

Local Department.

For the Communications...
No. 427 Walnut Street, Philadelphia.

To Correspondents.
Communications, letters, contributions, generally of merit and interest to the reader, will be accepted from friends from all quarters.

W. C. Your paper leaves this office regularly every Friday evening, the fault does not lie with us, but the parties who own your "pat" can afford to pay for advertising.

J. A. M.—We cannot answer your questions, as our inclination does not lead us in that vein. We have lived to the "good old days" of thirty years, and have never doubted in politics yet. We were never in office, never expected to be, never want to be.

T. M.—I propose to fight you, do you? Well that's our forte. We don't drive a slow coach. Come over—we propose to fight it out on this ground. If it takes all Summer, we offer no apology. We never apologized but to one man, and he was dead. Our manner of expressing our views, may be peculiar, but we cannot help it. It is our style, and we are as God made us—no go there yourself.

E. B.—The business you wished us to transact for you, has been attended to. We will write you, or see you next week.

D. S.—A DEACON asks us what is meant by the word "blundering," is a Yankee phrase, applied to all writers of poetry or verse, and sometimes to prose scribbles. It has been used to point out the "old fogey" of the church.

K. A. S.—A lady writes to us, she has called the "Society" "Bible," we have never made the mistake of calling it "Society," we offer no apology. We never apologized but to one man, and he was dead. Our manner of expressing our views, may be peculiar, but we cannot help it. It is our style, and we are as God made us—no go there yourself.

E. R.—The business you wished us to transact for you, has been attended to. We will write you, or see you next week.

W. H. L.—An apprentice to the printing business. Apply at this office.

JUST OUT.—Harpers Magazine for July is just out, and for sale at Wm. U. Hess' book store.

SOLD.—The former residence of B. Rohrer, M. D., on Locust Street, Columbia, was sold a short time since, at private sale, to Dr. S. Atlee Beckius, for $4500.

THE TEN-FORTY'S.—The subscription to the Ten-Forty loan in April and May was more than sixty millions. Subscriptions still continue to come in rapidly. This loan is one of the best as well as the most advantageous investments that can be made at the present time.

LIERT BRUNEL.—Lieutenant Cyrus Bruner who was shot through the hip, at the battle of the Wilderness, was brought home last week.

The men of his regiment speak in the highest terms of his qualifications as a soldier. His wound is rapidly improving.

MILITIA PAID.—Major B. L. Hewitt, Paymaster U. S. A., arrived in town on Monday evening last, and on the following morning proceeded to pay off the militia called out by the Governor in September, 1862. Four companies were paid, Captains Rambo, Devlin, Case and Stern.

"SECRETARY WORTH KNOWING."—We have received this popular hand-book of universal knowledge. It contains over 2000 valuable receipts. It is also a reliable guide for the preparation of all kinds of medicine. The remarkable cheapness of the work places it within the reach of all. Price 25 cents. —Wm. U. Hess, has it for sale.

SEA SIDE TRIP.—The Camden and Atlantic City Railroad Company now announce their trip to the sea side. They also make one trip each way on Sunday, thus affording mechanics, clerks and book-keepers the great privilege of visiting one of the most popular places of summer resorts in the country. There is no doubt that many of our citizens will take advantage of the Sunday train. By leaving Columbia, Saturday evening after business hours, you can get to Atlantic city on Sunday morning.

NEW PAPER.—We have received Vol. I, No. 1, of a new paper just started in York Pa., entitled The True Democrat. In politics we believe it supports the National and State administrations, yet at the same time it is suited to all tastes. In typographical appearance it is a model of neatness; printed on white paper with new and beautiful type. It shows enterprise throughout, and we have no doubt it will be welcomed wherever it is seen. We wish "The True Democrat" every success.

NEW MUSIC.—"Sister Song and Gather Bones." Published by Wm. Hall & Son, New York. This is an excellent piece, and the words are splendid—written by Miss Kate J. Boyd, who has already acquired a reputation as a song-writer. She is also Editor and Publisher of the "New York Monthly," an entertaining live news-paper. Send for the music and paper both and our word for it, you will never regret it.

ATTEMPTED ABDUCTION OF CHILDREN.—A stranger arrived in town on Saturday last and registered his name at the Franklin House as Henry Hamilton, Harrisburg, Pa. On Sunday he was seen in the vicinity of Second and Locust Streets talking to the children in the neighborhood, but no notice was taken of it. On Monday morning he succeeded in getting one of Mr. Hiram Wilson's children, and also one of Mr. Hiram Wilson's children, and with him by forcing them away. The children were soon missed by their parents and a general search commenced, which for a time rained quite an excitement. They were at length found with the person alluded to above, near the outskirts of town, who, upon seeing a crowd of people, made his escape. He was found next day and brought before Esquire Eberlein who, upon the testimony elicited at the examination, sent him to prison in default of bail. He is a man of about 30 years of age, dark complexion, medium height. There is nothing in his manner or appearance that would indicate him to be other than a gentleman. He says he is from Reading where his people reside, who are spoken of as prominent citizens. He seemed indifferent to his fate. If he had no evil intentions, his actions were certainly very queer for a sane man.

FROM THE 45TH.—The following list of names of the killed and wounded in the 45th Regt., P. V. T., up to June 4th, has been received by a private letter:
Major Kelsey, severely in leg.
Co. B.—Killed, S. Hilder and H. Walton. Wounded—Corp. Seltenberger, N. Langen, Eli Derrick, slightly; Wash Horsey, Joseph Judy, S. Kelly, H. Rile, Tyler Ritchhouse, Lawrence Rice, in arms; Jacob Sourber, severely; Jacob Wolfe.

