

E. K. BOICE, Ticket Agent.

Dr. Wishart's Pine Tree Tar Cordial is an infaillable cure for Bonchilis, Bloeding of the Lungs, Sore Throat and Heast, In-flamation of the Lungs. W. C. BAILWAY. YORKANDWRIGHTSVILLE R. R The trains from Wrightsville and York will run as follows, until further orders: Leave Wrightsville, 7 30 A. M. 1 00 P. M. 7 30 P. M. 6 30 A. M. 12 10 P. M. 4 30 P. M. Leave York Departure and Arrival of the Passenger Trains at York. DEPARTURES FROM YORK. BALTINOBE, 4.15 A. M., 8.30 A. M. For BALTINORE, 4.15 A. M., 8.30 A. M., and 2.50 P. M. For HARRISBURG, 12.00 noon, 6.19 P. M. ARRIVALS AT YORK. From BALTIMORE, 11.55 A. M., 6.15 P. M. and 12.32 A. M. From HARRISBURG, 4.10 A. M., 8.25 A. M., and 2.45 P. M. Read the following from Utica : • M., MIG 2.45 F. M. On Sanday, the only trains running are the one from Harrisburg at 8.25 in the morn-ing, proceeding to Baltimore, and the one from Baltimore at 12.28 A. M., proceeding to Harrisburg. DR. WISHART--Dear Sir: I take pleas-ure in informing you through this source that your Pino Tree Tar Cordisl, which was récommended for my daughter by Dr. J. A. Hall, of this city, has cured her of a cough of more than five months' standing I had thought her beyond cure, and had employed the best of medical aid without any banefit. I can cheerfully recommend it to the public as a safe and sure remedy for those similarly afficied, es I know of many other cases besides that of my daugh-tor that it has entirely cured of long stand-ing coughs. Yours respectfully, Daugerrean Artist 126 Genessee St., Utica. * • • • • I have used Dr. Wishart's a aloud. DR. WISHART-Dear Sir : I take pleas DR. HOFFER. DEWIST. OFFICE, Front Siret uext down to R. Williams' Drug Store, between Locust and Walnut sts, Cola., Pa. Apr. H. B. ESSICK, ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW. COLUMBIA. PA. • • • • • I have used Dr. Wishart's Pine Tree Tar Cordial in my family, and can cordially recommend it as a valuable and safe medicine for colds, coughs, and thoso predisposed to consumption. . Dr. G. A. FOSTER, 160 Genessee St. LADIES' DRESS GOODS ! N EW Stock just received. We have some cheap bargains. STEACY & BOWERS, Opposite Odd Fellows' Hall, Col'a, Pa. November 28, 1863. The above are a few among the thous-ands which this great remedy has saved from an untimely grave. DR. A. S. MILLER, OURCEON DENTIST, offers his profes-Science to the citizens of Colum-bia and vicinity. OFFICE on Front street, fourth door above Locust, office formerly occupied by We have thousands of letters from physi cians and druggists who have proscribed and sold the Tar Cordial, saying that they have never used or sold a medicine which Z. Hoffer. Columbia, Dec. 19, 1863.-1y. rave such universal satisfaction.

Mr. Ward says : A Mailing (all a)

The Tar Cordial, when taken in connec-tion with Dr. Wishart's Dyspepsia Pills is an infallible cure for Dyspepsia.

The PINE TREE TAR CORDIAL wil

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.

Price Fifty Cents and One Dollar per Bot is. Prepared only by the Proprietor, phia Pennsylvania.

DR. L.Q. C. WISHART

Sold by Druggista everywhere, at Whole a single night. Ohi görgeous, bub lamentable sight 1 With what a raging speed did-the white flames, do their work: The spirit of fire was let loose, and it was not in the power of man to lay it, until it had done its

the house all ablaze fatreat cut off by estate had been sold to the honey tions all ordinary means sets a holpless girl, bewildered by fear. Lost 1 lost 1 surely tered away into many hands, and seemed lickar payer again to be gathered togeth er in the possession of a Scott. The flames were gathering strength.-They saw her clasp her hands in agony.

There was a nominal owner it is true.

that which I came to say. likely never again to be gathered togeth- a mind to send you to your account first. I am strong, hearty, but hold-stop"-he beneath the root of the farm of, us broth-"Now, by all that is detastible, I have mind to send you to your account first. were speaking of the fire which had made them houseless, when a phenomenon took was speaking to an empty space-she was place that attracted all eyes. Down the

TTORNET AND COUNSELLOS AT LAW

Columbia, Pa. Collections promptly made in Lancaster

Cola., July 4, 1882.

. .

SAVE YOUR MONEY.

cure Coughs, Sore Throat and Breast, Bron-chitis, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Dipthe-ria, and is all also an excellent remedy for the diseases of the kidneys, and female com-B at had lowist osah prices, at the New Store of plaints. Corsman.19,'64. MALTBY & CASE.

WANTED.

