Poor Richard's Reasons for Buying U.

S. Securities. The other day we heard a rich neighbor say he had rather have railroad stocks than the U.S. stocks, for they paid higher interest. Just then Poor just bought some of Uncle Sam's three against a wet day, and I have kopt a lit oner. tle of my earnings by me." Now Poor how to make use of, and his wisdom and cided in favor of the hanging. prudence had become a proyerb. So, when he took out his savings and bought and it was no wonder rich Mr. Smith asked why. So Poor Richard, in a very quiet humble way-for he never assumed anything-replied, "I suppose, Mr. Smith you know a great deal better than I do what to do with money and how to invest; for I never had much, and all I got I had to work for. But I have looked round a good deal upon my neighbors, and seen what they did with their money and I will tell you some things I saw and what I thought of it. One very rich man was always dealing in money, and he made a great deal, but was never satisfied without high interest. So he lent most that George Lawrence is living, and that of his money to some people who he I did not murder Laura Harvey." thought were very rich, at a high rate; smash He got back about ten cents on him," "hang him." a dollar of his money. I knew another old gentleman, who had some bank stock and he went to the bank and got ten per cent. dividend. The President and every body said it was the best stock in the country-paid ten per cent. But what next day! Why? why? said everybody. Because, it pays too much dividend .-And in six months the bank went to Well, Mr. Smith, you say railroad stocks lodged safely in his old quarters again. are best, because they pay high dividends? Can you tell how long they will pay them? I like railroads. I helped to build one, and I go in for useful things. But I tell you what I know about them.