CO. K.—Wounded, Lieut. Gillebauch, Howard Vach, Jerome Long, Oswald McLoughlin.

To Wounded Soldiers.

All Soldiers who have been discharged by reason of wounds received in any battle, and who have not received the One Hundred Dollars Bounty, can receive the same now at once, by applying either in person or by letter, at the Military and Naval Agency, No. 427 Walnut Street, Philadelphia.

JOSEPH E. DEYER & CO.
A full list of all Prizes Payable to date can be seen at this Office. These and all other claims against the Government promptly collected.

LOVE HER "STILL."—Pat, do you love your Country? "Yes, your honor."

What's the best thing about our Ireland, Pat? "The whiskey, yer honor." "Ah, I love you, Pat, with all her faults, you love her still!" "And everybody still loves."

"A dish of rich strawberries smothered in cream." "Which can be had at Mrs. George J. Smith's Ice Cream Saloon, in Locust street, opposite this office."

SENATOR FALL.—A man named Henry Fahringer, who has been in the employ of Messrs. Cottrill & Smith, attempted to get in the window of the American House, (where he boarded), on Wednesday morning last. He ascended the stairs and when near the window, it gave way and he fell astride the iron railing leading to the restaurant, horribly bruising his face, fracturing his arm and otherwise injuring him. He was taken to Wrightsville where his family reside.

GOOD PAPER.—One of the very best of our exchanges is The National Exchange, published by Samuel T. Cobb, Boston, Mass. It is a pungent, pithy and original paper. It has some of the best correspondents in the country contributing to its columns—besides original stories, sketches, poems, &c. In this weeks paper may be found an interesting letter from our friend, James S. Watkins, of Baltimore, Md., who is one of the most popular newspaper writers of the day.

RETURN OF THE RESERVES.—The Pennsylvania Reserves arrived home this week. Already we see on our streets the old familiar faces of Col. J. W. Fisher, Capt. Caldwell, Lieut. J. L. Wright, Lieut. Samuel Evans, and others. They look war-worn and fatigued. Their sun-burned countenances show that they have been long in actual service. The Division left Harrisburg three years ago at least fifteen thousand strong—they were with only fifteen hundred strong, though a few of them have re-enlisted.

Welcome home, brave heroes—we warmly congratulate you.

MME. DEMOREST'S MIRROR OF FASHION.—This splendid quarterly fashion book for Summer has been received at Wm. U. Hess' book store.

This is the largest Fashion Magazine in the world. Splendid fashion plates, new music, elegant novelties for summer fashions, and seven full-sized patterns, in this number.

PHYSICAL CULTURE.
The "NORMAL INSTITUTE FOR PHYSICAL EDUCATION," incorporated in 1860, and under the management of Dr. Dio Lewis, will open its Seventh Session on the Fifth of July, 1864.
The demand for teachers of the New Gymnastics has become such, that two classes of graduates, consisting of about fifty ladies and gentlemen, are now or soon engaged, and hundreds more might find profitable employment. Well-known medical men assist in preparing the pupils to act as guides in Physical Culture.
In the department of Gymnastics, Dr. Lewis personally trains every candidate for the New Profession.
If any reader would know more of this matter, he has better inquire of the profession, let him inquire of the following: Dr. Dio Lewis, Boston.
"To Dr. Dio Lewis, more than to any other man, is the country indebted for the present good, practical interest in physical culture. He has done a noble work."
"We look upon Dr. Lewis as one of the benefactors of his race."—Grace Greenwood.
"Success to Dr. Lewis's Gymnasium."—No better Institution exists."—Kneickerbocker.
"Dr. Lewis's book is the most practical, sensible work on this subject, extant in any language."—Continental Monthly.
"Dr. Lewis has given us far the best and practical of all publications on the subject of Physical Culture."—N. Y. Independent, June 11.

The Great Central Fair.

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE.
THE price of a single admission is FIFTY CENTS.—Children under thirteen half price. This admits to EIGHTY ONE, out of the NINEITY Departments of the Fair, and to much more than three-quarters of the whole space covered by the buildings. Certain Departments, nine in number, containing articles chiefly for exhibition, and not for sale, have been permitted to charge a separate price for admission, as follows:

| | |
|--------------------------|---------|
| Art Gallery | 25 cts. |
| Indian Department | 25 " |
| Arms and Trophies | 25 " |
| Telios and Curiosities | 25 " |
| Horticultural Department | 25 " |
| Children's Amusements | 25 " |
| William Penn Parlor | 10 " |
| Pennsylvania Kitchen | 10 " |
| Skating Pond | 10 " |

The Executive Committee assure the Public that, although the full money's worth will be obtained from a visit to the eighty-one departments to which the entrance fee admits, yet it will be found that the nine other departments will amply reward the visitors and justify the additional outlay. All must bear in mind that, by these extra charges, the total receipts are increased and the help cause is as much assisted as it would be, were the same sum expended by the fair in the purchase of articles exposed for sale.

The Fair will open on TUESDAY, the 7th inst., at 4 P. M.
On Wednesday, 8th inst., the Fair will be opened from 9 A. M. to 4 P. M.
HORACE HOWARD PURNESS, Sec'y.