The genuine has the name of the propietor and a Pine Tree blown in the bott All others are spurious imitations. EVERY ONE to know that the way to Exave money, is to buy your goodsait the Check Store of Maltby & Case. A general assortiment of Spring Goods just received. Col'aimar.19. MALTBY & CASE.

ILON AND STEEL!

The subscribers have received a new The diar ge stock of all kinds and sizes of Baylinon and Stoel. The yarp constant-ty simplied with stock in this branch of his No. 10 NORTH SECOND Street, Philadel J. supplied with stock in this branch of his maness, and can furnish it to can a tomers tlargeor small quantities, at the lowest tlargeor small quantities, at the lowest Locust st., below Becond, Collar, Pa. July 4, 1958.

۰.

their worst forms : I had been treated by several of the most eminent physicians in Philadelphia, but they could not stop the rapid course of my disease, and I had de-spaired of ever being rostored to health.-I was truly on the verge of the grave. Your I was truly on the verge of the grave. Your mended to me by a friend ; I tried it, and am thankful to say that, after using four large, and one small bottle. I was restored me thankful to say that, after using four large, and one small bottle, I was restored to perfect health. You can give reference to my house, No. 968 N. Second street; or at my office of Raceiver of Taxes. from 9 a. m. to²p. m., corner of Chefautand Sixth streets. JOHN WARD. many a lip. And now with a rush over hedge and ditch, and fence and style, come friends aloud One blazing rick had inclined towards a pretty green house, not far from the homestead, and the flames began to circle around the house itself. Then it was those he loved better than his stacks and ricks were yet within the walls of that once happy and prosperous house. His its centre, and Charles half fell, half slid wife; his child; his dear daughter Irene, down the lower end to the ground again. the belle of the village-his gentle and beautiful Irene, who was the joy of his heart and the pride of his life. "Help ! help !" he shouted. "Up and out. Wife, Irene come out."

of his house, but it was not to be that William Stoops should rescue 'God I'' time worn porch of the farm house was wrapped in to pass it, it fell with a sudden crash, and and dashing to and fro wildly, was the struck him down to the ground amid its young girl. She had not falles with the struck him down to the ground and its young grit. Such as not not inter with the ball of the old massion. The rains. Of course the alarm hud reached those who were in the house. Mrs. Stoops had, with that nervous haste that defeats its own object, been dressing and undressing herself, and calling loud apon irene from the moment that her hus-window sill, while fit frame raged be-all the worn and jaded look of a thorsenan was band, who had hastily thrown a few ar- neath her.

ascended it "Courage, Irene, I an here."

sale by all Philadolphia and New York Wholesale Druggists. mar.19-94-1 y. screen a corridor of the old farm house to her daughter's room.

of "Charles" was borne to their ears .---Was that name a spell? It would seem the place, but left it to the wind and the

Dashing forward, with an energy that set all obsticles at defiance—a young man

-little more than a mere youth, appeared upon the scene of action. His hair he hung in wild disorder about his finely chiselled face, and there was a bright sparkle about his dark and lustrous eyes that was terrible to look upon. "Irene ! Irene !" he cried, "I am here Yours in death as well as life.

"Hold !-are you mad ?" cried a voice as Charles was about to plunge into the house, and a strong arm was flung around his waist.

"Hands off, Finley Clayton. I know you mean well, but by the heavens above

"Wait! A ladder is better."

Some half-dozen of the farm hands appeared at this moment, bringing with them a tall ladder, and with a sudden exertion of strength, Charles Handy placed it against the front of the house. There was a loud and ringing cheer o encouragement to the young man, as he set his foot on the first round of the ladthat the farmer lost all thought of his der to ascend. Another moment he was which, for a few moments only, had bee exposed to the flames, bent and broke in

A roaring sound in the house, and a loud report followed. The flooring of the upper chamber had fallen in, and surely Irene was lost! Who could save her?

With a rush he crossed the threshold Charles looked up, he exclaimed:

Holding by the window sill her fair About two hours before the first streak face faintly visible above it her long of the new dawn appeared in the east; a hase he loved on that occasion, for the fiames, and as he sttempted tresses floating out into the night sir, s it, it fell with a sudden crash, and and dashing to and fro wildly was the making his way by a bridle path through him down to the ground amid its young girl. She had not falles with the stanged kind of wood, which had once

The other ladder was raised in an inticles of clothing upon him, had rushed out at the first alarm, and now, with just stant, and Charles flowing it rather than sufficient garments to enable her to face the night air, Mrs. Stoops made her way "Your own Oharle a gambling debt. He never came near tors did so. Die ! No, I have work to do.

that spurious kind of boldness of the skeptic and fatalist. He had come from Co-

A very strange effect ensued in regard umbus to Mount Hope on an errand that to the old mansion, for, as the throng might well have shaken his human soul persons assembled at the fire looked at i to its foundations : but he was braving it they saw that just for one instant, and in out-braving heaven and earth-fearing rapid succession, there appeared at every nothing, and believing nothing. window of the house, a pale, green, spec-tral looking light. This light passed from window to window, apparently at in the darkness which was about him, and lismounting from his horse he walked on, the same rate of progression. A death with the bridle on his arm. About ten like stillness came over all who witnessed minutes walking brought both steed and man to some half broken down iron hurthe phenomenon. They had seen it be fore, but let them see it as often as they dles. One of these he easily removed, would, it always affected them with a superstitious fear, and the haunting of the ionse at Mount Hope was an established fact all over that portion of the country. There was one person who turned aside and did not look at the old mansion. fusion.

