To Correspondents.
Communications, letters, contributions, generally of news interest, and of a general character, will be accepted from friends from all quarters.

F. D. J.—Asks us "who will stand the best chance for the White House at the next election, and if we were, perhaps, it would be as well to keep our opinion to ourselves. We see nothing "extraordinary" in the query, and therefore it ends the direct answer on this score, by the bye, by our friend on the other side of the water who is so good for publication and we have nothing to write to try again.

FELIX.—Enquires "who was La Belle Jeannette?" We will endeavor to inform you who this lady was. It was the name of a woman who was the love object of the late Charles L. in the year 1830 and the late Court of Charles L. in the year 1830, Feb. 25th, in a small private building on the corner of King St., Philadelphia, an aged lady was found in the morning, who had been out of her mind on the night previous. Her name was "La Belle Jeannette." See the Minutes of the Court of Charles L. in the year 1830.

MINNIE.—Your sketches are good, but we cannot publish them, as we are crowded with other matter, and will be for some weeks to come. We do not know of any circuitous manner of taking place—will you enlighten us on this point?—K.—Your letter, came to late for publication. A roll of the company has been published.

EARLY FRUIT.—Strawberries and Tomatoes have already appeared in Philadelphia, though not in any large quantities and at fabulous prices.

CIRCUS COMING.—Mrs. Charles Warner's great troupe will perform in this place on Monday afternoon and evening, the 23rd inst. This company still maintains its popularity, and is superior in many respects to other troupes; the entertainments given are of the highest order. See advertisement.

ORDERED TO REPORT FOR DUTY: Major General Parks who has been on a visit to his friends in Chester county, last week, received a telegraph dispatch from General Burnside, asking his immediate presence with his division. He left immediately, and is now, doubtless, on the road to Richmond.

HARPER.—Harper's Monthly Magazine for June has been out at the Book and Periodical Store of W. M. U. Hess. This is a matchless book, and the literary contents are excellent, embracing a wide range of subjects. Also Frank Leslie's Monthly for June, may be had at the counter, as above. Price ten cents.

INSTALLATION.—At a meeting of Hope Lodge, No. 8, I. O. G. T., of Columbia, the following officers were installed for the next term:—
P. W. C. T.—L. C. Oberlin; W. C. T.—Kozia Heasley; W. V. T.—S. W. Mittin; W. S. C.—H. P. Fisher; W. A. S.—T. L. Beveridge; W. T.—Mary Odell; W. F. S.—Rebecca C. Fisher; W. C.—C. P. Shreiner; W. I. G.—Bessie Wilford; W. O. G.—T. J. Wright; W. M.—John Clark; W. D. M.—James Knipe; W. R. H. S.—E. H. Eyde; W. L. H. S.—Joshua Soubrier.

COLUMBIA BRIDGE.—Workmen are now engaged at repairing the pier of the Columbia Bridge. They intend to make the Columbia and of the bridge considerably lower, so that locomotives can run on it without so much grade. They do not intend to do anything at the wood work at present, as it will take all summer to do masonry. The first span at each end and one or two spans about the middle will be iron. It will be covered bridge with railroad track, towing path, carriage ways, &c., and when completed it will be one of the finest structures in the country.

COLUMBIA FERRY.—Joseph H. Black the enterprising proprietor of the Columbia Ferry, has just opened tickets at half price, to persons who wish to visit church on either side of the river on Sunday. He also sells tickets good for 21 trips for $3.00, and 8 trip tickets for $1.00. They can be used by any member of the family.

The ferry boat runs so as to connect with all the trains at Columbia and Wrightsville.

THE 45TH REGIMENT.—The casualties in the 45th Regiment as far as we have heard, are as follows:
Lieut. Cyrus Bruner, wounded side.
Aid. Hoetter, wounded.
Reuben Ellis, do.
Samuel B. Swartz, killed.
George Hamer, wounded, since died.
These are all the names we have heard of up to this writing. There were one hundred and forty killed and wounded in the regiment, amongst which were six officers. It is said the regiment came up in gallant style, and fought nobly.

Since writing the above we have received a letter from the regiment, which will be found in another column giving a full account of the part they took in the battle.

CANDY.—The other day we were shown handsome candy, which was presented to St. J. K. Waltman, by members of his command, Co. G. 9th Pa. Cavalry. The candy is substantial and beautiful, made of hard wood, and surrounded by a finely colored head, bearing the following inscription:— "Presented to Capt. J. K. Waltman, his old and faithful comrade, the Greider Moulding Co., May 10th, 1864, as an appreciation of his services." The Captain dropped it to me, and I know he will ever remember my expression of esteem thus lavished upon him, by such a handsome present.

