A correspondent asks, "who is Henry J. Howard, so conspicatous of late association". We should be very happy to informing our friend and correspondent, if we knew. We know of a Smith who was hung in your locality notions since, and from the sentiments expressed in your letter, you deserte the same fate. We of course did not notice your former letter. You say you will visit us when you come to Columbia; you need not give yourself that trouble, as our sanctim is pure and undefiled, and we do not wish it poluted by such cattle as you.

Fun Ahead.-Don't forget to go and se the "Comic Mules," on Monday afternoon and evening connected with Mrs. Warner's Great National Circus. See advertisement.

WOUNDED .- Joseph Rees, son of William Rees, of this borough, who enlisted some time since in the 91st Penna. regiment, was of the late battles.

Another Railroad Accident.-Sergeant Francis Greenawalt, of company G, 9th Pennsylvania Cavalry, was killed on the railroad at Elizabethtown, on Monday night. He left this city for Elizabethtown, where he has a family, and finding, when nearing that place that the train he was on did not stop there, jumped off, and was so hadly injured that he died an hour afterward.- Espress.

DEATH OF CAPT. WATERBURY.-We regret to learn of the death of Captain Isaac S. Waterbury, in General Butler's army. He died in the field on the 8th inst., from Coup de Soliel. His death will be univereally regreted by a large circle of friends Hall, on Thursday and Friday evenings, Capt. Waterbury was a Lieutenant in the Mexican war, and was engaged in all the conflicts, from the taking of Vers Cruz to the Grand Plaza of the city of Mexico.

When the present rebellion broke out, he was one of the first to raise a company, and was untiring in his efforts to get his men thoroughly drilled. He served as Adjutant in the Second regiment of three months' men, where he made many friends by his complete knowledge of military matters, and his genial social qualities. As soon as the regiment returned, he recruited another company and was attached to the Fifty-fifth regiment, Col. R. White.

THE LADY'S FRIEND.—The June number of this handsome monthly opens with a fine steel engraving of 'The Young Brood. This is followed by a handsome colored Fashion Plate, double the size of those usually given by two-dollar magazines. THE LECTURE.—The lecture for the Sanitary Commission, announced in our last edition, came off on Tuesday evening last, and was a decided success, from which a handsome sum was realized. Col. James Myers made a few opening remarks in which he vividly portrayed the uses of the Sanitary and Christian Commissions; and gave a graphic description of the great good that was now being done among our wounded and sick soldiers. He then introduced the orator of the evening, Rev. Jno. Cromlish, who took for his theme the subject of "Success," and we think those who

If lan guage is really the "wings of thought," hose wings in Mr. Cromlish's lecture seem ed tipped with silver and gold. Everyone who heard him were highly pleased and edified, by the admirable word-paintings of the talented lecturer. He is an agreeable speaker, but it is his beautiful symmetry of language, and the poetic attire given to his thoughts, which charms rather than his great oratorical power.

FOR THE FAIR .- Mr. Harry Brandt has finished one of his patent Improved Horse Rakes, which is to besent to the Great Sanitary Fair in Philadelphia. It is gotten up with great taste. Every particle of the wood and iron were made expressly for it; the mortally wounded in the abdomen, in one spokes and felloes areof white hickory, and is the most beautiful as well as substantial rake ever turned out at this establishment, and reflects great credit on the skill of our Columbia mechanics. The painting is done to the advertisement of Miss Hannah Wike in a superior style by Mr. Simon Knipe, in another column. She keeps on hand a assisted by Mr. Joseph Sample, who says "that he hopes this rake will deserve more honorable mention, than the one the employees of Mr. Brandt's establishment got up and sent to the Sanitary Fair at Lancaster," It can be seen at the factory in Commerce street. It will be shiped for Philadelphia next week.

> Home on Furlough.-Mr. William Roberts au old typo of the "Spy," returned home a few days since. He belongs to company "K" 45th Reg., P. V., and was shot through the arm at the Wilderness battle. He gives a thrilling account of the part they took in the action-of the hardships and sufferings of the wounded—and of the great good the Christian and Sanitary Commissions are now doing in the army, He speaks encouragingly, says there is no faltering or falling back and all are imbued with the same spirit that Richmond must fall, and that there is no such word as fail. They bear their hardships well and go into the fight with buoyant heart and a certainty that they will win.

THAT ORDINANCE.-The new ordinance which the Borough authorities lately issued appears to have little effect on the rowdysm of the boys through town. The gangs which collect on some of our street corners is, without doubt, a nuisance of the deepest dye, and the law should be strictly enforced in order to break up their gatherings. the streets after twilight without having her modesty shocked by these street loungers. We hope our Borough officers will muke a note of this.

FATAL RAILROAD ACCIDENT .- A sad railrand accident happened at Locust Grove near Bainbridge, on Thursday last, by which Edmond Hawthorne of this place lost his life. It was caused by the breaking of a wheel under one of Kauffman & Shaeffer's cars, of which he was in charge. Seecars struck him and run over both legs, crushing them so badly that amputation was deemed necessary,-he died under the operation. He was an exemplary steady man, and leaves a wife and five children

PERSONAL.—Our good looking friendand correspondent L. Legna, Esq., of Pitts-burgh, called on us in our sanctum on President Hamlin. We urge our citizens Thursday last. He looks well, notwithstanding he has just recovered from a severo spell of sickness. I have known Hooflands's German Bit-I have known Hooflands's German Bitters favorably for a number of years. I have used them in my own family, and have been so pleased with their effects that I was induced to recommend them to many others, and know that they have operated in a strikingly beneficial manner. I take great pleasure in thus publicly proclaiming this fact, and calling the attention to those afflicted with the diseases for which they are recommended to these Bitters, knowing from experience that my recommendation will be sustained. I do this cheerfully as Hoofland's Bitters is intended to benefit the afflicted, "not a rum drink."

I confidently recommend the article where I meet with cases similar to my own, and have been assured by many of their good effects. Respectfully yours, T. WINTEER, Boxborough, Pa
