him mere machine and brutifies the scul. alone he makes, the appeal; he does not Toil! toil! toil! What a terrible thing heed it, 'tis the way of the world and we it is to be dependent !--- and more partiecannot wonder.

> man of strictly good morals, perfectly cers were duly elected: temperate, and strictly upright in his dealings; his employer seems pleased The laboring man, the mechanic, the hard working mechanic. seems to be the with him, makes him an offer, so much, W. Foster; Secretary, G. F. Weaver, jr. one most to be looked after. There has provided, your sales amount to such a been a time when the mechanic was apsum, he accepts, then are all his energies parently independent-when thousands put forth, every nerve is at once strainhad more than they could perform-and ed to accomplish the desired point; he is bill on the Bank of Gettysburg has just rapidly excelling ; but, alas ! he is doom- been issued. It is of the denomination Labor was quoted a premium : but, alas! ed to disappointment. "Just my luck !" of $20. It is so well executed that the the wheel of Time in its 'onward career, has brought us down to the sad reality we imagine we hear from his lips, as he best judges are apt to be taken in by it, turns aside to almost despair. We en- the vignette being pasted on the centre that it is no longer so, but at a terrible discount-few have permanent employ- quire his ailment, and are informed he of the note. The signatures on the about $25,000, not including the bridge benefit of the many. He clings to the ment, and even such as are fortunate has been a little too obliging, and has be- counterfeits are W. G. M'Pherson, enough to find a job, though perhaps they come the prey of just a certain class, he cashier, and R. Smith, President, dated may toil as hard as ever, receive but a has been too much of a gentleman to turn 1845; while the genuine are signed by an instrumental examination. It is a must always be assorted, though the conpitiable pittance for their services; as away from them; and consequently is G. Swope, President, and T. D. Carson, true is Heaven, in some places and in- continuously beset by them with "show Cashier .-- Har. Tel. stances, receive scarcely enough to keep me this, a sample of that, how perfectly soul and body together ! Many families genteel ! I declare, I've a mind to do !"

INOTICE. W HEREAS, Lettors of Administration of the Borough of Marietta, County of Lan-caster, deceased, have been granted to the subscriber. All persons indebted to subdi-the same will present them duly authonti-the same will present them duly authonti-the same will present them duly authonti-cated for settlement, to RACHEL SMEI.TZER. Marietta, Jan. 16, 1953-5t Adm'x.

The Democrats of the first ward held a meeting, on last Saturday evening, and organized a club, to be called the "M'Clel-Yet another case-we have a young lan Club, No 1," when the following offi-

> President, G. F. Weaver: Vice Presidents, Wm. H. Bleekner, P. Stucker, L. P. C.

New COUNTERFEITS .--- A counterfeit

For the Spy. Riddle. To nothing add an old sheep, and the

To the beginning of all fun, add fifty. The head of Adam, and the tail of a dog.

The Post office Department is now anywhere in the metropolitan world. In the whole line, and to the cities of Phil. anywhere in the metropolitan world. In or Adams express car, and whon they adelphia and Baltimore, and the more those respects this community is emphat had finished their work with the passen distant towns and cities. I have fre-ically sui generis. Let us notice one of gers, mounted their horses and left-quently thought of such a project, and I these specialities. If a Philadelphian The locomotive was soon put upon, the hope that the opportunity will not be mis- subscribes ten, or twenty, or even the track and proceeded on to Cumberland. improved now, since the matter has been enormous sum of one hundred dollars toa Baltimore American.

started, otherwise it must prove a source fund of one or two millions, to start, a of much regret and a just cause for re- steam-ship line, to build a railroad, or to flection, hereafter, upon those who have initiate any similar enterprise, he is sure altimo, contains the following: failed to discharge their whole duty in to imagine that he is the company.

that the most feasible route would be in this manner is generally found to stand barren isle have lost, recently, their fafrom Wrightsville to York, Gettysburg in an inverse proportion to his actual inand Chambersburg. - Well, you have a vestment. The smaller his interest in the guard that the Yankees caught, friroad already to York, and from York tap the concern, the greater his arrogance. cassed and eat them! And that, more-the Geitysburg road at New Oxford. On a single share of stock he will make over, the Yankees have begged some oit-There appears to be a natural route from more speeches at a corporation meating, Horrible !. We are advised off we doubt York to this place, by Abbottstown. I assert his opinions with more assurance. made a survey, a few years ago, from and claim to exercise more influence, visit the island and taken; dog along, and New Oxford to York, by way of East than any twenty members who may own; we will come away alone and convinced. Berlin, also one from Abbotistown to New four-fifths of the entire-means of the as-Oxford, and the cost from the latter place sociation.

a fraction over, but less than that distance and his motto is "rule or ruin." He has of beef, bread, potatoes and soup furnishto where it would intersect with the Get no idea of that wise principle of law and ed them from the Commissary Departtysburg railroad, and the cost for grading business economy which would sink his the four miles would be, at this time, personality in the body politic. ' He canadding for the increase of wages, &c., not conceive the necessity of a delegation another animal of a like nature ... In the $7,000, and from Abbottstown to York of authority-to a few for the common above case it is 'dog cat dog perhaps." across the Codorus at York. I have altra democratic doctrine that sovereigntraveled over this route, but never made ty resides in the individual, and that it thing is very clearly proved by it, to wit: beautiful valley for a railroad from York sequences may be inevitable confusion the Union prisoners at Richmond are

From New Oxford to Gettysburg there this absurdity only exasperates him. is already a road in operation, deven He will not understand that one head, miles long, and in a very good condition. if it be a good and honest head, is better From Gettysburg, the graded portion of than a hundred, where unity of counsel can also be mean enough to south and the old "tape worm" would come in use. is essential to direct wisely and efficiently mock at the sufferings of their victime.

up is all that would be required. From tell him that one pilot who knows the have been in the habit of stealing the ed-a point on the old read, about six miles rocks and shoals of a river is a safer man itors wood will be the stealing the ed-The Post once Department is now a point on the old road, about six miles rocks and shoals of a river is a safer man itor's wood, will please take know it between the safet and the beling the beling

1 2 1

بارم و تو مو دان

Dog Meat for Union Prisoners. The Richmond Examiner of the 28th

"WARNING TO:DOGS -- According to this all important project. It strikes me that every one should carefully examine the matter and act accordingly, and en-deavor to secure, for this noble enter-the matter and act accordingly and en-deavor to secure, for this noble enter-the matter and act accordingly and en-deavor to secure, for this noble enter-the matter and act accordingly and en-deavor to secure for this noble enter-the matter and act accordingly and en-deavor to secure for this noble enter-the matter and act accordingly and en-deavor to secure for this noble enter-the matter and act accordingly and en-the matter and act accordingly and enprise, an immediate and effective concert the corporation, and claim to embody it and this our correspondent knows from completely in his own proper person .- facts that have come within his know-Mr. Editor, in your article you think In fact, his capacity to magnify himself ledge. Several gentlemen on that long vorite heel companions, and our correspondent affirms that it is well known to the statement of our correspondent to to Abbottstown, which is four miles, or What he aspires to is supreme control; fer a steak of canine meat to the rational ment by the prison officials it is their liking, not ours. Some animals of a car nivorous nature rather like the fiesh of Despite the brutal buffooney of the writer of this characteristic article, one > and disaster. To reason with him on true. The Rebel editor has let out more than he designed letting-out, in his article, and he has also proved that men orusl enough to starve prisoners of war to this place.

· /* * * *