PLANT FLOWERS.—It is a true and trite saying that we should cultivate the beautiful, for the useful will attend to itself; and in these early days of summer, every one who owns a foot of fertile soil, or a rod of hedge, or a rod of hill-side, whereon to let a flowered trail or vine to clamber, should improve the present opportunity, so that when mid-summer comes these frail and fair colors may fling their fragrance to the air. No matter if you do not own the house or yard which you inhabit—still plant flowers and trailing vines, as well as to greet the passer-by, as for your own heart's sake. "Let the flowers look upward in every face, throughout the leaves whose blossoms gleam for dear as the smiles on an old friend's face, 'tis the loving gleam of bright-eyed flowers!"

HISTORY OF THE PENNA. RESERVE.—Mr. John M. Grider of Mountville, is canvassing Columbia and West Hempfield, for the above named history, which is about to be published by Elias Barr & Co. It will be a volume of 600 pages, octavo size, and neatly bound in black cloth, containing a full and complete account of the gallant achievements and patriotic self-devotion of the Reserves. We feel confident that the just pride which every Pennsylvanian must entertain for the brave men whose gallant achievements and patriotic self-devotion it records, will secure for this history a generous and appreciative reception. It contains a complete account of the Reserves, companies, regiments and brigades, descriptions of expeditions, marches, skirmishes, battles, &c., &c. J. R. Sypner, the New York Tribune's army correspondent is the author.

ACCIDENTALLY WOUNDED.—We regret to learn that Nathaniel Wike, of the 8th Missouri Regiment, was wounded by the accidental discharge of a gun in the hands of a soldier belonging to another company. He was lying in his tent at Larkensville, Ala., at the time of the accident. The ball went in near the shoulder and passed down his left side. His friends in Columbia will be sorry to hear this. His term of service expires in about two weeks. He has passed through all the important battles in the South-west, including Fort Henry, Fort Donaldson, Pittsburg Landing, Corinth, and the Siege of Vicksburg, and he accidentally wounded now is hard indeed. Dr. Warren McCleskey writes that he is now in the hospital and that he does not think the wound will prove fatal.

LECTURE.—The Rev. John Cromlish will deliver a lecture in Odd Fellows Hall, on Tuesday next, the 17th inst. Subject, Success. Admission fifty cents. The proceeds to be applied to the Fair for the UNITED STATES SANITARY COMMISSION. Let every one go and hear the lecture, for in doing so you add a noble cause. "The Commission" is doing all it can to relieve and save the men who have bravely fought and fell to save the nation. All the help you can give is needed. Too much cannot be done for these noble fellows. All you can give will be used immediately, wisely, and equitably, to save the lives of our brave and patriotic soldiers.

SEWING MACHINES.—In all recent inventions, experience is the true test of superiority. After years of the most thorough trial, the fact that the machines of the Grover & Baker Sewing-Machine Company pre-eminently surpass all others can not be disputed. The evidence of this is abundantly proven by the marked success of this Company. Their machines are not only in extensive use in our own country, but in nearly all others throughout the civilized world. During the past year their machines have been exhibited at about twenty prominent fairs, and have been awarded nearly forty first premiums. These machines are adapted to both the lock stitch, and the still more desirable Grover & Baker stitch. They are suitable for sewing of every description, and are the only proper machines for embroidery and ornamental work. The great variety of machines manufactured by this Company enables purchasers to select with great facility.

The Grover & Baker Machine is sold at 95 Broadway, New York. 739 Chestnut St., Phila., and by F. X. Zeigler, Columbia.

They need no other recommendation for the desirable quality of their fruit, than this: four years ago we exhibited new varieties of Apples, the Lancaster Co. Fair, which took the first premium. Seven of those varieties were fruit to the original (supposed to be) seedling trees, from which the stock we now offer for sale were propagated. Mr. J. B. From the Rev. Levi G. Burk, Pastor of the North Baptist Church, Philadelphia.
I have known Hoofland's German Bitters favorably for many years, I have used them in my own family, and have been so pleased with their effects that I was induced to recommend them to many others, and know that they have operated in a strikingly beneficial manner. I take great pleasure in thus publicly proclaiming this fact, and calling the attention to these articles, in order that you may be able to benefit the afflicted, "not a rusa drink."
LEVI G. BURK.

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge and Christian Chronical Philadelphia.
Although not directly medicinal, the removal of this prejudice by proper instruction for our encouragement to try them when suffering from any ailment, will be a great boon to the suffering. The use of three bottles of these Bitters at the present year, was followed by evident relief and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which had not for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friends, and recommend them to all who are afflicted with any ailment.
J. NEWTON BROWN, PHILA.

From the Rev. Jos. H. Kennard, Pastor of the 10th Baptist Church, Philadelphia.
Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir:—I have frequently requested to connect my name with commendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the preparation of an alcoholic mixture, I am indebted to my friends, who have secured for me the removal of this prejudice by proper instruction for our encouragement to try them when suffering from any ailment, will be a great boon to the suffering.
