NEEDS REPAIR .- The crossing at the Alley, on Walnut Street, opposite Hogendobler's Livery is in bad condition. Some unfortunate one will meet with an accident cost the Borough more to pay the damages than it would to repair the crossing.

A NUISANCE.—Have we no Street Commissioner? If so, why are hogs perof mischief in our streets? A stranger to streets were used for a pasturage. Some of our citizens are greatly annoyed by these houses for a nest, and also entering and destroying their yards and gardens. If there is an ordinance to prevent this nuisance, why not enforce it?

DAY OF FASTING AND PRAYER. Next Thursday has been appointed, by the President of the United States, as a day of Fasting and prayer; as a return for the many blessings bestowed on our country during the late campaign. Our armies both east and west have been successful in driving the rebels from point to point, until they are at last driven to that last ditchin whichshall end the rebellion. Let us then, one and all, unite in our petitions to the Throne of Grace, to continue to the end what has so successfully been commenced.

FUSS AND FEATHERS .- The ridiculousness of the "jockey hat and feather" was somewhat humbled by a burlesque, on Thursday evening last, played by a "pretty damsel" of our borough. This seemingly fashion has come to such a pitch that no young lady can be recognized in society, unless she can "cut a pigeon wing," much to the chagrin of loving friends. But the sight of the burlesque lady, with a feather unknown isle expressly for the occasion. caused many faces to smile whilst others turned aside blushing with reproach. THE ELECTION.—Next Tuesday is Bet aside, by the Legislature of Pennsylvania, on which the long contested subject of the soldier's right of franchise is to be decided. As it is now allotted to the people to decide this question, letall turn out and vote, either pro or con, in order that when the decision is cast, no chaffing will be indulged in, for-let it be good or ill-the majority must rule. Suspecting some one connected with the Canal Boat " Tempest" with having stolen the same, he went before Justice Evans and took out a search warrant, and handed it to the indefatigable Meffinnis, who discovered the stolen property and returned it to the owner .-The parties are wending their way together in perfect harmony, down the "raging canal," ready perhaps to make a "raid" upon some luckless boatmen who may chance to have an article of which they are chance to have an article of which they are deficient. ENGTARDES: IRON IN THE BLOOD.

IBON IN.THE BLOGD,

It is well known to the medical profession that IRON is the vital Principle or Life element of the blood. This is derived eliefly from the food we eat; but if the food is not properly digested, or if, from any cause whatever, the necessary quantity of iron is not taken into the circulation, or becomes reduced, the whole system suffers. The bad blood will irritate the heart, will clog up the lungs, will stupefy the brain, will obstruct the liver, and will send its disease producing elements to all parts of the system, and every one will suffer in whatever organ may be predisposed to disease.

The great value of IRON AS A MEDICINE Is well known and acknowledged by all medical men. The difficulty has been to obtain such a preparation of it as will enter the circulation and assimilate at once with the circulation and assiminate at once with the blood. This point, says Dr. Hayes Massachusetts State Chemist, has been at tained in the Peruvian Syrup, by combi-nation in a way before unknown.

I have known Hooflands's German Bitters favorably for a number of years. I have been so pleased with their effects that was induced to recommend them to many others, and know that they have operated in a strikingly beneficial manner. I take great pleasure in thus publicly proclaiming this fact, and calling the attention to those afflicted with the diseases for which they are recommended to these Bitters knowing from experience that my recommendation will be sustained. I do this cheerfully as Hoofland's Bitters is intended to benefit the afflicted, "not a rum drink."

LEVI G. BECK.

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge and Christian Chronicle Philadelphia. Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient, reasons why a man may not testify to the henefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

may thus contribute to the benefit of otherers.

I do this more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebtedto my friend, Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the romovalof this prejudice by propertests and forcessor and the present with the present with the present year, was followed by ovident relief and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six monthsbefore, and had almost despaired of regaining. Dr. Jackson:—Dear Sir:—I have been frequently resquested to connect my name with commendations of different kinds of medicines but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances, and particularly in my family. of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's Garman Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that, for general debility of the system and especially for Liver Complain, it is a safe and valuble preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above cause.

Yours, very respectfully.
