☞ No Communications can be noticed unless accompanied by the writer's real name, not necessary for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith.

To Correspondents.

Communications, letters, contributions, generally of merit and interest to the reader, will be acceptable from friends from all quarters.

G. M. R.—The papers have been handed over to the Col. who will attend to them.

B. C. L.—The poems have been received. We shall do as you request.

C. H. D.—Take your time, it will be all the better when it comes. Glad to hear that you are so busy—it serves you right.

LITTLE CHARLIE asks "If the printers got paid for all we read in the papers." We answer, some do, but they are very few—at least no man was ever known to be found drowned with a receipt from a printer in his possession.

H. S.—The militia has been paid. If he was not here to draw it, he must apply now through the 2nd Auditor at Washington, D. C.

I. B. O.—We are not under obligations to any party, neither are we to you. If you do not like us, or our paper, send us the two dollars you owe for subscription, and order your paper stopped.

451.—We would be pleased to have a letter from you occasionally, but we must have your real name. We publish no communication without the name of the author.

J. M. C.—The person you inquire for left town some time since—we presume to escape the enrollment or draft.

LITERARY NOTICES.

MASONIC REVIEW.—This is one of the ablest Masonic Magazines published in the United States, and every mason who loves and appreciates the institution should subscribe for it. Terms only $2 per annum. C. Moore, editor, 60 West 4th Street, Cincinnati, Ohio.

BALLOU.—The cheapest magazine in the world—commences a new volume with this, the July number. Now is the time to subscribe. It is an excellent literary journal and is profusely illustrated. Terms only one dollar per annum, Boston, Mass. W. U. Hess has it for sale.

AMERICAN EXCHANGE AND REVIEW.—The June number of this ably edited magazine has been received. It is especially devoted to Finance, Insurance, Mining and Railway intelligence. It contains articles which cannot fail to interest the man of business. Terms $3 per annum, Fowler & Moon, 52 Chesnut street, Philadelphia.

OUR DAILY FARE.—This is the title of a daily paper issued by Geo. W. Childs and others during the fair for the sanitary commission, at Phila. It contains a full and complete history of the Fair, daily reports of its contents, &c. It is gotten up in splendid style, and when bound will make a handsome book. W. U. Hess has them for sale.

THE LADY'S FRIEND.—The July number of this magazine is one of the best yet issued. It opens with a beautiful and piquant steel engraving, called "How they Caught Fish," which represents a couple of young lovers earnestly engaged in conversation, apparently much to the astonishment of a party of ladies, who have just come to the edge of the woods. Then follows a very handsome fashion plate, such as this magazine is becoming noted for.—Then an engraving of the Empress Eugenie, and a large number of others, devoted to the illustration of the latest styles of dress, &c. The music of this number is a Grand March from the opera of Faust. The literary matter is excellent. Price $2,00 a year; 20 cents a single number. Address Deacon & Peterson, 319 Walnut St., Philadelphia. W. U. Hess has it for sale.

WANTED.—An apprentice to the printing business. Apply at this office.

REBEL GOLD FOUND.—Simon Hogentogler and O. McLaughlin of this Borough, belonging to the 45th Penna. Veteran Vols., while digging in the trenches dug up a box which had been buried by some of the rebel citizens, which contained upwards of three thousand dollars in gold and silver. "Hunkey boys."

LADIES' FAIR.—The ladies of St. Paul's Episcopal Church intend giving a fair on the afternoons and evenings of Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of next week. A large amount of fancy articles will be offered for sale at reasonable prices, together with confectionaries, cakes, ice cream strawberries, &c., &c.

JUSTICE OF THE PEACE.—Lieut. Samuel Evans having returned from the wars, has opened an office as Justice of the Peace, on Front street below Locust. Those persons who wish justice done, will find Lieut. Evans as affable and corteous as ever.—Special attention will be given to conveyancing, collecting claims, &c., &c.

FOR SALE.—Mr. C. C. Himes offers his vinegar establishment at private sale. For some years past this establishment has been doing a large and profitable business; and a good opportunity is here offered to any person wishing to engage in this trade. Mr. Himes has other business which requires his especial attention.

REMOVED.—Mr. John Finger, lumber inspector, who has occupied rooms at the Franklin House, in this borough, for the past 17 years, has removed to the American House, Front street, and has his rooms and office on the second story, where he will be happy to see his friends at all times. "The atmosphere amongst the 'bulls and bears' of Locust street," he says, "is not healthy"—hence the change of residence.

RUN OFF.—On last Tuesday evening, two horses attached to a carriage, belonging to Mr. Joseph Hogentobler of this place, became frightened and started at full speed down Locust street, until they came in contact with a tree on the side of the street, which upset the carriage, knocking the top off and doing other damage to it. Two boys who were driving were somewhat injured, but not seriously. The horses ran some distance, but were caught before doing much damage.

TO SUBSCRIBERS.—The expence of publishing a newspaper is now nearly doubled, we therefore must request subscribers to pay up promptly. The amount is small to the subscriber, but in the aggregate will foot up a handsome sum to us. The subscription of many of our subscribers will expire on the 2nd of July next, and if not paid before that time $2,50 will be charged. To publish a newspaper at the present price of white paper is a sinking fund to us. According to the price of other things we should have $5.00 per annum for our paper, in place of $1,50 in advance. We do not intend to increase the subscription of the paper if we can help it—but the time is obviously near when we shall be obliged to do so.

