-Written for the Columbia Spy. "Our City Fathers."

BY SHORTFELLOW.

Bards have sung by inspiration; Pietured on the wings of fancy. Portraits of enchanted circles, By the powers of love and Gupld. And the muses have selected Chieftians, Heorines and Heros; Sung their vices and their virtues; Handed down their names and action; Made them clasic and immortal. As a subject well selected : Don Juan, the couthful hero. Who could play the gallant lover, To the dark eyed moorish beauty, To the pretty Donna Julia. Cleopatra figures largely, In a life of Princely scandal, Captivates her Kingly lovers; As a Farie mystic charmer. And the wife of Bath, a lady, Who but five times was a willow. Wooed and won like other maidens, When at first, she entered wedlock ; And who set her cap for lovers, When in want of future husbands. Billy Patterson, the victim Of some pugilistic papion, Struck-a hero and a martyr, Of his age and generation. But why should we sing of ancients 7 Why not sing of modern heros ? Why not sing our songs as subjects; Subjects of our city fathers? Sing their vices-sing their virtues-Sing our songs as worthy subject. They have virtues, so have kittens, Long before their eyes are open. They have talents, yet unnoticed -But our hope is in the future. They have energies, prospective, Kept for future operations. They exhibit much discretion : Both in valor and in promptuess. In an ordinance, intended To improve the public morals ; They impose a fine on infants; On our little school boy yelpers, Which affords a manly contest; When the choosers and the chosen Are the same size, and are equal-Each by precept, is a warrior; But by practice, nonresistant. Each one favors volunteering. Filling up our noble army, With the last man, and his dollar, If by chance he is conscripted; And to poor to raise "three hundred." But when urged to pay a bounty, By nine-tenth of all their subjects, Raised by tax upon the borough. Thereby make the burden equal, Thereby do our honest duty, Thereby furnish our proportion, Of the soldiers of the nation; And our share of the expenses Then the feather seemed to whiten ; Then they wished, and so do rebels, "To be let alone," brave council ! Almost every town and borough, In our State and in our Country, Levies taxes ; offers bounties : Thus, affording some protection, To the working population ; And inducements to the soldiers, Who enlist and fight our battles. But alas ! our city fathers, Noble heros of the future, May be heard from, when the trumpot Calls for all, to final judgment. ey neglected And refused to fill our quota : "Lot alone" the armed rebellion ; Just as rebels had requested ; Left us in repudiation : In disgrace to be conscripted-Language fails to draw the picture; Hope and fear in breathless silence : Ebbed and flowed in every bosom ; Till each saw the list of conscripts. Some few of the rich were drafted, Who with ease 'shelled out' the greenback Others, who by patient labor, Had saved up a little pittance, Have been striped, a gloomy future, Sleepless nights and smothered sorrows, Take the place of former pleasures; Pleasures in anticipation Of a little home in future. Then the poor man, shall I name him ? Such as do not have the needful. Dragged away to fight our battles, From his wife, his home, his children, Who, on leaving, is saluted, With a sneer, "how are you conscript ?" All for what? to screen old fogles And a few rich corporations, From a debt, they owe their country, From a debt, they owe the soldiers, Who protect their homes and persons ; Who protect their princely fortunes : And who fight our Nation's battles. Striped, deserted, noble heros, Knights of honesty and labor, Victims of neglect inhuman, Victims of our rich old fories. Of old fogies and their minions, When you cast a vote in future; Vote for those who'll not desert you : Vote for men with mind fraternal; Voto for those who's hearts are human Vote for those who's ears are shorter. The colored troops are represented a being unaffected by the heat. Surgeon Jackson, in charge of the 4th Division Hospital, 9th Gorps, reports that in that Hospital, 9th Gorps, reports that in that division only forty men, out of more than 4,000, were unfit for duty when they will be considered collectable every four division only forty men, out of more than were put in front ou Tuesday last, to rewore put in front on Tuesday last, to re-leive the 2d Corps. This tends to show how much better they can endure the storching rays of the sun than the white troops. troops.

Sunday trains on Rail Roads general ly pay. We now have one from Reading to Philadelphia, in the morning and return in the evening, also, one from this city to Allentown and return. One more is needed-from Reading to Columbia and return. Some of our strict church men object to Sunday travel, we know, but, we also know that men and women genuine. who are closely confined within brick walls all week, will go out on Sunday .--They will hire horses and carriages, for recreation, or, they will go on foot, but go they will. Now we ask, why not let them have use of the iron horse, to visit Pottstown, Norristown, Philadelphia, Bethlehem, Lebanon, Harrisburg, Ephrata, Litiz or Columbia?

Gentlemen of the Reading and Columbio Rail Road, let us have a Sunday train on your Road .- Berks County Zeitung.

READ WHO 6AY SO: From the Rer. Levi G. Burk, Pastor of the Baptist Church, Pemberion, N. J., formerly of the North Baptist Church, Philadelphia. I have known Hooflands's German Bit-tersfavorably for a number of years. I have used them in my own family, and have been so pleased with their effects that I was induced to recommend them to many others, and know that they have operated in a strikingly beneficial manner. I take great pleasure in thus publicly proclaim-ing this fact, and calling the attention the they are recommended to these Bitters knowing from experience that my recom-mendation will be sustand. I do this cheerfully as Hooflam's Bitters is intend-ed to have the theofund's Bitters is intend

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Edi-tor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowl-edge and Christian Chronicle Philadelphia. Although not disposed to favor or recom-mend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he be-lieves himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of oth-ers.

may thus contribute to the benefit of oth-ers. I do this more readily in regard to Hoof-land's German Bitters, prepared by Dr C M Jackson, this city, because I was prefu-diced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend, Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removalof this prejudice by propertestsand borencouragement to try them when suffer-ing from great and long continued debility The use of three bottles of these bitters at the present year, was followed by evident , relief and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six monthshefore, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to use them. J NEWTON BROWN, PHILA. No. 726 N. Nineteenth Street. From the Rev. Thes. Winter, Paster of Roxborough Baptist Church. Dr. Jackson: -Dear Sir:--I feel it due to your excellent preparation, Hoofland Ger-man Bitters, to add my testimony to the deserved reputation it has obtained. I have for years at times, been troubled with great disorder in my head and nervous system. J was advised by a friend to try a bottle of your German Bitters. I did so and have experienced great and unexpected relief; my health has been very materially bene-itited. I confidently recommend the ar-ticle where I meet with cases similar to my own, and have been assured by many of their good effects. Respectfully yours, T. WINTER, Roxborough, Pa.