That person was Charles Handy, an there was upon his face a flush of embar resument as he said :

"Disregard it, Irene-it is a delusion Time will come I hope-it will comevhen-when-oven I-

"What would you say, Charley ?"

patted the animal, as he said : "Nothing, oh, nothing. Hush; not word to your father or mother. There is a mystery I but half, as yet, fathom myself.

CHAPTER II.

dred feet balow the surface of the earth's The long mournful night succeeding level will suffice to Hide it. It must be the conflagration of the farm woreslowly away; and the cold grey light of a Sep Inarles looked up, he exclaimed: "She lives !---she lives ! "Oh, thank place at the old descried house, that we with his hands, as he went along he was place at the old descried house, that we with his hands, as he went along he was along he with his hands, as he went along he was along he with his hands, as he went along he was along he was along he was along he was along he with his hands, as he went along he was a After walking slowly along by the foot Another ladder was brought, and as ing ruins, but ere the night had faded off of the new dawn appeared in the east; a constraint of a small arched door in the wall, he of quicksilver to another,) nor smallilate of a small arched door in the wall, he of quicksilver to another, nor smallilate of a small arched door in the wall, he of quicksilver to another, nor smallilate of a small arched door in the wall, he of quicksilver to another, nor smallilate of a small arched door in the wall, he of quicksilver to another, nor smallilate of a small arched door in the wall, he of quicksilver to another, nor smallilate of a small arched door in the wall, he of quicksilver to another, nor smallilate of a small arched door in the wall, he of quicksilver to another, nor smallilate of a small arched door in the wall, he of quicksilver to another, nor smallilate been a portion of the old massion. The ble, turned the rested bolts of the look, but it was mu past the prime of hinges. Passing through, he restored the bolt of the blasing throm. Developments work upon him, and he had look for he thought--surely it was a stand still.

.....

all the worn and jaded look of a thorough he paused, for he thought-surely it was A lady friend issaing invitations to a roue. The apparal of the horseman was but a thought that, and imagination was few select acquaintances to a supperparroue. The apparal of the horseman was but a thought that, and imagination was few select acquaintances to a supper par-as costly as the modern tasts of present playing the trick—ho thought that still ty, after expressing the usual compli-times would permit, and some half dozen diamonds, testified that their possessor had a goodly share of the world's wealth. About a stone's throw behind him role a survant, who was well mounted, and who 6 m tle to his lips and blew shrilly upon itthe place, but left it to the wind and the weather. It was towards, this house that Finley Clayton attracted general atten-tion. "There is the ghost light again," said if waiting directions from Henry. "" "The horse, the horse," he cried. "Track its course, and bring it in. A splendid animal, by heaven." The gypsies bounded off, and were soon lost to sight, apparently in a direction at right angles to that which the horse was taking.

He seemed to knowhis route well, even TO BE CONTINUED.

A Wonderful Discovery.

The stone-masons engaged in laying the foundation of the new blacksmith she at the Rolling Mill of Wood, Morrell of dies. One of these he assid into what had once been an orchard of the mansion, but which was now in a state of wildness and con-fusion. "Now what fools these rustics are of no visible out let. As soon as it fell out this neighborhood to allow themselves to it began to manifest symptoms of life, and be frightened by a parcel of old women's before one hour, it was as large, plump be frightened by a parcel of old women's before one nout, is a solution in the second and lively as any other frog. It appears, tales about ghosts, and omit to seek out however, to be blind at present; but a tales about ghosts, and omit to seek out interively as any other hog. It appears a the mystery. Well, be it so—it is better however, to be blind at present; but as the sit is." He paused, and tiod the bridle of his sight. The roak from which it was taken horse to the low branch of a tree, and he was quarried from some of the spure of the spure of the source of the Fanny, wait. I have no need to be long when the Pennsylvania canal was con-about the work I am about to do. The structed, and built in a wall, where it about the work 1 am about to do. The second, the second till a few days ago, when it was and that will keep a secret, if two hun- removed to be put in the foundation be-dred fact balow the surface of the earth's fore mentioned. Johnstown Democrat. and that will keep a sourcet, if two hun-

A Luminous Vister

Look out for the next comet 1 .- Prof. Newmags, of Australia, says we may are post a visit from one of those immense luminaries next year. As a pleasant al-ternative, he asserts that "it will come so close as to endanger the earth, and should Passing his hand slowly down the edge, it not attach itself to us (as one globule

. **$.