For the Spy.

QUESTION.—A flock of Pigeons passed over Kentucky, one mile in breadth and two hundred and fifty miles long, and numbering at least 2,000,000,000. Now admitting each weighed 8 oz., how many wagons would it take to haul them, each loading 2 tons,—also, how far would they reach if in one row, allowing 40 feet to each wagon? MAGNET.

The nearest relative of George Washington, now living, holds an important position in the rebel army, and the oldest son of Zachary Taylor is also a leader in the enemy's ranks.

The Venango Citizen, of this week, informs us that a new vein of oil has been struck on the Allegheny river, near Oil City, and that the well was flowing from seven to eight hundred barrels per day. The property along the Allegheny river, between Franklin and Oil City, is rapidly being taken up and developed.

SINGULAR INCIDENT.—While the State Fair was in full progress on Monday evening a singular incident occurred. The windows of the picture gallery had been lowered to give fresh air in the room when suddenly a beautiful white pigeon came sailing into the room and alighted on the picture of "Hester Reading the Scriptures." It seemed so well pleased with its position that it remained there until the close of the evening, when it was secured by Mr. Ewalt, who has it in charge. It will be raffled for during the Fair, the proceeds of the raffle to go into the general fund. The pigeon like the dove, is considered as the harbinger of peace, and may not this beautiful incident claim its place amongst the strange occurrences of the times.—Clipper.

A CLERICAL BOY TAKEN.—The London Times contains an advertisement of a clericle Rarey. It is addressed to the unhappy parents of unmanageable boys or youths up to twenty years. The advertiser states that such rough colts are "made perfectly tractable and gentlemanly, in one year, by a clergyman, near town, of thirty years experience, whose peculiarly persuasive, high moral, and religious training, at once elevates children of peculiar tempers and disposition (because not understood)to the level of others.

EARLY RISING.—Happy is the man who is an early riser. Every morning day comes to him with a virgin's love, full of bloom and purity and freshness. The youth of nature is contagious, like the gladness of a happy child. We doubt if any man can be called old so long as he is an early riser and an early walker.—And (oh, youth! take our word for it) youth in dressing gown and slippers, dawdling over breakfast at noon, is a very decrepit, ghastly image of that youth which sees the sun blush over the mountains and the dew sparkling upon blossoming meadows.

Billings on Drafting.

There are some nice points in drafting operations which are extensively discussed in the red-ribon circles. The most lucid explanation of a few of these is given by Josh Billings:

Widder wimmin, and their only son iz xempt, provided the widder's husband has already served 2 years in the war and iz willing to go agin; i believe the supreme corte has decided this thing forever.

Once more: If a man should run away with his draft, he probably wouldn't ever be allowed to stand the draft agin; this looks severe at fust site but the more yu looked at it, the more yu can see the wisdom into it.

Once morely: Xempts are those who, have been drafted into the staitt prizzen for triing to git an honnist living bi supporting 2 wives at onst; also, all them people who are crazee and unsound on the goose; also nusepapers correspondents and fools in general.

Once morely agin: No substitute will be acksepted who is less than three or more than ten feet high; he must knb how to chaw tobacker and drink poor whiskee, and musn't be afeerd of the itch nor the rebels. Moral caracter ain't required as the government furnishes that and rashuns.

Conclusively: No person can be drafted but twice in two different plases without his consent; but all men has a right to be drafted at least onst; i don't think even a right of habeas corpus could deprive a man of this last blessed privilege.

A MAN at Poughkeepsie has a parrot fifty years old. It has been forty years in his family.

Remarkable Occurrence.

On Friday April 9th, Dr. M. Caldwell was called to see Mr. Frank Archey, residing on Chestnut street, beyond the old Catholic church. The Doctor found Mr. Archey suffering from severe hemorrhage from the nose, so severe that his friends thought him to be dying, and the Doctor himself considered it a very critical case. The usual remedies were applied to arrest the bleeding. Large doses of acids were given, and the hemorrhage was slightly arrested. A violent irritation of the stomach was soon visible, and an attempt to vomit was made. Something was discovered in the throat, and the Doctor immediately took therefrom a substance in a decomposed state, about six inches in length, resembling somewhat the tail of an ordinary snake. The hemorrhage at once ceased, and the patient appeared better. The next day the Doctor called and found the patient bleeding again, and unable to speak. The acid was again given, and the same irritation of the stomach produced. An effort to vomit was made, and Dr. Caldwell took from the patient's mouth, a substance, seven or eight inches in length, in a state of decomposition, resembling the remains of the organism of some reptile.