FROM THE 23RD REGT., P. V.—We have received an anonymous letter from a person in the 23rd Regt. P. V., dated at Cold Harbor, Va., June 8th, giving account of the loss in Company T. in the action of June 1st, at the above named place. The letter speaking of the gallant action of the regiment, says:—"We rushed for the rebel breast-works at double quick, and when within fifty yards of them we met with a furious storm of musket balls; still on our column went, until within thirty feet of the rebels, when they opened a murderous fire of grape and canister upon us, literally mowing us down like grass before the cythe. Nothing short of Salamanders could have stood this living hell of fire, and we slowly fell back and reformed our lines and again advanced, and now occupy a position near the rebel rifle pits.

We mourn the loss of many friends, and some Columbians. The regimental loss was 187 killed and wounded. Company I, (your Columbia company,) has to mourn the loss of the following brave men:

Killed—Capt. Henry A. Marchant, Corp. Henry Zimmerman, Privates John Morrison and Edward C. Brown.

Wounded—Sergeants John B. Bowers, Wm. Stevens, Wm. D. Sloan. Corporals Jacob F. Albright, Oliver McFadden. Private John Brown, Abraham K. Burger. Joseph Butler, John H. Christy, Jacob Shaffer, George H. Seifred and Robert S. Dunbar.

Missing—Corp. John L. Grub; Private Joseph Cooley, Wm Carpenter, Benneville Ruth, supposed to be prisoners. John Dunkle, Abraham Yinger and Robert Miller, missing.

The killed were buried upon the battle field. They fell martyrs to their country, and died upholding the banner of the Union. They need no monument; their names are graven by their brave deeds upon their comrades hearts."

CONTRACT AWARDED.—The contract on route No. 1, for the transportation of all military stores or supplies to Salt Lake City, Fort Bridger, Fort Halleck, Fort Laramine, Fort Kerney, Denver City and the posts and depots in Nebraska and Oregon, has been awarded to A. Caldwell & Co., of Leavenworth, Kansas. Mr. A. Caldwell is an old Columbian and an enterprising gentleman, of fine social qualities. We understand he is doing well in his new home in that far off country, which gives us pleasure to announce.

HARRY KRUSEN.—In a private letter to Henry Bramott, Esq., of Lancaster, from Col. Hambright, we have information of Harry Kruesn, well known in this town as a locomotive engineer. He went south before the rebellion, where he has been ever since, following his occupation. Hearing of Col. Hambright, commanding the Post at Kingston, Georgia, he came into his lines. He gives a fearful account of his sufferings and intends, if possible, to get his family and come to Pennsylvania again. He gives Col. Hambright valuable information in reference to the situation of the country, army, &c.

SWEET MUSIC.—On Tuesday night last, we were awakened from a profound slumber by the delightful music of the Keffer Orchestra, beneath our window. We thought for a time, that we were transported from the sublunary scenes of earth, and were listening to the sweet and placid music of the celestial chorus above. The Keffer is one of the fixed institutions of our town, and have become very proficient in musical skill; so much so, that we doubt whether their equals can be found anywhere. We thank you, gentleman, for that beautiful serenade, and dare you not to repeat it.

NEW BOOKS.—Wm. U. Hess has just received a large assortment of new books.—All the late publications of the day may be found at his store. "Hossifer" is a trump in his way. See advertisement in to-days paper.

PAVEMENTS.—Our pavements in many parts of town are notoriously uneven and out of order, in many places, walking out dark nights involves considerable personal hazard. We hope that our authorities will see the importance of remedying the evil.

SOMETHING NEW.—P. Shreiner & Son advertises something new in the clock line. It is a perpetual calander clock, showing the day of the week, month and year. Call see them.

WANTED.—A male nurse, to go to Washington, D. C. One who has had some experience prefered. Apply at this office.

FRUIT CANS.—Messrs. Cottrells advertise valuable fruit cans in to-days paper.

COLUMBIA
Classical and Military Institute.
THE undersigned has leased for a term of years, the property known as the Washington Institute, and is having it altered and put in complete repair, for the purpose of a Boarding School for Boys, and a day school for both sexes. This Institution will afford every facility for acquiring a thorough and extended knowledge of those studies which constitute a liberal education—preparing young men for Business, Teaching or for entering any class in our best Colleges; and affording young Ladies superior advantages in the solid and ornamental branches. While instruction in the usual studies of an English Education will be thorough and complete, special attention, however, will be given to the Classics and higher Mathematics: and two evenings in the week will be devoted to instruction in Book Keeping, which has become a most important branch of a business education. In order to secure a well directed and popular system of exercise, a Military Department will be connected with the Institution, under the supervision of Major G. READ WHO SAYS SO:
From the Rev. Levi G. Burk, Pastor of the Baptist Church, Pemberton, N. J., formerly of the North Baptist Church, Philadelphia.
I have known Hoofland's German Bitters favorably for a number of years. I have used them in my own family, and have been so pleased with their effects that I was induced to recommend them to many others, and know that they have operated in a strikingly beneficial manner. I take great pleasure in thus publicly proclaiming this fact, and calling the attention to those afflicted with the diseases for which they are recommended to these Bitters, knowing from experience that my recommendation will be sustained. I do this cheerfully as Hoofland's Bitters is intended to benefit the afflicted, "not a rum drink."
LEVI G. BECK.

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge and Christian Chronicle Philadelphia.
Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of the ir ingredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.
I do this more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr C M Jackson, this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend, Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper test and for encouragement to try them when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these bitters at the present year, was followed by evident relief and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor, which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to use them.
J NEWTON BROWN, PHILA.

From the Rev. Jos. H Kennard, Pastor of the 10th Baptist Church
Dr. Jackson:—Dear Sir:—I have been frequently requested to connect my name with commendations of different kinds of medicines but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances, and particularly in my family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that, for general debility of the system and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuble preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above cause.
Yours, very respectfully,
J. H KENNARD,
