BY LU LIGHT. OBTAINED by a peculiar process in the distillation of the tar, by which its high-est medical properties are retained. I am a blossom fair and sweet.-Sweet and fair, Free from care, Deek'd in a robe so bright and neat, I come with happy smile to greet Ella,

Have You a Cough! Have You a Sore Throat! Have you any of the premonitory symptoms of that most fatal disease, Con-sumption? live a life so wild and free-

Free and wild, Like a child. Those who should be warned by these symptoms generally think lightly of them until it is too late. From this fact, perhaps more than any other, arises the sad preva-lence and fatality of discase which sweeps to the grave at least "one sixth" of death's victims. We live in love, for all agree; Just such a life I wish for thee Ella.

Pine Tree.

more than any other, arises the said prevalence and fatality of disease which sweeps to the grave at least "one sixth" of dealh's victims.
Consumption has destroyed more of the human family than any other disease, and the best physicians for many years have despaired of a cure, or a remedy that would heal the lungs, but for more than two humdred years the whole medical world has been impressed that there was an mysterious power and efficiency in the Pine Tree Tur to heal the lungs; therefore they have re commended the use of Tar Waier, which in many cases had a good effect; but how to combine the medical properties so as to heal the lungs, has ever been a mystery until it was discovered by Dr. L. Q. C. WISHIART, of Philadelphia, Pa., the proprietor of "Wishart's Pine Tree Condial."
Nawn, net only of the neonle but phys.

Many, not only of the people, but physicians of every school and practice, are daily asking me "What is the principle or cause of your success in the treatment of Pulmo-nary Consumption?" My answer is this:

Øriginal. The invigoration of the digestive organs —the strengthening of the debilitated system —the purification and curichment of the blood, must expel from the system the cor-ruption which scrofula breeds. While this is effected by the powerful alterative (chang ing from disease to health) properties of the Tar Cordial, its healing and renovating principle is also acting upon the irritated surfaces of the lungs and throat, penetra-ting to each diseased part, relieving pain, subduing inflamation, and restoring a healthfultendency. Let this two-fold pow-er, the healing and the strengthening, con-tinue to act in conjunction with Nature's constant recuperative tendency, and the patient is saved, if he has not too long de-layed a resort to the means of cure.
