MASONIC REVIEW .- This interesting periodical has been received, and as usual contains a great amount of reading matter. This is the fourth number of its Twenty-ninth volume, and contains a very interesting Valedictory by L. V. Bierce, G. P. M. We would advise all who beontinuance of the custom was a continuance of the custom was succeeded by the property of the custom was succeeded by the continuance of the custom was succeeded by the property of the custom was succeeded by the continuance of the custom was succeeded by the cu Order throughout the State.

FRANK Lestie's Lady's Magazine:
This valuable Magazine and Gazette of Fashion for May, has been received, and contains an excellent selection of the latest fashions, beautifully illustrated with fine steel engravings. It also has a full size pattern of the new Ceinture Parisi-for size pattern of the new Ceinture Parisienne, low Bodice for evening dresses, and little girl's Gored Dress, Bodico and Skirt in one, for cutting out and making-you thus have the pattern and explanation before you, which alone is worth the price of the magazine. We commend it to our lady readers for perusal. It can be had at Wm. U. Hess's book store.

Going Into the Wig Business .-A Western editor requests his subscribers who owe him more than six years' sub scriptions, to send him a lock of their hair, so that he may know that they are still living. In answer to which a contemporary says that if his delinquent subscribers would do thus, he would be obliged to leave off editing and go into the wig business.

POLITENESS .- The basis of all true politeness is kindness. All politeness should be real, and from the heart. If you constantly strive to reason away your prejudices against people, you will become polite. Most of our dislikes have very little foundation. A large proportion of them spring from idle gossip, from fau- MANURES! MANURES!! cied slights, or from trials of our temper which we could very easily forgive, were it really our interest to do so.

But it is always our interest to keep on the best terms with every one who is not really bad or disreputable. To do this one must maintain an unseasing watch one must maintain an unseasing watch over his or her temper, and suffer no op- ter flows, is well adapted to promote the Growth of Cons. If kindness of heart be the first requisite in politeness, it is quite as true that assiduity is not less needed.

Strep .- It is a delicious moment certainly, that of being well nestled in bed, and feeling that you shall drop gently to sleep. The good is to come-not past; the limbs have just been tired enough to rander the remaining in one posture delightful; the labor of the day is done .-A gentle failure of the perceptions comes Losecs and expenses paid in $10,133 32 creeping over one; the spirit of conscious- Rall of Premiums Jan. 1, 1864. 3,751 47 ness disengages itself more and more with alow and hushing degrees, like a mother detaching her hand from her sleeping child; the mind seems to have a balmy lid closing over it, like the eye; 'tis closing tis closing tis closed. ROOM FOR ALL.—Though the world is wide enough for every one to take a little, and there appears no reason why low prices: we should jostle and make one another unhappy as we pass along, yet so it is we are continually thwarting and erossing each other at right angles; and some lose all memory of the temper that governed when first setting out.

A PARROT CALLED AS A WITNESS .-A man lost a favorite parrot, which was discovered in the possession of another person, who refused to give it up. He was accordingly summoned to produce the bird in a court of law. The real owner, on being asked how he could prove that it belonged to him, replied that the parrot should be his only witness. It was then brought into court in a cage covered with cloth, and began to whistle the tune, "Take your time, Miss Lucy," while some subject was discussed by the court. Its owner then put his face to the cage, and desired the parrot to kiss him, which one. the bird did most affectionately. "He will do the same to any one," said the defendant, and, on putting his mouth to the cage, the parrot seized his lip and bit

BE PERMANENTLY CURED!

THE great superiority of Dr. Markley's popular and well tried family medicines is traced to the fact that they search out and eradicate the cause of disease, and hence never fail to effect a permanent cure. They not only restore tone to the diseasive organs, imparting a healthy action to the stomach, liver and bowels, but they thoroughly purify the blood, thus permanently curing the disease by destroying the foundation.

A.CASE IN POINT. DIRECTORS. On the 27th of January, 1860, Mr. D. S. Moore, of Grampian Hills, Clearfield co., Pa., wrote that he was induced by the numerous testimonials he had seen of the cures effected by Dr. Murkley's medicines, to apply in behalf of a sister, whose case he thus described.

hus described:

* * * "For the last six years she has been suffering from Scrofula and White Swelling. In 1854 she suffered severe pain in one of her legs, attended with swelling, which extended from the knee to the hip. In about two months it broke out and discharged, and has continued to do so until the present time. On one occasion a piece of hone three inches in length, and at another time one of a smaller size, came out. Her knee has been stiff for three years, and at times the pain is very severe.

AN ENTIRE CURE EFFECTED. The medicines—the health restorative balsam and blood searther, the Febrifuge and the Black Ontment were furnished, and the result of their use is announced in the fellowing brifar.

and the result of their use is announced in the following letter:

GRAMPIAN HILLS, Pa., Aug. 14, '63.

Dr. MARKLEY—Dear Sir: I am happy to inform you that the medicines received from yon some three years since have effected an entire cure in the case of my sister, who, you will remember, was suffering from Scrofula and White Swelling.

Most respectfully, &c., D. S. MOORE. DYSPEPSIA CURED.

Lancaster, Pa., March 4, 1853.

Dr. G. H. Markley—Dear Sir: It affords me much pleasure to have an opportunity to add my testimony in favor of your popular family medicines, especially as my knowledge of their efficacy is based upon personal experience in my own case and observation of my neighbors. For many years I was the victim of Dyspepsia in its most aggravated form; my system having become so deranged and debilitated, that I was unable to perform any kind of labor. I had resorted to the best doctors within reach, without relief. I used some of the most popular remedies of the day, recommended for that disease, but none of them did re any good. My suffering can be understood by any one suffering from the same disease, but they could not be described in words. I was then living at Hopewell, Chester county, and in 1857, as a last resort, I commenced the use of your medicines. They soon afforded me relief from the most painful symptoms which I had searcely bound to