The substances thus disgorged, were immediately put into spirits for preservation, and upon subsequent examination, the evidence seemed undisputable that the remains of a large sized lizzard had been thrown from the patient's stomach! One webbed foot, with three toes, about 1¼ inches in length, with regular points, remained undecomposed, and was clearly discernable. Dr. Caldwell is of the opinion that the whole of this substance is the decayed organism of a lizzard. How the reptile was introduced into the stomach, and how it grew, and when it died, is not found in any book of natural history. Mr. Archey died in about two weeks after the reptile substance was taken from his throat. This remarkable specimen can be seen at Dr. Caldwell's office,—Intelligencer, Lockport, N. Y.

MORE TESTIMONY.

DR. MARKLEY'S

Family Remedies Triumphant.

They perform the most astounding cures.

READ! READ!!

BE PERMANENTLY CURED!

THE great superiority of Dr. Markley's popular and well tried family medicines is traced to the fact that they search out and eradicate the cause of disease, and hence never fail to effect a permanent cure. They not only restore tone to the digestive organs, imparting a healthy action to the stomach, liver and bowels, but they thoroughly purify the blood, thus permanently curing the disease by destroying the foundation.

A CASE IN POINT.

On the 27th of January, 1860, Mr. D. S. Moore, of Grampian Hills, Clearfield co., Pa., wrote that he was induced by the numerous testimonials he had seen of the cures effected by Dr. Markley's medicines, to apply in behalf of a sister, whose case he thus described:

"For the last six years she has been suffering from Scrofula and White Swelling. In 1854 she suffered severe pain in one of her legs, attended with swelling, which extended from the knee to the hip. In about two months it broke out and discharged, and has continued to do so until the present time. On one occasion a piece of bone three inches in length, and at another time one of a smaller size, came out. Her knee has been stiff for three years, and at times the pain is very severe. * * * * * * * *

AN ENTIRE CURE EFFECTED.

The medicines—the health restorative balsam and blood searcher, the Febrifuge and the Black Ointment were furnished, and the result of their use is announced in the following letter:

GRAMPIAN HILLS, Pa., Aug. 14, '63.

DR. MARKLEY—Dear Sir: I am happy to inform you that the medicines received from you some three years since have effected an entire cure in the case of my sister, who, you will remember, was suffering from Scrofula and White Swelling. Most respectfully, &c., D. S. MOORE.

DYSPEPSIA CURED.

Certificate of Mr. Abner D Campbell, of the firm of Campbell & Marshall, boot and shoe dealers, Centre Square, Lancaster:

LANCASTER, Pa., March 4, 1863.

DR. G. H. MARKLEY—Dear Sir: It affords me much pleasure to have an opportunity to add my testimony in favor of your popular family medicines, especially as my knowledge of their efficacy is based upon personal experience in my own case and observation of my neighbors. For many years I was the victim of Dyspepsia in its most aggravated form; my system having become so deranged and debilitated, that I was unable to perform any kind of labor. I had resorted to the best doctors within reach, without relief. I used some of the most popular remedies of the day, recommended for that disease, but none of them did me any good. My suffering can be understood by any one suffering from the same disease, but they could not be described in words. I was then living at Hopewell, Chester county, and in 1857, as a last resort, I commenced the use of your medicines. They soon afforded me relief from the most painful symptoms, which I had scarcely hoped to obtain; and in a surpassingly short time I was completely restored to health, and I have enjoyed the best of health ever since —not a symptom of my old complaint remaining. Since then I have always kept your medicines in my family, and would not be without them upon any consideration, as they have never failed to do what you claim for them.

While still living at Hopewell, I became agent for your father, and sold a large quantity of the medicine for him, and all who used them were loud in their praise. A child of Mr. Pickering, of Hopewell, was afflicted with White Swelling in the knee. It was a very bad case! He used your Balsam Febrifuge and Black Ointment, which effected a perfect cure. Numerous other cases of cures effected by your valuable remedies in that neighborhood, could be enumerated if desired. I have seen enough of them to justify me in saying that your family medicines are the best ever presented to the public, of which I have had any knowledge; and it is no less my pleasure than my duty to recommend them to all who are the victims of disease. Respectfully yours,

A. D. CAMPBELL.

This case is one of thousands which might be published. All who value their health, embracing always the newest styles remedies, and their cure will be complete and permanent.

Prepared only by Dr. G. H. MARKLEY, at his drug and medicine store, 23 East King street, Lancaster, Pa., to whom all letters and orders should be addressed.
